Transfer of Assets Regulations

REGULATIONS, DATED 30TH JUNE, 1948, MADE BY THE NATIONAL INSURANCE JOINT AUTHORITY, IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE, UNDER THE NATIONAL INSURANCE ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1946.

1948. No. 200

The National Insurance Joint Authority, in conjunction with the Ministry of Finance, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 63 of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following regulations:—

Citation, commencement and interpretation.

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the National Insurance (Transfer of Assets) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948, and shall come into operation on the 30th June, 1948.

(2) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

"the Act" means the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946;

"the Ministry" means the Ministry of Labour and National Insurance for Northern Ireland;

"asset" means any asset mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a) or (d) of subsection 1 of section 63 of the Act, which by virtue of that subsection becomes an asset of the National Insurance Fund or of the National Insurance (Reserve) Fund on the appointed day;

" transferor " means in relation to any asset which, on the appointed day, is transferred by virtue of the Act, the person in whom that asset is vested immediately before that day; and " transferee " means in relation to any such asset, the person to whom that asset is so transferred;

and other expressions have the same meanings as in the Act.

(3) References in these regulations to any enactment shall include references to such enactment as amended by any subsequent enactment, order or regulations.

(4) The Interpretation Act, 1921, applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland.

Transfer of assets.

2.—(1) (a) For the purposes of subsection (3) of section 63 of the Act (which subsection provides for the transfer, on the appointed day, by virtue of the Act, of such of the assets specified in that section as are not immediately before the appointed day vested in the Ministry to the Ministry or such other person or authority as may be prescribed) and subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, the person or authority to whom such assets shall be transferred are—

(i) in so far as such assets (not being assets already vested in the Ministry of Finance) consist of annuities, bills, stocks, shares, debentures, funds, bonds, loans and other securities (other than any security, not being a debenture, by way of a charge or mortgage of land), the Ministry of Finance; and

(ii) in so far as such assets consist of any property which is not, in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this regulation, transferred to the Ministry of Finance, the Ministry.

(b) All assets which, immediately before the appointed day, are vested in the Ministry of Finance shall be retained by the Ministry of Finance.

(2) All assets which, immediately before the appointed day, are vested in the Ministry shall, on that day, vest in the Ministry of Finance.

Assets to be transferred free of trusts.

3. Every asset which is transferred by virtue of the Act shall vest free of any trust existing immediately before the appointed day.

Provision for further assurance.

4. Every transferor of any asset which is transferred by virtue of the Act shall, on the request of the transferee, execute and do all such lawful assurances and things as may be necessary for perfecting the title to that asset.

Provisions as to registration of title.

5.—(1) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of regulation 4, every transferor, and every person who is responsible for keeping any register or book in which there is registered or inscribed any asset transferred by virtue of the Act or is otherwise concerned with the registration or inscription of any such asset, shall do all such things as are necessary, or as the transferee may direct, to be done for the purpose of securing the due registration or inscription of the title of the transferee to that asset and the delivery to the transferee of any document constituting evidence of the said registration or inscription.

(2) The duty imposed by the preceding paragraph of this regulation in relation to any asset shall include a duty to do all such things as are necessary to secure that any dividend or interest payable in respect of that asset on or after the appointed day will be paid to the transferee.

(3) Subject to the provisions of subsection (5) of section 63 of the Act, a certificate issued by the Ministry that any specified asset is an asset which has been transferred to the transferee by virtue of the Act shall be treated by any person responsible or concerned as aforesaid as evidence that that asset has been so transferred.

Transfer of land not to give rise to forfeiture or determination.

6. Where any estate or interest in land is transferred by virtue of the Act, that transfer shall not give rise to any forfeiture or determination of that estate or interest.

Apportionment of rent and severance of covenants and agreements.

7.—(1) Where, by virtue of the Act, any estate or interest in a part only of any land held under a lease or under an agreement for tenancy is transferred, and the lease or agreement does not reserve separate rents for the several parts of the land so held, then, as from the appointed day, the rent shall be apportioned between the several parts thereof according to their value and the covenants, agreements and conditions contained in the lease or agreement shall be severed.

(2) As from the severance on the appointed day, no liability arising on or after that day for any apportioned rent or any breach of any covenant, agreement or condition contained in the lease or agreement in respect of any part of the land transferred to the transferee shall attach to the transferor or to the successors in title of the transferor, and no liability so arising for any such rent or breach in respect of any part of the land not so transferred shall attach to the transferee or to the successors in title of the transferee.

Acknowledgment of the right to production of documents.

8. Where, on or after the appointed day, any person retains possession of any document relating to the title to, or to the control or management of, any asset transferred by virtue of the Act, that person shall be deemed to have given to the transferee an acknowledgment in writing of the right of the transferee to production of that document and to delivery of copies thereof, and section 9 of the Conveyancing and Law of Property Act, 1881 (which relates to the production and safe custody of documents) shall apply as if the acknowledgment had been given without any such expression of contrary intention as is referred to in subsection (13) of that section.

Construction of documents and agreements.

9. Every agreement, whether in writing or not, and every document not being an agreement, under which, immediately before the appointed day, any asset transferred by virtue of the Act is held shall, unless any property not so transferred is held thereunder, as from the appointed day, have effect as if a reference to the transferee were substituted for any reference therein (however worded and whether express or implied) to the transferor.

Pending proceedings.

10. Any proceedings affecting any asset transferred by virtue of the Act which, on the appointed day, are pending shall not be prejudicially affected by reason of that transfer, but any such proceedings may be amended in such manner as may appear necessary or proper for enabling them to be prosecuted or enforced by or against the transferee or any other person or persons concerned as the case may be.
