BY THE GOVERNOR IN THE PRIVY COUNCIL OF NORTHERN IRELAND.

WAKEHURST

I, John de Vere, Baron Wakehurst, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Governor of Northern Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council of Northern Ireland, in pursuance and by virtue of section sixty-one of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act (Ireland), 1877(a), as that enactment applies to the Supreme Court of Judicature of Northern Ireland(b) and of all other powers enabling me in this behalf, upon the recommendation and with the concurrence of a majority of all the Judges of the said Supreme Court of Judicature for the time being (of which majority the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland was one) and the other persons mentioned in the said section sixty-one as applied as aforesaid, do by this Order make the Rules of Court set out in the Schedule hereto (which amend the Rules of the Supreme Court of Northern Ireland(c) in the manner appearing in that Schedule).

This Order may be cited as the Supreme Court Rules (Northern Ireland) (No. 3) Order in Council, 1957, and shall come into force on the fourth day of July, 1957.

Given at Government House, Hillsborough, this twenty-fifth day of June, 1957.

SCHEDULE

1. After Order LXXX A there shall be inserted the following Order:—

"Order LXXX B

1. In this Order—

"the Act" means the Restrictive Trade Practices Act, 1956;

"the Registrar" means the Registrar of Restrictive Trading Agreements.

2. All proceedings in the High Court under Part I of the Act shall be assigned to the Chancery Division, and shall be heard and determined by a judge nominated by the Lord Chief Justice.

3.—(1) Any originating summons or notice of motion under this Order shall be intituled in the matter of the Act and shall include a heading specifying the agreement to which the application relates or otherwise identifying the subject matter of the application.

(2) Any originating summons or notice of motion under this Order shall specify the provision of the Act under which the application is made.

(3) Any originating summons or notice of motion under this Order shall be served on the respondent or respondents not less than seven days before the hearing of the summons or motion. Service of any such summons or notice of motion on the Registrar may be effected by leaving the same at the office of the Chief Crown Solicitor for Northern Ireland with some person employed therein.

4.—(1) Every application under section 13 of the Act shall be made by originating summons.

(2) An originating summons under subsection (1) of section 13 shall specify particulars of the rectification sought by the applicant; and an originating summons under subsection (2) of that section shall specify the declaration or declarations claimed by the applicant.

(3) In the case of an application under section 13 by the Registrar, any one or more of the parties to the agreement to which the application relates may be made respondent to the summons, and in the case of any application under that section by a person other than the Registrar, the Registrar shall be made respondent to the summons.

(4) Any party or parties to an agreement made respondent to a summons under this Rule shall, except in so far as the court or a judge may otherwise direct, be treated as representing all the other parties to the agreement.

5.—(1) Every application for an order under section 15 of the Act shall be made by originating summons.

(2) Where it is sought to examine a person in the capacity of director, manager, secretary or other officer of a body corporate to which notice has been given under section 14 of the Act, the body corporate, as well as that person, shall be made a respondent to the summons.

(3) Any order made under section 15 for the attendance and examination of any person shall be an order for his attendance and examination before the court or a judge.

(4) If any person who attends for examination in pursuance of such an order before a judge sitting otherwise than in open court refuses to be sworn or to answer any question which the judge may put or allow to be put to him, or to produce any particulars, documents or information which the judge has required him to produce, the judge may adjourn the examination into open court.

(5) When the examination of a person in pursuance of any such order has been concluded, the notes of the examination shall be filed in the Central Office.

6.—(1) An application for an authorisation or order under section 18 of the Act may be made either by originating summons or by originating notice of motion.

(2) In the case of an application for an authorisation under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 18, one or more of the persons alleged to be parties to the agreement shall be made respondent to the summons or motion, and paragraph (4) of Rule 4 of this Order shall apply as it applies to a summons under that Rule.

(3) In the case of an application for any other relief under section 18, all persons against whom an order is sought shall be made respondents to the summons or motion.

7. Subject to the provisions of this Order, the Rules of the Supreme Court for the time being in force, and the practice and procedure in the Chancery Division, shall apply."
