(b) for any other part of that period, at the rate of fifteen shillings a week.

5.—(1) Where, by virtue of the provisions of paragraph (2) or paragraph (3) of regulation 3, the weekly rate of any reduction of personal benefit is to be determined for any period in accordance with the provisions of this regulation, that reduction shall, subject to the following provisions of this regulation, be such (if any) as will reduce the rate of that personal benefit, where the beneficiary is a tuberculosis patient, to twelve shillings and sixpence a week, or, in any other case, to seven shillings and sixpence a week.

(2) For any part of the period referred to in paragraph (1) of this regulation during which the beneficiary has a dependant and in respect of which an application has been made by the beneficiary to the Ministry to pay on behalf of the beneficiary to that dependant, or to some other person who is approved by the Ministry and satisfies the Ministry that he will apply it for the benefit of that dependant, so much (if any) of the personal benefit as would, but for the provisions of these regulations, be payable to the beneficiary in excess, where the beneficiary is a tuberculosis patient, of twenty shillings a week, or, in any other case, of fifteen shillings a week, the reduction of personal benefit shall be at the rate of seven shillings and sixpence a week.

(3) (a) For any part of the period of free in-patient treatment which falls within the period of fifty-two weeks next following the first fifty-two weeks thereof, and during which the beneficiary has not a dependant or, if the beneficiary has a dependant, in respect of which any such application as is mentioned in paragraph (2) of this regulation has not been made, the reduction of personal benefit shall, subject to the provisions of the next following sub-paragraph, be at the rate of fifteen shillings a week.

(b) In addition to the reduction of benefit specified in the last foregoing sub-paragraph, so much (if any) of the personal benefit as would, but for the provisions of these regulations, be payable for the said part of the said period in excess, where the beneficiary is a tuberculosis patient, of twenty-seven shillings and sixpence a week, or, in any other case, of twenty-two shillings and sixpence a week, shall not be payable unless and until the beneficiary is discharged from the hospital or similar institution by and with the approval of a person authorised or empowered to discharge him and thereafter proves, in such manner as the Ministry shall require, that he has been so discharged and is neither receiving free in-patient treatment nor residing in any prescribed accommodation, and in that event there shall be payable only so much thereof as is payable in accordance with the provisions of the next following sub-paragraph.

(c) Where a beneficiary satisfies the conditions for the receipt of any benefit to which the last preceding sub-paragraph applies, that benefit shall, during his lifetime, be payable to the beneficiary by instalments not exceeding sixty shillings a week unless, having regard to the circumstances of any particular case, the Ministry is of the opinion that payment by other instalments or in one sum is desirable, and any benefit which, at his death, has not been paid in accordance with this provision shall not be payable:

Provided that—

(i) the payment of any benefit to which the last preceding sub-paragraph applies shall be suspended while the beneficiary is again receiving free in-patient treatment or is residing in any prescribed accommodation; and

(ii) where a person again receives free in-patient treatment for any period in relation to which the provisions of sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph apply, the amount of any benefit which would be payable to him under those provisions in respect of that period shall be reduced or extinguished by the deduction therefrom of the amount of any benefit which, at the commencement of that period, either was payable to him under those provisions in respect of any earlier period and was unpaid, or would have been so payable to him under those provisions if he had then satisfied the conditions for the receipt thereof.
