ORDER IN COUNCIL DATED 29TH OCTOBER, 1954, MADE UNDER SECTION SEVEN OF THE LOCAL BANKRUPTCY (IRELAND) ACT, 1888.

1954. No. 159

BY THE GOVERNOR IN THE PRIVY COUNCIL OF NORTHERN IRELAND

WAKEHURST

WHEREAS under and by virtue of certain proclamations heretofore made and of the several statutes in that behalf the County of Antrim is divided into two districts for the purpose of hearing and determining causes by Civil Bill and of transacting all such criminal and other business as may be cognisable or determinable at any general or quarter sessions of the Peace or in any civil bill court in or for the said County of Antrim, one of the said districts being called the district or division of Belfast and the other of the said districts being called the district or division of Ballymena:

AND WHEREAS by a proclamation dated the 12th day of November, 1897, made by the Lords Justices and Privy Council in Ireland it was ordered and directed, inter alia, that the Division of Ballymena of the County of Antrim, for which a court of general or quarter sessions and a civil bill court is constituted, should, so far as regards such sessions and court, be transferred to and be under the jurisdiction of the County Court Judge and Chairman of Quarter Sessions of the County of Down:

AND WHEREAS it is expedient that the said Ballymena Division of the County of Antrim should, so far as regards such sessions and court, be transferred to and be under the jurisdiction of the Recorder of Belfast and County Court Judge and Chairman of the County of Antrim:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOHN DE VERE, BARON WAKEHURST, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, in pursuance of section seven of the local Bankruptcy (Ireland) Act, 1888, and of all other powers in that behalf thereunto me enabling, by and with the advice and consent of the Privy Council of Northern Ireland, do hereby order and direct that from and after the tenth day of November, 1954, the Division of Ballymena of the County of Antrim, so far as regards the court of general or quarter sessions and the civil bill court, be transferred to and be under the jurisdiction of the Recorder of Belfast and County Court Judge and Chairman of the County of Antrim; provided that nothing herein contained shall have effect so as in any way to annul, affect or alter the proclamations hereinbefore referred to or any of them further or otherwise than may be necessary to give effect to this Order; and that this Order may be cited as the County Courts (Ballymena Division) (Transfer of Sessions) Order, (Northern Ireland), 1954.

Given at Government House, Hillsborough, this twenty-ninth day of October, 1954.
