DISEASES OF ANIMALS.
Boiling of Imported Animal Food.

---

Made by the Ministry of Agriculture for Northern Ireland under the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, as amended.

1927. No. 84.

Precautions to be adopted in regard to the feeding of certain foodstuffs to animals.

1. It shall be unlawful for any person to feed, or to cause, direct or permit to be fed to any animal or to bring into contact with any animal—

(a) any imported meat; or

(b) any swill or broken or waste foodstuffs—including vegetables—which have been in contact with any imported meat, unless the same shall have been boiled for at least one hour before being fed to or brought into contact with the animal.

Interpretation.

2. In this Order "animals" means cattle, sheep, goats, and all other ruminating animals and swine;

"Meat" means any part of the carcase (including the bones and offal) of an animal;

"Imported" means brought into Northern Ireland from any country other than the Irish Free State.

Offences.

3. If anything is done, or omitted to be done, in contravention of this Order, the owner and person in charge of the animals, and the owner and person in charge of any of the foodstuffs specified in Article 1 of this Order in respect of which the contravention is committed, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the contravention, shall each according to and in respect of his or their own acts or omissions be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Commencement.

4. This Order shall come into operation on the date hereof.

Short Title.

5. This Order may be cited as the Boiling of Imported Animal Food (Northern Ireland) Order of 1927.

In witness whereof the official Seal of the Ministry of Agriculture for Northern Ireland is hereunto affixed this twenty-fourth day of June, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven.

(Signed) James S. Gordon,
Secretary.
