resides, he can reasonably expect to obtain insurable employment during a substantial part of the off-season.

2. The following Regulation shall be substituted for Regulation 4 of the principal Regulations :—

4. A married woman (other than a married woman whose husband is incapacitated from work or is unemployed and not in receipt of benefit) who since marriage has had less than fifteen contributions paid in respect of her, or who, if more than six months have elapsed since her marriage, has had less than eight contributions paid in respect of her during the period of three months preceding the beginning of her benefit quarter, shall be entitled to benefit only if, in addition to satisfying the other requirements of the Acts for the receipt of benefit, she also proves :—

(i) that she is normally employed in insurable employment and will normally seek to obtain her livelihood by means of insurable employment, and

(ii) that having regard to all the circumstances of her case and particularly to her industrial experience and the industrial circumstances of the district in which she resides either—

(a) she can reasonably expect to obtain insurable employment ; or

(b) her expectation of obtaining insurable employment in her usual occupation is not less than it would otherwise be by reason of the fact that she is married.

This Regulation shall not apply to married women who prove that they have been deserted by, or that they are permanently separated from, their husbands.

3. These Regulations may be cited as the Unemployment Insurance (Anomalies) (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1933, and shall be deemed to have come into operation on the 7th September, 1933.

Given under the Official Seal of the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland this 15th day of September, 1933.
