Anno tricesimo primo

Georgii II. Regis.

An Act for appointing Commissioners for putting in Execution an Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty, by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and fifty eight; and for enforcing the Payment of the Rates to be assessed upon Somerset House in the Strand; and for rectifying a Mistake in the said Act; and for allowing farther Time to the Receivers of certain Aids, for setting insuper for Monies in Arrear.

Preamble, reciting Two Clauses in the Land Tax Act of this Session.

WHEREAS by Two Clauses in an Act made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty, by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and fifty eight; and for enforcing the Payment of the Rates to be assessed upon Somerset House in the Strand; it was enacted, That all and every the Person and Persons who in and by certain Acts therein mentioned, made in the Twenty first, Twenty second, Twenty fourth, and Twenty eighth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, or by any or either of those Acts, or by any other Act to which they, or any of them have Relation, were named and appointed Commissioners for putting the same Acts, within the several Counties and Places in Great Britain, being living and duly qualifying themselves, should be Commissioners for putting the said Act in Execution, unless before the Days therein respectively appointed for the First Meetings of the Commissioners, for putting the said Act in Execution, some Act or Acts of Parliament should be made and passed, for naming and appointing special Commissioners for putting in Execution the said Act: And whereas the appointing of special Commissioners for executing the said Act, will tend to the more convenient Execution thereof; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for the better assessing, ordering, levying, and collecting of the several Sums of Money which by the said Act made in this present Session (intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty, by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and fifty eight: and for enforcing the Payment of the Rates to be assessed upon Somerset House in the Strand) are limited and appointed to be raised and paid, in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, and Berwick upon Tweed; and for the more effectual putting of the said Act in Execution, in Reference to the same, all and every the Persons herein after named and mentioned; that is to say, Commissioners for putting the said Act in Execution appointed.

Their First Meeting, in Scotland, to be held on the First Tuesday in May next.

And whereas by several Acts of Parliament for granting Aids to His Majesty by a Land Tax, for the Years One thousand seven hundred and fifty five, One thousand seven hundred and fifty six, One thousand seven hundred and fifty seven, and by One other Act of this Session of Parliament, for granting an Aid to His Majesty, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and fifty eight, the Time allowed to the Receivers of such Aids for declaring and passing their Accounts, and for enabling them to set insuper, or charge any County, Division, or Place, in England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for any Monies granted by the said respective respective Acts, which should be in Arrear and unpaid, is by Mistake so limited, contrary to the Intention of the said Acts, and the Direction of former Acts in like Cases, that the full Space of Three Years is not allowed for that Purpose; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Receiver of the said respective Aids, his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, may, within the Space of Three Years, computed from the Twenty fourth Day of March next preceding the Day by such Acts respectively appointed for the First Quarterly Payment of the Monies thereby granted (if within such Space of Three Years the Accounts of such Receiver shall be declared and passed in the Exchequer, and not otherwise) be allowed and admitted to set insuper, or charge any County, Division, or Place, in England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for any Monies granted by the said Acts which shall be in Arrear and unpaid; any thing in the said Acts to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Three Years Time allowed to Receivers to set insuper Monies in Arrear.

FINIS.
