CAP. LVI.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for regulating the Allowance of the Drawback, and Payment of the Bounty, on the Exportation of Sugar, and for permitting the Importation of Sugar and Coffee into the Bahama and Bermuda Iſlands, in Foreign Ships; and for reducing the Bounty on Refined Sugars, exported in any other than Britiſh Ships. [17th June 1793.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by an Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for regulating the Allowance of the Drawback, and Payment of the Bounty, on the Exportation of Sugar, and for permitting the Importation of Sugar and Coffee into the Bahama and Bermuda Iſlands in Foreign Ships, certain Reſtrictions are provided reſpecting the Allowance and Payment of Drawbacks on the Exportation of Raw Sugar, and of Bounties on the Exportation of Refined Sugar from Great Britain: And whereas it is expedient that in conſequence of the preſent War with France, Proviſions ſhould be made reſpecting the Periods at which the Average Prices of the Sugar ſhall be taken; and alſo the Prices which ſhall regulate the Allowance and Payment of the Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Raw and Refined Sugars; may it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if, on the Twenty-third Day of June One thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, the Average Price of Brown or Muscovado Sugar, taken in the Manner directed by the said recited Act, for the Six Weeks preceding, shall not exceed Sixty-five Shillings for an Hundred Weight, exclusive of the Duty of Customs paid or payable thereon on the Importation thereof into Great Britain, that then and in such Case the Drawback and Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar shall be paid and allowed; and if, on the Twenty-third Days of August, October, and February following, the Average Price of such Sugar, taken as aforesaid, for each of the Six Weeks preceding those respective Periods, shall not exceed Sixty Shillings for an Hundred Weight, exclusive of the Duty of Customs paid or payable thereon on the Importation thereof into Great Britain, that then and in such Case the Drawback and Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar shall continue to be paid and allowed, any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

If, at the Periods herein specified, the Average Price of Brown or Muscovado Sugar, taken agreeable to the recited Act, shall not exceed certain Prices, the Drawback and Bounty to be paid.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Bounty due and payable on the Exportation from this Kingdom of Refined Sugar produced from Muscovado Sugar, imported from the British Plantations in America, shall be allowed and paid for all such Sugar as shall have been shipped under the Authority of the said recited Act, or may hereafter be shipped by virtue of this Act, within the respective Periods mentioned in the said recited Act or this Act, although such Sugar shall not be or shall not have been exported until after the Expiration of such respective Periods.

Bounty on Exportation of Refined Muscovado Sugar, from the British Plantations in America, shipped under the recited or this Act, to be paid, tho' not exported within the prescribed Periods.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That on the Exportation from this Kingdom of any Refined Sugar in any other than a British Ship or Vessel, owned, navigated, and registered according to Law, there shall be paid and allowed One Shilling less Bounty for each and every Hundred Weight of such Sugar so exported, than if the same had been exported in a British Ship or Vessel, so owned, navigated, and registered, any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

1*s.* per Cwt. less than the Bounty to be paid for Refined Sugar exported in any other than British Vessels.
