III. And be it further enacted, That if any Mare or Gelding provided for the ſaid Service, under and by virtue of the ſaid Acts, ſhall, at the Time of embodying ſuch Proviſional Cavalry, be approved according to the ſaid Acts, ſuch Mare or Gelding, in caſe the Deputy Lieutenants there attending, ſhall be diſſatisfied with the Value ſet upon the ſame by the Proprietor thereof, ſhall be forthwith valued by Two ſkilful Perſons, to be named by the reſpective Deputy Lieutenants, according to the Price at which the ſame might be ſold, ſuch Price not in any Caſe to exceed the Sum of Twenty-five Pounds, which Valuation ſhall be duly entered, by the Direction of the Officer commanding ſuch Proviſional Cavalry, in the Books provided for the ſaid Proviſional Cavalry, and a Certificate thereof given, by the Officer commanding ſuch Proviſional Cavalry, to the Perſon who ſhall have provided ſuch Mare or Gelding; and if any ſuch Mare or Gelding ſhall die, or become unfit for Service, and it ſhall be

be thought expedient, that another Mare or Gelding ſhould be provided for that Service, according to the Directions of the ſaid Acts, and an Order ſhould be made for that Purpoſe, then the valued Price of the ſame ſhall, on Demand, and on a Certificate of Conformity to the Proviſions before-mentioned, under the Hand of the Officer commanding the ſaid Proviſional Cavalry, be paid to the Perſon or Perſons providing ſuch Mare or Gelding, by the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Place, where ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall reſide, out of any Monies in his Hands, ariſing either out of the Monies raiſed by virtue of the ſaid Acts or this Act, or out of the Duties on Horſes, or other the Duties receivable by him as ſuch Receiver: Provided always, That if the Proprietor of any Mare or Gelding ſo provided ſhall be diſſatisfied with the Valuation to be made as aforeſaid, ſuch Perſon may appeal to the Deputy Lieutenants at any Subdiviſion Meeting to be holden according to the ſaid Acts, and the Deputy Lieutenants there preſent, or the major Part of them, are hereby empowered and required to hear and determine ſuch Appeals, and their Determination thereupon ſhall be final.

Proprietors diſſatisfied with the Price may appeal to a Subdiviſion Meeting.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in the ſeveral Counties, Ridings, and Places, where the Men enrolled as Proviſional Cavalry ſhall be embodied, any Two or more Deputy Lieutenants of the County, Riding, or Place, for which ſuch Men ſhall have been enrolled, ſhall, as ſoon as may be, take into Conſideration the Claims to be made by any Perſon or Perſons for any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding Ten Pounds, in reſpect of each Perſon ſo enrolled as a Subſtitute, on his being embodied, and ſhall examine into the Fact of any Contract being entered into for that Purpoſe between ſuch Subſtitutes and their reſpective Principals, and ſhall receive Evidence thereof, either by the Regiſtry of ſuch Contract, or a Copy thereof, or by the Production of ſuch Contract, or where no ſuch Contract ſhall have been regiſtered nor reduced into Writing, then by the Oath of the Parties, or by the Teſtimony of any credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, which Oath the ſaid Deputy Lieutenants are hereby authorized to adminiſter; and the ſaid Deputy Lieutenants ſhall, on Proof of any ſuch Contract to their Satisfaction, certify to the Receiver General of ſuch County, Riding, or Place, the Number of Perſons entitled to receive any Sum of Money by virtue of any ſuch Contract, for and in reſpect of any ſuch Perſon ſerving as a Subſtitute, ſpecifying the Amount of the Sum to be paid to each Perſon, and whether the ſame, according to ſuch Contract, is to be paid to ſuch Subſtitute, or the Perſon providing ſuch Subſtitute; and ſuch Receiver General is hereby required, within Ten Days after the Receipt of ſuch Certificate, to iſſue and pay to the Officer appointed to the Command of ſuch Men, the ſeveral Sums of Money due in reſpect of each of ſuch Subſtitutes, according to ſuch Contract ſo certified, which Commanding Officer ſhall forthwith pay the ſame, according to the Terms of the ſeveral Contracts ſo certified as aforeſaid.

Deputy Lieutenants to conſider the Claims, not exceeding 10*l.*, of Perſons enrolled as Subſtitutes, and on Proof of Contract, to certify the Number of Perſons entitled to receive Money to the Receiver General, who ſhall pay it to the Commanding Officer, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That where any Perſons claſſed to raiſe Proviſional Cavalry ſhall have mutually agreed with, or made themſelves liable to each other, to defray and bear their reſpective Proportions in the Expences of raiſing a Man and Horſe, or Men and Horſes, and of cloathing ſuch Man or Men, and providing Furniture and Extra Keep for ſuch Horſes, or where any Perſon ſhall have defrayed and borne the Whole of ſuch Expences, and ſuch Perſons or Perſon ſhall not have rendered

Where Claſſes have agreed to defray their Proportions of the Expences of Men and Horſes, or where any Perſon ſhall have borne the Whole and no

Allowance has been received, the Subdiviſion Meetings to certify the ſame to the Land Tax Commiſſioners, and the Parties, while they continue ſo to pay, ſhall be exempted from any Aſſeſſment in reſpect of Men and Horſes raiſed by any other Perſons, or any under 37 Geo. III, Cap. 6 & 23, or this Act.

rendered any Account thereof to the Deputy Lieutenants, nor demanded or received any of the Allowances authorized by the ſaid Acts, for and on Account of the Proviſional Cavalry, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Two or more Deputy Lieutenants, and they are hereby required, at any Subdiviſion Meeting, upon Proof thereof by Affidavit made before any One or more of the Juſtices of the Peace of the County or Riding, or Magiſtrates of the Peace, within which ſuch Perſons ſhall have been claſſed or appointed, to certify the ſame to the Commiſſioners of Land Tax for the Diſtrict within which ſuch Perſons ſhall have been claſſed or appointed, and the Perſon in whoſe Favour ſuch Certificates ſhall be made ſhall thereupon and from thenceforth, during the Continuance of the Payment of ſuch Expences, be freed and exonerated from the Payment of any Aſſeſſment made, or to be made, for and on Account of Allowances paid or to be paid in ſuch County, Riding, or Place, in reſpect of any Men and Horſes raiſed by any other Perſons in ſuch County, Riding, or Place, and from all Aſſeſſments to be made in that Behalf under and by virtue of the ſaid Acts of the Thirty-ſeventh Year of His Majeſty's Reign, or this Act: Provided always, That if any Aſſeſſment ſhall have been made upon any Perſon or Perſons hereby declared to be freed and exonerated therefrom, ſuch Aſſeſſment ſhall, as far as regards ſuch Perſon or Perſons, be void, and the Sums ſo aſſeſſed ſhall be ſtruck out of the Aſſeſſment upon ſuch Perſon or Perſons as aforeſaid, and ſhall be added to the Aſſeſſments upon the Reſt of the Perſons liable thereto in the ſame Subdiviſion.

Juſtices may determine Diſputes touching Proportions of Expences of Claſſes.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Diſpute ſhall ariſe between any Perſons in any Claſs or Claſſes, that ſhall have entered into ſuch Agreement as aforeſaid, touching the Payment of any Proportion of the Expences of ſuch Claſs or Claſſes in raiſing and providing ſuch Man and Horſe as aforeſaid, or the Cloathing, Furniture, and other Articles directed to be provided by the ſaid Acts or this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful, on Complaint thereof made to any Juſtice of the Peace for the County, Riding, or Place, within which ſuch Perſons ſhall be claſſed, for ſuch Juſtice to hear and determine every ſuch Complaint, and to examine upon Oath every ſuch Perſon, or any other Witneſs or Witneſſes, touching the ſame, and to make ſuch Order for the Payment of the Proportion of the Expences of ſuch Claſs, to be borne by ſuch Perſon or Perſons as to ſuch Juſtice ſhall ſeem juſt and reaſonable; and in caſe of Refuſal or Non-payment of any Sums ſo ordered to be paid by the Space of Fifteen Days next after ſuch Determination, ſuch Juſtice ſhall and may iſſue forth his Warrant to levy the ſame by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, rendering the Overplus to the Owner or Owners, after Payment of the Charges of ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale.

If Cloathing for Men, or if Horſes or proper Furniture for them be not provided, a Sum equal to the eſtimated Allowance to be forfeited.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon appointed to provide any Man or Men for the Service required by the ſaid Acts, or if any Perſon choſen by Ballot to provide any Man for the ſaid Service, ſhall not cauſe to be produced to the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants, or to the Officer appointed to have the Command of the Men when ordered to be embodied, ſuitable Cloathing for ſuch Man or for each of ſuch Men, or a Mare or Gelding fit for Military Duty, for the Uſe of ſuch Man or of each of ſuch Men ſo to be provided by him or her, which ſhall be approved of by the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants, or by the Officer or Officers to be appointed to command such Men as aforesaid, or proper Furniture for each of such Mares or Geldings, according to the Directions of the said Acts, every such Person shall forfeit and pay, for his or her Default in not causing to be produced proper Cloathing, a Sum equal to the Allowance estimated, or to be estimated by the General Meeting of Lieutenancy to be made to any Person for providing Cloathing, in respect of such Part thereof on which any Default shall have been made; and for his or her Default in not causing to be produced a Mare or Gelding fit for Military Duty, (and which shall be approved of as aforesaid), a Sum equal to the Compensation settled or to be settled by the Deputy Lieutenants of the Division to be made to any Person ballotted to provide a Mare or Gelding in the Case where such Person shall not have been possessed of any Mare or Gelding at the Time of the Ballot, or where the Mare or Gelding provided shall not be approved of; and for his or her Default in not causing to be produced proper Furniture for such Mare or Gelding, or for each of such Mares or Geldings, a Sum equal to the Allowance estimated, or to be estimated, by the said General Meeting of Lieutenancy to be made to any such Person for providing such Furniture according to the said Acts; which Sums shall be severally adjudged by the Deputy Lieutenants according to the said Acts, and assessed, levied, and paid in Manner herein directed.

His Majesty may disband the embodied Provisional Cavalry of any Place, and their Horses, &c. shall be delivered up; but all Persons shall continue liable to serve when His Majesty shall think it expedient.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever His Majesty shall think it expedient, it shall be lawful to disband the embodied Provisional Cavalry of any County, Riding, or Place, and for that Purpose to cause the said Cavalry to be marched to any Place or Places within their respective Counties and Ridings, to be there discharged from actual Service; and every Person shall, at the Time of his Discharge, deliver up the Mare or Gelding, Arms, Furniture, and other Articles, which shall have been furnished under and by virtue of the said Acts, to such Persons as shall be appointed by the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants to receive the same, such Part thereof as shall have been furnished by Individuals, in pursuance of the said Acts, to be received to the Use of the respective Persons furnishing the same, and the same shall be forthwith delivered to such and the same Persons respectively furnishing the same, if any shall be there attending at the Time of such Discharge; and the said Persons so to be discharged, whether such Persons shall have served as Principals from being appointed or ballotted for such Service in pursuance of the said Acts, or as Substitutes, and also the Persons appointed or ballotted, and who shall have provided such Substitutes as aforesaid, shall, notwithstanding such Discharge, continue liable to perform the like Services whenever His Majesty shall think it expedient to order the Provisional Cavalry to be embodied, and shall in all Respects, after such Disbanding and Discharge, be considered as Persons enrolled in the said Provisional Cavalry, and liable from Time to Time to the like Services as any other Persons enrolled in the Provisional Cavalry are liable to, in virtue of the said former Acts or this Act.

Persons enrolled in Provisional Cavalry not embodied, who shall consent to receive Bounty, may be trained, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in such of the Counties, Ridings, or Places, in which the Provisional Cavalry raised therein shall not have been ordered to be embodied, all Persons enrolled therein, who shall, at any previous Muster, consent to receive the Bounty herein-after mentioned, may be called out for the Purpose of being trained and exercised for such Space of Time, and at such Time or Times in the Year as shall seem expedient to His Majeſty; and it ſhall be lawful for His Majeſty to cauſe the Men to be ſo trained and exerciſed by Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, under ſuch Officers and Non-commiſſioned Officers as ſhall be appointed under the Regulations of the ſaid Acts; and during ſuch Time as the Proviſional Cavalry of any County, Riding, or Place, ſhall be aſſembled for the Purpoſe of being trained and exerciſed, all the Clauſes, Proviſions, Matters, and Things, contained in any Act of Parliament which ſhall be then in Force for the puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, ſhall be in Force with reſpect to the Proviſional Cavalry ſo aſſembled, and to all the Officers, Non-commiſſioned Officers, and Private Men of the ſame, in all Caſes whatſoever, but ſo as no Puniſhment ſhall extend to Loſs of Life or Limb.

Perſons enrolled, appearing at the Time and Place appointed for Exerciſe, to be entitled to Two Guineas above their Pay, which the Receiver General of the Land Tax ſhall pay to the Commanding Officer of Troops.

X. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon enrolled in the Proviſional Cavalry of any County, Riding, or Place, who ſhall appear at the Time and Place appointed for Exerciſe, according to the Directions of this Act, ſhall be entitled to the Sum of Two Guineas, over and above his Pay, to be allowed during the Exerciſe, and the Receiver General of the Land Tax for ſuch County, Riding, or Place, is hereby required, on Receipt of the Certificate of the Commanding Officer, of the Number of Men attending ſuch Exerciſe, as herein-after is directed, to pay to the Captains or Officers commanding Troops reſpectively, the ſaid Sum for the Uſe of every Perſon of the ſaid Cavalry ſo attending, and One Guinea of each Sum ſo received by any Captain or Officer commanding any Troop, or ſo much thereof as he ſhall think proper, ſhall be laid out in the Manner he ſhall think moſt advantageous for the reſpective Perſons of the ſaid Cavalry; and ſuch Captain or Commanding Officer ſhall forthwith pay the other Guinea of the ſaid Money to the Perſons reſpectively, and ſhall, before the Expiration of the Time appointed for ſuch Exerciſe, account to ſuch Perſon how the firſt-mentioned Guinea hath been applied and diſpoſed of.

Notice of the Time and Place of Exerciſe to be ſent by the Clerk of the General Meeting to the Chief Conſtables to forward to the Conſtables to affix it on the Church Doors, and the Proviſional Cavalry, properly furniſhed, ſhall attend accordingly.

XI. And be it further enacted, That whenever His Majeſty ſhall have appointed the Time or Times of aſſembling the Proviſional Cavalry of any County, Riding, or Place, for the Purpoſe of being trained and exerciſed, Notice of the Time and Place of ſuch Exerciſe ſhall be ſent by the Clerk of the General Meetings of Lieutenancy to the Chief Conſtables or other Officers of the ſaid Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes, or other Diviſions, with Directions to forward the ſame to the Conſtables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, or other Officers, within their reſpective Juriſdictions, who reſpectively ſhall cauſe ſuch Notice as aforeſaid, to be affixed on the Doors of the Churches or Chapels belonging to their reſpective Pariſhes, Tythings, or Places, or (where there ſhall be no Church or Chapel) on the Door of the Church or Chapel of ſome Pariſh, Tything, or Place thereunto adjoining; and all ſuch Proviſional Cavalry, being furniſhed with ſuch Cloathing and Horſe Furniture as is directed by the ſaid Acts, and alſo with a Mare or Gelding fit for Military Duty, ſhall attend at the Time and Place of Exerciſe according to ſuch Notice.

Proviſional Cavalry may be billetted as the Militia.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful to quarter and billet the Officers and Private Men ſerving in the Proviſional Cavalry, at the Times when they ſhall be called out to be trained and exerciſed, exercised, in such Houses and upon such Persons as the Militia may by Law be quartered and billetted during the Times of their Annual Exercise.

Persons ordered to be trained may be ordered by His Majesty to be embodied, &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Persons enrolled as aforesaid, who shall not be embodied, but shall be ordered to be trained and exercised for the Time herein mentioned, whether such Persons shall attend such training and exercising or not, be liable to be embodied whenever His Majesty shall think fit; and that the Persons appointed or ballotted to provide for the Service required by the said Acts, in the County, Riding, or Place, where such training and exercising shall be ordered, shall at all Times, when not ordered to be so trained or embodied, also be liable from Time to Time to the like Services as any other Persons enrolled in the Provisional Cavalry are liable to in virtue of the said former Acts or this Act.

If within a limited Time a sufficient Number of qualified Officers shall not be found, His Majesty may appoint Officers of the Army, or retired Officers from it or the Militia, or East India Officers, though not qualified.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if, within Twenty Days from the passing of this Act, a sufficient Number of Officers respectively qualified in the Manner required by the Laws relating to the Militia, shall not be found to accept Commissions in the Provisional Cavalry, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to appoint for that Service any Officer or Officers of the Army, whether on Full or Half Pay, or any Person or Persons who have had Commissions in the Army or Militia, and have retired therefrom, or who have served in any of the Land Forces of the United Company of Merchants trading to the East Indies, and who have either returned therefrom or are resident in Great Britain with the Leave of the said United Company, although not duly qualified as aforesaid, as to His Majesty shall seem fit.

Receiver General to advance any Money legally directed to be paid, and certify the same to the Commissioners for executing 38 Geo. III, Cap. 41, which shall be assessed as herein mentioned.

XV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Receiver General to advance, out of any Monies in his Hands as such Receiver General, and pay to any Person or Persons entitled to receive the same, any Sum or Sums of Money directed to be paid on Account of the said Provisional Cavalry, either by the said Acts or this Act, on delivering to him or his Deputy a proper Certificate under the Hands of any Two Deputy Lieutenants or Justices of the Peace, or any of them, authorized to act as Deputy Lieutenants in the Execution of the said Acts or this Act, which several Sums so to be advanced by such Receivers General, they shall from Time to Time, as such Advances shall be made, cause to be certified under their respective Hands, or the Hands of their respective Deputies, to the Commissioners for executing an Act of the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties upon Male Servants, Carriages, Horses, Mules, and Dogs, and for granting to His Majesty other Duties in lieu thereof; and all such Sums so certified shall, by force and virtue of such Certificate, be assessed on all and every the Persons liable to the Duties on Horses used for the Purpose of Riding, or of drawing any Carriages mentioned in the said Act of the present Session, in proportion to, and according to the Number of such Horses for which they shall respectively be charged by any Assessment to be made under and by virtue of the said Act of the present Session, (except the Persons composing any Class, which shall, by Contract or Agreement, defray and pay the Whole or any Proportion of the Charges attending the Service required from such Class, as to all such Sums of which such Class shall have defrayed and paid its just Proportion as aforesaid), which Assessments shall be made by adding the Proportion of ſuch Sum ſo advanced to each Perſon's Aſſeſſment of the Duties on Horſes; and all Sums of Money already advanced by ſuch Receivers General, or any of them, in purſuance of the ſaid Acts, and not before aſſeſſed, ſhall, as ſoon after the paſſing of this Act as can be done conveniently, by virtue of the like Certificates, be aſſeſſed and levied in like Manner; and all ſuch Sums as ſhall be ſo certified before any Aſſeſſment for the preſent Year ſhall have been ſigned and allowed, ſhall be added thereto at the Time of making ſuch Aſſeſſment; and the Sums ſo aſſeſſed ſhall be raiſed, levied, and paid, together with and as a Part of the Duties charged on ſuch Horſes; and in caſe any Certificate ſhall be tranſmitted by ſuch Receivers General after the Aſſeſſments to be collected in the preſent Year ſhall be ſigned and allowed, it ſhall be lawful for the Commiſſioners of the Diviſion where ſuch Aſſeſſments are made, and they are hereby required to amend the ſame, by adding the Proportion of ſuch Sums to each Perſon's Aſſeſſment, and by amending the ſame accordingly; and the Sums ſo added from Time to Time ſhall be collected on the Days of Payment for the Year in which ſuch Aſſeſſments ſhall be ſo amended, enſuing the Time and Times of making any ſuch Amendments, by even and equal Portions, ſo that the whole Sums advanced by the Receiver General, and certified in Manner aforeſaid, in any Year, ſhall be fully collected and re-imburſed to the Revenue in the Year in which the ſame ſhall be ſo certified; and all Aſſeſſments made or to be made after the Year when any Sum or Sums ſhall have been advanced by ſuch Receivers General, ſhall be valid and effectual; and all ſuch Commiſſioners, and Perſons acting under them or by their Authority, in making ſuch Aſſeſſments, or in collecting, paying, or receiving the ſame, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, ſhall be and are hereby freed and diſcharged, and indemnified from all Actions and Suits whatſoever, and from all Damages for whatever they ſhall do or cauſe to be done in purſuance of this Act, and for whatever they ſhall have done or cauſed to be done, according to the true Intent and Meaning hereof.

Money already advanced by the Receiver General to be aſſeſſed in like Manner.

If Certificates be tranſmitted after the Aſſeſſments for the preſent Year ſhall be allowed, they ſhall be amended, and the Sums added collected.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the like Allowances ſhall be paid to the Clerks to the Commiſſioners, and to the Collectors and Receivers, for the Monies aſſeſſed, collected, and received by them, in purſuance of the ſaid Acts of the laſt Seſſion or this Act, as they are entitled to out of the Monies aſſeſſed, collected, and received for the ſaid Duties on Horſes, and that ſuch Allowances ſo made ſhall be deemed an Advance made by the reſpective Receivers General, which they ſhall certify in the Manner before directed, and which ſhall be reimburſed to them out of the Monies to be aſſeſſed, raiſed, and levied, by virtue of this Act, in the ſubſequent Aſſeſſment.

Allowances to be made to the Clerks to the Commiſſioners, and the Collectors and Receivers.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Sums of Money ſhall be adjudged by the Deputy Lieutenants to be paid to any Clerks, Conſtables, or other Officers, for their Care and Trouble in and about the Execution of the ſaid Acts of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, or either of them, or of this Act, or to any of the Surveyors to be appointed to execute the ſaid Act of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, or who have been appointed to execute any Act or Acts relative to the Duties on Houſes, which were repealed by the ſaid Act of the preſent Seſſion, for their Pains and Trouble in executing the ſaid Acts of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, or either of them, or this Act, which Rewards the Rewards to Clerks, &c. for their Trouble, to be certified to the Commiſſioners, who ſhall cauſe the ſame to be aſſeſſed.

the ſaid Deputy Lieutenants are hereby required to allow to the ſaid Surveyors, according to the Rules preſcribed by the ſaid Acts with reſpect to other Officers, the ſame ſhall, after Payment thereof, be certified to the reſpective Commiſſioners before mentioned, who ſhall cauſe the ſame to be aſſeſſed, levied, paid, and received, as other Sums are hereby directed to be aſſeſſed, paid, levied, and received.

Perſons enrolled in any Volunteer Corps of Cavalry, within a certain Period, may offer, by Aug. 1, 1798, to ſerve for any Subdiviſion of the County, on the Conditions mentioned in this Act, inſtead of the Proviſional Cavalry;

Volunteer Corps offering to ſerve inſtead of the Proviſional Cavalry, to be entitled to an Allowance at the Rate of Three Guineas for Three Years per Man, for providing Cloathing, &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch Volunteer Corps of Cavalry which ſhall offer to ſerve inſtead of the ſaid Proviſional Cavalry, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be entitled, on an Application in Writing being made by the Commanding Officer of ſuch Corps to the Secretary at War, in the Manner to be hereafter mentioned, to an Allowance, after the Rate of Three Pounds and Three Shillings for each Perſon enrolled in the ſaid Corps, per Annum, for Three Years, to be applied in providing Cloathing and Accoutrements, and for Extra Expences, unleſs ſuch Corps ſhall have previouſly received the like Sum out of the Monies voted by Parliament towards defraying the Charge of Cloathing and Accoutrements for ſundry Corps of Volunteer Cavalry for the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, or ſo much thereof as, together with the Sum received out of the ſaid Monies, will make up the like Sum at the Rate aforeſaid, which Sum ſhall be paid in Advance by the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Place in which ſuch Corps ſhall be formed, on the Application in Writing of the Commanding Officer of ſuch Corps, certified by any Two or more Deputy Lieutenants of ſuch County, Riding, or Place, to the Secretary at War, ſpecifying the Dates of the Formation of ſuch Corps, and the Enrolment therein of each Perſon for whom this Sum may be claimed, and of the Sum to which he may be entitled in purſuance of this Act, and ſtating the Sums (if any) already received by ſuch Corps out of the Monies voted by Parliament as aforeſaid, which Certificate, being tranſmitted to the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes, with the Approbation of the Secretary at War indorſed thereon, ſhall be a ſufficient Authority to the ſaid Commiſſioners to direct the proper Receiver General to pay ſuch Sums as may appear due by ſuch Certificate.

Sums advanced by the Receiver General to be reimburſed by Aſſeſſment.

XX. And be it further enacted, That all ſuch Sums which any Receiver General ſhall advance to ſuch Volunteers in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be reimburſed by Aſſeſſment, within the Period of Three Years, from the Fifth Day of April next before the paſſing of this Act, in the Manner before directed; and that the Proportion of One Third of the whole Sum to be advanced, as nearly as a Computation thereof can be made, ſhall be levied in each of the ſaid Three Years.

Men may be enrolled before Aug. 1, 1798, in the Fencible Cavalry, and accepted in lieu of Men to be provided for the Proviſional Cavalry, &c.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon appointed to provide a Man or Men for the Service of the ſaid Proviſional Cavalry, or any Perſon ballotted to provide a Man for that Service, or if the Perſons compoſing any Claſs having agreed with each other to provide for ſuch Service, ſhall, at any Time before the Firſt Day of Auguſt One thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, produce or cauſe to be produced to the Commanding Officer of any Corps of Fencible Cavalry, raiſed to ſerve in Great Britain during the preſent War, or to any Officer appointed by His Majeſty, or by ſuch Commanding Officer, with the Approbation of His Majeſty, One fit and able-bodied Man for each of the Men ſo directed to be provided, who ſhall cauſe himſelf to be enrolled to ſerve in ſuch Fencible Corps of Cavalry within Great Britain during the preſent War, then the Service of ſuch Men ſo enrolled ſhall be accepted in lieu of the Service required by the ſaid Acts; and the Perſons appointed or ballotted to provide for ſuch Service, and alſo the Claſs agreeing to provide for ſuch Service, ſhall, on the Certificate of ſuch Commanding Officer or Officers, to be appointed as aforeſaid, of the the Enrolment of ſuch Fencible Men, be diſcharged from any further Service under the ſaid Acts, either by providing any Men or Cloathing, or by furniſhing any Mares or Geldings, or Furniture for the ſame, and alſo from any Charge or Expence to be incurred in reſpect of the ſaid Proviſional Cavalry, at any Time after the Date of ſuch Enrolment; and if any Perſon ſhall be charged with any Sum or Sums of Money incurred after the Date of ſuch Enrolment, it ſhall be lawful for him or her to appeal therefrom, in like Manner, and under the like Terms and Conditions as ſuch Perſon may by Law appeal from any Overcharge in any Aſſeſſment of the Duties upon Horſes.

Perſons offering to ſerve in the Fencible Cavalry to take an Oath, which may be adminiſtered by a Deputy Lieutenant or Juſtice.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon offering himſelf to ſerve in any Fencible Corps of Cavalry, in lieu of the ſaid Proviſional Force of Cavalry, ſhall take the ſame Oath as may have been taken by the Private Men of the Corps in which he may enter; which Oath may be adminiſtered by any One Deputy Lieutenant or Juſtice of the Peace in any County, Riding, or Place, where ſuch Perſon ſhall be enrolled.

If in any Place the Proviſional Cavalry ſhall not be diſcharged before or on paſſing this Act, no more than 2*s. per* Week ſhall be allowed for each Horſe.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if in any of the Counties, Ridings, and Places aforeſaid, the Proviſional Force of Cavalry raiſed therein by virtue of the ſaid Acts, ſhall not be diſcharged in purſuance of this Act, before or on the paſſing of this Act, no greater Allowance ſhall thenceforth be made to any Perſon or Perſons towards diſcharging the Expences of providing any Mare or Gelding for that Service, than ſhall be allowed by the Lieutenant and Two Deputy Lieutenants, or by Three Deputy Lieutenants, at a General Meeting of Lieutenancy to be held for that Purpoſe, and that ſuch Allowance ſhall in no Caſe exceed the Rate of Two Shillings weekly in reſpect of each ſuch Mare or Gelding.

Weekly Allowance out of Poor Rates to be paid to the Families of Proviſional Cavalry Men when embodied or leaving Home to be trained.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon enrolled to ſerve in the ſaid Proviſional Force of Cavalry raiſed by virtue of the ſaid Acts, ſhall, when ordered out to be embodied, leave a Family unable to ſupport themſelves, (or ſhall, when ordered out to be trained and exerciſed, be compelled to leave his Home, having a Family unable to ſupport themſelves), the Overſeer or Overſeers of the Poor of the Pariſh, Tything, or Place where the Family of ſuch Perſon ſhall dwell, ſhall, by Order of ſome One Juſtice of the Peace, out of the Rates for the Relief of the Poor of ſuch Pariſh, Tything, or Place, pay to ſuch Family the following Weekly Allowance; (that is to ſay), A Sum not exceeding One Shilling for each and every Child born in Wedlock, and under the Age of Ten Years, and a Sum not exceeding One Shilling for the Wife of the Perſon ſo enrolled and ſerving as aforeſaid, whether he ſhall or ſhall not have any Child or Children; and in every Pariſh, Tything, or Place, where the Money ariſing by ſuch Rates ſhall not be ſufficient for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, a new Rate ſhall be made from Time to Time for raiſing Sums ſufficient for that Purpoſe.

If a Perſon has kept an additional Horſe for Military Service, he ſhall be exempted from Duty for him.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon ſhall have provided a Mare or Gelding for the ſaid Service, who at the Time of the Order made for providing ſuch Mare or Gelding ſhall not have had any Mare or Gelding fit for Military Service, which ſhall have been accepted, and if in conſequence of ſuch Refuſal ſuch Perſon ſhall have provided provided and kept an additional Mare or Gelding beyond the uſual Number kept by, and then actually charged upon him or her, then ſuch Perſon ſhall be exempted from any Charge or Aſſeſſment on Account of ſuch additional Mare or Gelding to any Rate or Duty impoſed by any Act or Acts now in Force, either for granting to His Majeſty any Duty on Horſes, or to the additional Duties granted to His Majeſty by an Aid and Contribution for the Proſecution of the War; and ſuch Perſon ſhall be liable to be charged to the ſaid Duties in reſpect of the Horſes, Mares, or Geldings kept by him or her, excluſive of the Mare or Gelding ſo provided for the ſaid Service.

The Duties for Horſes provided for the Proviſional Cavalry ſhall ceaſe from the Day of Payment next after embodying.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That in every Caſe where the Proviſional Cavalry ſhall be embodied, all the Duties granted by the Acts before-mentioned, in reſpect of the Mares or Geldings provided for that Service, ſhall ceaſe from the Day of Payment next after the Date of the Order for embodying the ſame; and every ſuch Exemption ſhall continue in Force during the Time of the Cavalry being embodied.

Aſſeſſments to be rectified.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That the reſpective Commiſſioners for executing the ſaid ſeveral Acts ſhall cauſe the Aſſeſſments in reſpect of any Mares or Geldings provided for the ſaid Service, to be rectified according to the Directions of this Act.

Subſtitutes may be changed.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon who ſhall have found, or ſhall hereafter find a Subſtitute in the ſaid Proviſional Cavalry at any Time, with the Conſent of Two Deputy Lieutenants or Juſtices of the Peace of the County, Riding, or Place, acting for the Subdiviſion in or for which he ſhall have ſo found ſuch Subſtitute, to change ſuch Subſtitute, and procure another Perſon to be enrolled in lieu of ſuch Subſtitute, and thereupon the Perſon previouſly enrolled as a Subſtitute ſhall be diſcharged from the ſame; and every Perſon ſo enrolled in lieu of the Perſon diſcharged as aforeſaid ſhall be duly cloathed and accoutred, and ſerve in the ſaid Proviſional Cavalry, in like Manner as the former Subſtitute would otherwiſe have been cloathed and accoutred, and have ſerved in the ſame.
