EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order.)

Article 3 of the Local Government (Temporary Provisions) (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 enables the head of the Department of the Environment to make provision for the exercise of the functions of any district council in Northern Ireland, or of any joint committee appointed by two or more such councils, where the council or committee fails, or is unable or unwilling, to exercise any of its functions duly and effectually. The substantive provisions of Article 3 cease to have effect on 31st May 1988 unless renewed by a statutory rule for a maximum of a year at a time.

This Order provides that Article 3 shall continue in force until and including 29th May 1989.
