1948. No. 218

The Ministry of Labour and National Insurance, acting in conjunction with the Ministry of Finance, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 59 of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations:—

Citation, commencement and interpretation.

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the National Insurance (Extension of Unemployment Benefit) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948, and shall come into operation on the 2nd July, 1948.

(2) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

"the Act" means the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946;

"the Ministry" means the Ministry of Labour and National Insurance for Northern Ireland;

"local tribunal" means a local tribunal constituted in accordance with regulation 8 of the National Insurance (Determination of Claims and Questions) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948; and other expressions have the same meanings as in the Act.

(3) References in these regulations to any enactment or regulations shall include references to such enactment or regulations as amended by any subsequent enactment, order or regulations.

(4) The Interpretation Act, 1921, applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland.

Extension of unemployment benefit.

2. Subject to the provisions of section 59 of the Act (which provides for payment of unemployment benefit after exhaustion of the right thereto during a period of five years beginning with the appointed day) and of these regulations, the Ministry may pay unemployment benefit to insured persons, on the recommendation of a local tribunal, for such number of days of unemployment as may be specified in the recommendation, being days for which they are not entitled to such benefit by reason only of having exhausted their right thereto.

Local tribunals.

3. In making recommendations for the purposes of regulation 2, a local tribunal—

(a) shall not proceed on any consideration of the financial resources of the applicant or persons connected with him; but

(b) subject to the foregoing paragraph, shall have regard—

(i) to the particular circumstances of the applicant, including the industrial conditions in the district where he ordinarily resides; and

(ii) to any general directions issued for the purpose of the said section 59 and of these regulations by the Ministry for the guidance of local tribunals.

Application for benefit.

4. Application for benefit under these regulations shall be made in such manner and subject to such conditions as may from time to time be determined by the Ministry.

Deemed entitlement to benefit.

5.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) of this regulation, a person shall be deemed for the purposes of all the provisions of the Act to be entitled to unemployment benefit for any day for which he receives that benefit under and in accordance with these regulations.

(2) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (3) of section 11 of the Act (which subsections relate respectively to exhaustion of, and to requalification for, benefit), the foregoing paragraph shall not apply, subject to the qualification that it shall apply for the purposes of any regulations made under the proviso to the said subsection (1) in relation to the calculation of additional days of unemployment benefit.

6. The question whether a person is not entitled to benefit by reason only of having exhausted his right thereto shall be determined by an insurance officer, a local tribunal or the umpire, as the case may be, but any other question arising under these regulations shall be determined by the Ministry, and the provisions of the National Insurance (Determination of Claims and Questions) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948, shall apply accordingly.
