BY THE LORDS JUSTICES AND PRIVY COUNCIL OF NORTHERN IRELAND.

(SIGNED) JAMES ANDREWS.

WHEREAS by section eleven of the National Health Insurance and Contributory Pensions Act, 1932, passed by the Parliament of the United Kingdom (in this Order referred to as "the United Kingdom Act") it is enacted that the United Kingdom Act, so far as it relates to matters with respect to which the Parliament of Northern Ireland has power to make laws, shall not extend to Northern Ireland unless and until provision to that effect is made either—

(a) by an Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland; or

(b) by an Order of the Governor of Northern Ireland in Council made in pursuance of such an Act;

and that upon the United Kingdom Act being so extended to Northern Ireland as aforesaid, it shall apply to Northern Ireland subject to such exceptions and adaptations as may be specified in such Act or Order as aforesaid:

And whereas it is enacted by section one of the National Health Insurance and Contributory Pensions Act (Northern Ireland), 1932, passed by the Parliament of Northern Ireland (in this Order referred to as "the Northern Ireland Act") that, in an event which has happened, the United Kingdom Act shall come into operation in Northern Ireland, as respects matters with respect to which the Parliament of Northern Ireland has power to make laws, on the date or dates which may be declared by the Governor of Northern Ireland in Council to be the date or dates on which the United Kingdom Act comes into operation as respects matters other than the matters aforesaid, and subject to such exceptions and adaptations as may be specified in the Order in Council; and that an Order in Council made for the purposes aforesaid may make such modifications and adaptations of any enactments relating to national health insurance and widows', orphans' and old-age contributory pensions as appear necessary or expedient for the extension of the United Kingdom Act to Northern Ireland:

And whereas the United Kingdom Act will come into operation, as respects matters other than those with respect to which the Parliament of Northern Ireland has power to make laws, on the several dates specified in the said Act:

And whereas it appears necessary and expedient for the extension of the United Kingdom Act to Northern Ireland that the United Kingdom Act in its application to Northern Ireland should be subject to the exceptions and adaptations hereinafter in this Order specified, and that certain modifications and adaptations of enactments relating to national health insurance should be made as hereinafter in this Order appearing:

Now, therefore, we, the Lords Justices for the government of Northern Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council of Northern Ireland, in pursuance of the provisions of the Northern Ireland Act, and in exercise of all powers enabling us in this behalf, do hereby declare and order as follows:—
