Anno ſeptimo

Georgii III. Regis.

CAP. XXXVI.

An Act to continue ſo much of an Act made in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty, as relates to the free Importation of Cochineal and Indico; and for allowing the Bounties granted by any Acts of Parliament now in being upon the Exportation of Corn and Malt declared or made for Exportation, and Barley ſteeped and entered at the Exciſe Office to be made into Malt for Exportation, before a limited Time.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Law herein after mentioned is near expiring; May it therefore please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the Revival of an Act made in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for the free Importation of Cochineal during the Time therein limited; and also for the free Importation of Indico; which was to continue in Force from the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and thirty four, for the Term of Seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which, by several subsequent Acts passed in the Fourteenth, Twentieth, Twenty seventh, and Thirty third Years of His said late Majesty's Reign, was further continued, from the Expiration thereof, until the Twenty ninth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixty seven, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; shall be, and the same is hereby, further continued, from the Expiration thereof, to the Twenty ninth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and seventy four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

The Act for the free Importation of Cochineal, which was continued by several subsequent Acts, further continued to 29 Sept. 1774.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to prohibit, for a limited Time, the Exportation of Corn, Grain, Meal, Malt, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, and Starch, and also the Extraction of Low Wines and Spirits from Wheat and Wheat Flour, it was enacted, That no Person or Persons should, directly or indirectly, export, transport, carry, or convey, or cause or procure to be exported, transported, carried, or conveyed, out of or from Great Britain or Ireland, or load or lay on Board, or Recital of Clauses in the Act of this Session, for prohibiting the Exportation of Corn.

or cauſe or procure to be laden or laid on Board, in any Ship or other Veſſel, or Boat, in order to be exported, or carried out of the ſaid Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland (except to ſuch Places, and for ſuch Purpoſes, as in the ſaid Act are mentioned) any Sort of Corn, Meal, Malt, Flour, Bread, Biſcuit, or Starch, under the Penalties therein mentioned; in which Act is a Proviſoe, That any Thing therein contained ſhould not extend to any Malt declared or made for Exportation, and Barley ſteeped and entered at the Exciſe Office to be made into Malt for Exportation, on or before the Fifteenth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty ſix, which ſhould be exported, provided the Requiſites therein mentioned were complied with by the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof; and alſo another Proviſoe, That no Corn, Grain, Meal, Malt, Flour, Bread, Biſcuit, or Starch, which ſhould be exported by virtue of the ſaid Act, ſhould be intitled to any of the Bounties or Drawbacks which are allowed and made payable on the Exportation of ſuch Commodities, or any of them: And whereas divers Perſons within this Kingdom did buy conſiderable Quantities of Barley, and made the ſame into Malt for Exportation, or ſteeped and entered the ſame at the Exciſe Office to be made into Malt for Exportation, on or before the ſaid Fifteenth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty ſix; and ſuch Barley was bought of the Growers thereof at an advanced Price, on a Dependance that the Bounty would be paid on the Exportation thereof; and the greateſt Part of the ſaid Malt hath, ſince the ſaid Fifteenth Day of November, been actually exported, and the reſt ſtill remains under the Locks of the Exciſe; be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Bounty or Bounties granted on the Exportation of Malt by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in being, ſhall be allowed and paid to each and every Exporter and Exporters of all Malt declared or made for Exportation, and Barley ſteeped and entered at the Exciſe Office to be made into Malt for Exportation, on or before the ſaid Fifteenth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven

Bounty to be allowed on the Exportation of all ſuch Malt as was declared or made for Exportation; and Barley ſteeped and entered to be made into Malt for Exportation, on or before 5 Nov. 1766,
