Anno quarto & quinto

Annæ Reginæ.

An Act for Laying further Duties on Low-Wines, and for Preventing the Damage to Her Majesties Revenue by Importation of Foreign Cut Whale-Bone, and for Making some Provisions as to the Stamp-Duties, and the Duties on Births, Burials, and Marriages, and the Salt-Duties, and touching Million Lottery-Tickets, and for Enabling Her Majesty to Dispose the Effects of William Kidd, a Notorious Pirate, to the Use of Greenwich Hospital, and for Appropriating the Publick Monies Granted in this Session of Parliament.

MAy it please Your most Excellent Majesty, Whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Your Majesties late Royal Brother King William the Third, of Glorious Memory, (Intituled, An Act for Granting to His Majesty several Duties upon Low-Wines, or Spirits of the First Extraction, and Continuing several Additional Duties upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices, and Pictures, and certain Impositions upon Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty-Chapmen, and the Duty of Fifteen per Centum upon Muslins, and for Improving the Duties upon Japanned and Lacquered Goods, and for Continuing the Coynage-Duty, for the several Terms and Purposes therein mentioned) certain Duties upon Low Wines, or Spirits of the First Extraction, were Granted for a Term to Continue until the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and six; And by another Act made in the Third Year of Your Majesties Reign (Intituled, An Act for Continuing Duties upon Low-Wines, and upon Coffee, Preamble. Act 12 W. 3. Act 3 Anne.

Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices and Pictures, and upon Hawkers, Pedlars and Petty-Chapmen, and upon Muſlins, and for Granting New Duties upon ſeveral of the ſaid Commodities, and alſo upon Callicoes, China Ware and Drugs) The ſaid Duties upon Low-Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction are Continued from the Twenty fourth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, until the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten, as by the ſaid ſeveral Acts may appear: Now we Your Majeſties Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament Aſſembled, have Given and Granted, and do by this Act Give and Grant to Your Majeſty the ſeveral Duties herein after mentioned, over and above all Duties already Granted upon Low-Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction; And do humbly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be Enacted: And be it Enacted by the Queens moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That all and every ſuch or the like Duties for or upon all Low-Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, as by the ſaid Act of the ſaid Twelfth Year of His ſaid late Majeſties Reign were Continued or Granted until the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, ſhall by Virtue of this Act be Continued from the Four and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, until the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeven.

Duties Granted over and above the former.

The like Duties, &c. to be Continued to 25 March, 1707.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for every Gallon of Low-Wines, or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, which at any time or times, during the Term of Five Years, to Commence from the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, ſhall be made or Drawn from any Foreign or Imported Materials, or any Mixture with Foreign Materials, there ſhall be paid and payable to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, over and above all other Duties Charged or Chargeable thereupon, by this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, the Sum of Two Pence, to be paid by the Diſtillers or Makers thereof.

Diſtillers, &c. to pay 2 d. per Gallon.

And it is hereby Enacted, That all the reſpective Duties on Low-Wines, or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction by this Act Granted or Continued, ſhall, during the Continuance of the ſame reſpectively, be Aſcertained, Secured, Raiſed, Levied, Recovered and Paid, by ſuch Rules and Methods, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, and ſubject to ſuch Drawbacks and Allowances, and under ſuch Power of Mitigation, as the Duties upon the like Commodities by the ſaid Act of the Third Year of Her Majeſties Reign, or any Law relating thereunto, are Enacted or Appointed to be Aſcertained, Secured, Raiſed, Levied, Recovered and Paid reſpectively, and are and ſhall be Appropriated and Applied to and for the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes to which the Duties upon Low-Wines by the ſaid Act of the Third Year of Her Majeſties Reign are Appropriated and ought to be Applied.

Duties, &c. to be Raiſed by the Methods in the Act of the Third of Her Majeſty.

And whereas it is found by Experience, That any Quantity of Waſh made of Drink Brewed or Made from Malted Corn, or from Unmalted Corn, will upon Diſtillation produce one fourth Part of the ſame Quantity into Low-Wines, or Spirits of the first Extraction, and that such Low-Wines or Spirits upon the second Distillation, will produce three fifth Parts of the Quantity of the same Low-Wines or Spirits into Proof Spirits, or Spirits of the second Extraction, and that any Quantity of Wash made of Cyder or Perry will produce one fifth Part of the same Quantity into Low-Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, and that the same Low-Wines or Spirits, upon the second Distillation will produce One half Part of the Quantity of the same Low Wines or Spirits into Proof Spirits, or Spirits of the second Extraction: And whereas many Distillers do hide and conceal great Quantities of such Low-Wines and Spirits from the sight and view of the Gager, before he can come to take an Account of the same, by means whereof her Majesty may be very much Defrauded in her Duties on such Low-Wines, and Proof Spirits, Granted by this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament for the Duties on Low-Wines and Spirits: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Four and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and five; It shall and may be Lawful to and for the Gagers and Officers of Excise, to keep an Account of all the said several sorts of Wash which shall, from time to time, be found by him or them in the Hands of any Distiller, and upon any Decrease of such Wash Brewed or Made from Malted Corn, or Corn Unmalted, to Charge such Distiller with so much Low-Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, as one fourth Part of the same Wash so Decreased shall amount unto, and also with so much Proof Spirits, or Spirits of the second Extraction, as three fifth Parts of the said Low-Wines so Charged, as aforesaid, shall amount unto; and also upon any Decrease of Wash made from Cyder or Perry, to Charge such Distiller, upon whom such Decrease shall be found, with so much Low-Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, as one fifth Part of the same Wash so Decreased shall amount unto, and likewise with so much Proof Spirits, or Spirits of the second Extraction, as one half Part of the same Low-Wines or Spirits of the second Extraction shall amount unto; and such Distillers shall Pay the Duties of the Low-Wines and Spirits so Charged as by the Acts relating to the said Duties on Low-Wines and Spirits, or any of them, are directed and appointed.

Gagers to take an Account of Wash, &c.

On Decrease of Wash, &c. Distiller to pay the Duty, &c.

Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to take away or lessen any of the Powers or Authorities heretofore given, to any of the Officers of Excise by any Law or Laws now in Force, touching or concerning the said Duties on Low-Wines and Spirits.

Officers of the Excise, their Power not Lessened.

And whereas, by an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Third (Intituled, An Act for Granting to His Majesty a further Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage, towards raising the Yearly Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds for the Service of His Majesties Houshold; and other Uses therein mentioned, during His Majesties Life) It is Enacted, That if any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies-Politick or Corporate, shall import or bring into this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, any Cut Whalebone (other than in Fins only) he, she or they shall Forfeit the Goods, and double the Value of the Cut Whalebone Act 9 W. 3.

Cut Whalebone Imported (other than in Fins) forfeited, &c.

Some to Imporred, One Moiety thereof to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and one other Moiety to him or them that shall Seize or Sue for the same, in any of His Majesties Courts of Record; Yet it is found by Practice and Experience, that the said Penalty is not sufficient to deter ill designing Persons from continuing Fraudulently to Import great quantities of Foreign Cut Whalebone in short Lengths and small Parcels, in diminution of Her Majesties Revenue, and to the great Loss and Discouragement of the Manufacturers imployed in Cutting of Fin Whalebone in this Kingdom; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and five, any Person or Persons whatsoever, Trading or Dealing in Whalebone, having in his, her or their Custody, any such Foreign Cut Whalebone (other than in Fins regularly imported) shall Forfeit the Sum of Thirty Pounds, and also be subject to the like Penalties and Forfeitures as the Importers thereof, by the aforesaid recited Act are liable unto; and also that the Masters of such Ships and Vessels, knowingly bringing or importing any Foreign Cut Whale-Fins or Whalebone, as aforesaid, shall Forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, One Moiety of the aforesaid Penalties to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons as shall Seize and Sue for the same, in any of Her Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection or Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance shall be allowed; And if any Dispute, Question or Doubt shall arise, whether any Cut Whalebone found, seized or received, as aforesaid, were Cut in Parts beyond the Seas, the Proof shall be Incumbent only upon the Importer, Claimer, Owner, Proprietor, or such Person or Persons, in whose Hands or Custody such Cut Whalebone shall be found respectively, and not upon the Seizer, Informer or Prosecutor, any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons having such Whalebone found in their Custody after 24 March, 1705. to forfeit 30 l.

not already Recovered, and by them respectively incurred, for or in respect of the Premisses before the First day of December, One thousand seven hundred and five; Provided that such Person or Persons forfeiting, as aforesaid, pay or cause to be paid, the several Duties directed to be paid, by the several Acts for Granting Duties upon Stampt Vellom, Paper and Parchment, to the Receiver-General of the Stampt Duties, before the Nine and twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and six, and in Default thereof, such Persons respectively shall lose the Benefit of the Indemnity granted by this Act.

Provided also, That the Admissions of all such Freemen, as were admitted into any Corporation or Company, before the said First day of December, One thousand seven hundred and five, and all the said other Proceedings before that time had, shall be good and valid in Law notwithstanding any Neglect or Omission before that time, with Relation to the said Stampt Duties; And that all Penalties and Forfeitures for any Offence committed, as aforesaid, which shall not be Discharged by paying such Duties before the said Nine and twentieth day of September, One thousand seven hundred and six, shall and may be Sued for, Prosecuted and Recovered, so as the Prosecution be Commenced at any time within One Year after the said Nine and twentieth day of September. Freemens Admissions, &c. good in Law.

And it is hereby further Enacted and Declared, That the Duties made payable by the said Acts, relating to Stampt Vellum, Parchment and Paper, for or in respect of Appearances, and other the Matters in the said Acts, or any of them contained, relating thereto, shall be construed to extend to Appearances in such Actions wherein no Bail is Filed, or put in, and not otherwise; Any thing in the said Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding. Duties on Appearances, &c.

And whereas by several Acts of Parliament, relating to the Duties on Marriages, Births and Burials, all Parsons, Vicars, Curates and other Ecclesiastical Persons, are required to take an Exact and true Account, and keep a Register in Writing of all and every Person or Persons, Married, Buried, Christened or Born, in his or their respective Parishes or Precincts; And likewise in the same Registers, together with the Name of every Person so Married, Buried, Christened or Born, to set down and express in Writing the respective Degree, Condition and Quality, according to which the Duty to the Crown ought to be paid: And in case of Burials, the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, Fathers, Mothers, Guardians, Churchwardens, or others, who by the said Acts ought to pay for the same, and where they dwell respectively: And in case of Births, the Names of the Fathers, Mothers, or those that take on them the Guardianship, or Care of such Children so Born, and where they live respectively: And in case of Marriages, the place of Abode of the several Husbands, under the Penalty of One hundred Pounds for some of the said Omissions, and other great Penalties for the rest. And whereas several Parsons, Vicars and Curates, and other Ecclesiastical Persons, not being sufficiently Apprized of the full import of the said Acts of Parliament, have not exactly observed the Directions therein, as aforesaid, given, and thereby incurred the Penalties in the said Acts respectively Duties on Marriages, Births, &c. An exact Account to be kept. On 100 l. Penalty.

atively mentioned, and they and their Families remain therefore exposed to ruin, although the said Duties have been duly Answered to Her Majesty; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons in Holy Orders, Parson, Vicar and Curate, and his and their Substitute, having neglected to keep a Register in Writing, as aforesaid, of all and every, or any Person or Persons so Married, Buried, Christened or Born, as aforesaid, or to set down and express, together with the Name of such Person so Married, Buried, Christened or Born, the respective Degree, Condition or Quality, according to which the said late Kings, or Her present Majesties Duties ought to be paid, or the Name or Place of Abode of any Person or Persons, who ought to pay the same, in case the said Duty for such Marriage, Birth or Burial be really Answered and Paid, or Notified and brought in Charge to the Collector of the said Duties, shall be Indemnified against, and Discharged from all the Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Acts, or any of them contained, for or upon account of such Neglects only.

Neglects in Registring, &c.

Where the Duties, &c. are paid to be indemnified.

And whereas by an Act made in the First Year of Her present Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds in the Duties upon Salt, and for the better Payment of Debentures at the Custom-house, It is Enacted, That no Debenture shall be made or granted, or Drawback allowed to be paid for or upon the account of the Exportation of any Salt or Rock-Salt for Ireland, unless the Exporter of the said Salt or Rock-Salt shall produce to the Officer appointed to make such Debenture, a Certificate under the Hand of the Collector of the Customs of the Port in Ireland, where such Salt or Rock-Salt shall be landed, or the Person executing his Office, of the particular Quantity of Salt or Rock-Salt, actually landed: And whereas 'tis equally reasonable, That for Salt and Rock-Salt shipt, in order for Exportation for Ireland, though the same perish by sinking of the Ship, or be taken by the Enemies, there should be made and allowed a Drawback as in the Case where Salt and Rock-Salt is Exported and Landed; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Salt or Rock-Salt hath been or shall be Shipped in order for Exportation to Ireland, and the same hath perished or shall perish by Sinking of the Ship or Vessel on which the same was or shall be shipped, and laid on board, or is or shall be taken by the Enemies, Then and in such Case the Exporter or Proprietor of such Salt or Rock-Salt so perishing or lost, shall upon Proof made before the Justices of the Peace, at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, to be held for the County, City, Riding, Division or Place from whence the same was so Exported, of the Loss of such Salt so shipped, or to be shipped, receive from the said Sessions a Certificate, that such Proof was made before them, and upon producing the said Certificate to the Officer of the Place where the Duty on such Salt shall have been paid or Secured to be paid, such Security shall be Discharged, and so much Money as was actually paid for the Duty of the said Salt, shall be Repaid upon Demand by the said Officer, without Fee or Reward. Provided such Proof to be made, as aforesaid, as to all Salt lost or taken, before the Twentieth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and five, shall be made by two Credible
