Anno triceſimo

Georgii II. Regis.

An Act to make Proviſion for the quartering of the Foreign Troops in His Majeſty's Service, now in this Kingdom.

WHEREAS Difficulties have lately ariſen in providing Quarters for the Foreign Troops in His Majeſty's Service, which have been brought over for the Defence of Great Britain; be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Foreign Troops Preamble.

Foreign Troops to be quartered and provided for as the British Troops.

brought over as aforesaid, shall and may, during their Continuance here, be quartered, and be received and provided for in Quarters, in the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as the British Troops now are; and that the billeting, quartering, receiving, and providing for such Foreign Troops, in the Manner aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to have been, and to be, legal, valid, and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever. 3

FINIS.