Amendment of Old Cases Regulations

At the end of Part VIII of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Order 1949 there shall be added the following regulation:—

"Transfer value payable under inter-change arrangements — application of regulation F8 of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Regulations 1988

47A—(1) If the Police Authority so determine in the case of a particular member who retired on or after 5th July 1948 regulation F8 of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Regulations 1988 ("the regulations of 1988") and Sections 1 and 3 of Part II of Schedule F thereto shall have effect as if set out herein but subject to the exceptions and modifications mentioned in paragraphs (2) and (3) and any other necessary modifications.

(2) Regulation F8 of the regulations of 1988 shall have effect for the purposes hereof as hereinafter provided, namely, as if—

(a) in paragraph (1)(a) after the word "who" there were inserted the word "retired" and the words "retires or retired on or after 1st April 1972" were omitted, and

(b) the requisite payment mentioned in paragraph (5)(b) were one of an amount equal to that of the member's award mentioned in paragraph (1)(a)(ii) when increased by an amount equal to compound interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum, calculated with yearly rests, in respect of the period before 21st January 1977 beginning with the date he received the award.

(3) Section 1 of Part II of Schedule F to the regulations of 1988 shall have effect for the purposes hereof as hereinafter provided, namely—

(a) subject as hereinafter provided, the notional pensions referred to in paragraph 1(1)(b) and (c) shall be calculated in accordance with the regulations of 1988 but by reference to the member's average pensionable pay within the meaning of this Order;

(b) where immediately before his retirement the member was paying pension contributions at a rate related to 5% of his pensionable pay, the widow's notional accrued pension referred to in paragraph 1(1)(c) shall not be less than would have been the widow's ordinary pension which would have been payable to his widow under this Order had he died when he retired in circumstances entitling her to such an award, calculated however at the flat rate specified in Scheme I of the appropriate provision of this Order;

(c) where immediately before his retirement the member was paying pension contributions at a rate related to 6.25% of his pensionable pay, the widow's notional accrued pension shall be calculated as if, at the time of his retirement—

(i) regulation 50 of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Regulations 1973 had been in force in place of paragraph 36A of the Schedule to this Order; and

(ii) paragraph 2 of Part VIII of Schedule B to the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Regulations 1988 had been in force in place of the corresponding provisions of this Order, and, accordingly, for the purposes of that calculation any additional contributions that he may have paid or any reduction that may have fallen to be made under the said relevant or corresponding provisions shall be deemed to have been paid or have fallen to be made under the said regulation 50 or paragraph 2, as the case may be.

(4) This regulation shall have effect as if anything done under or for the purposes of regulation 75A of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Regulations 1973 as it had effect by virtue of paragraph (4) thereof had been done under or for the purposes of this Order.".

Regulation 12(c)	"paragraph 8(2) of Part I of Schedule 7"	"paragraph 10(2) of Section I of Part II of Schedule F"

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These regulations come into operation on 1st January 1989 and are supplementary to the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Regulations 1988 ("the principal regulations") (which consolidate, with amendments, the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Regulations 1973, as amended).

Regulation 2 revokes the 1973 regulations and the other regulations specified in Part I of Schedule 1 but provides for the application of those regulations in respect of any period between 1st April 1972 and the date of commencement of these regulations (retrospection is authorised by Articles 14 and 15 of the Superannuation (Northern Ireland) Order 1972). Regulation 3 brings the principal regulations into force, subject to the transitional provisions in Part II of Schedule 1, on the same date as these regulations.

Regulation 4 and Schedule 2 continue in force the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Order 1949 and the other Orders there specified (subject to the amendment in Part II of that Schedule) in respect of persons whose service ended before 1st April 1972.

Regulations 5, 6, 7 and 8 and Schedules 3, 4, 5 and 6 amend the Royal Ulster Constabulary Reserve (Pensions) Regulations 1973, the Police Cadets (Pensions) (No. 2) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1973, the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions (War Service) Regulations 1980 and the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions (War Service) (Transferees) Regulations 1986 to take account of the principal regulations; regulation 9 provides for the principal regulations to have effect subject to those regulations and for the continuance in effect of things done under those regulations before the commencement of these regulations.
