PETROLEUM SPIRIT.

Conveyance Regulations.

THE PETROLEUM SPIRIT (CONVEYANCE) REGULATIONS (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1933, EXEMPTION ORDER NO. 2, DATED THE 19TH DAY OF JULY, 1934.

1934. No. 55.

In pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by Regulation No. 27 of the Petroleum Spirit (Conveyance) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1933, I, The Right Honourable Sir Richard Dawson Bates, Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, hereby relax the requirement contained in paragraph 1 (2) of the Schedule to the said Regulations that " a space of not less than six inches, which shall be left clear and unobstructed except for any part of the framework of the wagon, shall intervene between the tank and the fire-resisting shield," in the following respect :—

Where valances are used on any mechanically driven road tank wagon to screen the sides of the tank they may be extended across the said space, provided that :—

(1) The ends of the valances shall be insulated from the fire-resisting shield by a layer of heat-resisting material ; and

(2) The said six-inch space shall not be obstructed at the top or bottom by turning the valances inwards.

Exemption Order No. 1 dated 27th June, 1933, is hereby cancelled.

Given under my hand at Belfast this 19th day of July, 1934.

R. Dawson Bates,
Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland.

POOR LAW.

Dispensary Districts : Medical Officers.

ORDER OF THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS FOR NORTHERN IRELAND AMENDING GENERAL REGULATIONS FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF DISPENSARY DISTRICTS.

1934. No. 75.

To the Guardians of the Poor of each Union and to all others whom it may concern :

WHEREAS in pursuance of the provisions of the Poor Relief (Ireland) Act, 1851, the Local Government Board for Ireland did by Order bearing date the 24th day of February, 1899, make rules for the government of dispensary districts and among other things did by Article 14 of the said Order prescribe the qualifications of the person to be appointed to the post of Dispensary Medical Officer :

And whereas the provisions of the said Article 14 were amended by Article 3 of an Order of the Local Government Board for Ireland dated 20th day of December, 1905 :

And whereas it is desirable that the provisions of the said Article 14 shall be further amended :

Now therefore the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland in pursuance of the powers vested in it under the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, and Orders made thereunder, hereby orders that Article 14 of the Order of 28th February, 1899, as amended by Article 3 of the Order of 20th December, 1905, shall be amended by the addition of the following paragraph at the end of paragraph (1) :—

> Every person to be appointed to the post of Medical Officer of a dispensary district in which is situated an urban district or any part thereof the population of which urban district according to the last preceding census shall exceed four thousand persons, shall in addition to the foregoing qualifications possess a Diploma in Sanitary Science, Public Health or State Medicine which has been entered on the Medical Register in pursuance of Section 21 of the Act 49 and 50 Vic., cap. 48.

Given under the Seal of the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland this 4th day of September, 1934.

(L.S.)

D. L. Clarke,
Assistant Secretary.

The foregoing Order is hereby approved this eighth day of September, 1934.

Abercorn,
Governor of Northern Ireland.
