" Special provisions relating to day substituted for Sunday

4.—(1) In the case of a person who,—

(a) in any week in which, in the normal course, he would work as an employed person on not more than six days including the Sunday, is unemployed on that Sunday; and the day of that week on which, in the normal course, he would not work as an employed person, or (if that week contains more than one day on which in the normal course he would not so work) the later or last of those days, shall be substituted for that Sunday as a day which, by virtue of the provisions of paragraph (d) of subsection (2) of section 10 of the Act, is not to be treated as a day of unemployment or of incapacity for work for the purposes of any provision of the Act relating to unemployment or sickness benefit and, for those purposes, is to be disregarded in computing any period of consecutive days.

(b) claims unemployment benefit for that Sunday;

(2) In this regulation, the expression " week " means a period of seven days commencing with the midnight between Saturday and Sunday.".

Amendment of regulation 5 of the principal regulations

3. In regulation 5 of the principal regulations (which relates to night workers), sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph (1), the words " other than Saturday or Sunday " in sub-paragraph (c) of that paragraph, and paragraph (2) shall be omitted and that regulation shall accordingly have effect as set out in the schedule to these regulations.

Provisions added to the principal regulations

4.—(1) The following provisions shall be added after regulation 7 of the principal regulations:—

" Provisions relating to treatment of days as days of unemployment

7A.—(1) For the purposes only of subsection (1) of section 4 of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1957 (which, in relation to a person who is employed in any employed contributor's employment which has not been terminated, imposes a condition with respect to the treatment, as a day of unemployment, of a day on which in the normal course that person would not work), the following provisions of this regulation shall apply.

(2) Where a person is employed in an employed contributor's employment which has not been terminated but has been indefinitely suspended, that employment shall be treated as if it had been terminated on the date on which it was suspended if the period of the suspension consists of not less than twelve consecutive weekdays exclusive of any day or days of recognised or customary holiday in connection with the employment which has been suspended.

(3) Where, in any week, a person is employed in an employed contributor's employment which has not been terminated, if—

(a) in relation to that person, that employment is casual employment; or

(b) in the normal course, that person would not work for the employer by whom he is employed in that employment; or

(c) the earnings derived from that employment for that week do not exceed forty shillings and that person's work in that employment could ordinarily have been performed by him in addition to his work in, and outside the ordinary working hours of, his usual employment; that employment shall be treated, as respects that week, as if it had been terminated immediately after its commencement.

(4) If, as respects any day, a person satisfies the following conditions, that is to say:—

(a) in the normal course, he would work on that day in an employed contributor's employment which has not been, and does not fall to be treated as if it had been, terminated but has been suspended; and

(b) on that day, he works either—

(i) in some other employed contributor's employment which, by virtue of the last foregoing paragraph, falls, or (if it had not been terminated) would fall, to be treated, as respects the week in which that day occurs, as if it had been terminated; or

(ii) in an employment which, if it were an employed contributor's employment, would be such an employment as is described in head (i) of this sub-paragraph;

that day shall be treated as a day of interruption of employment if, but for his having so worked on that day, it would have been so treated.

(5) In this regulation, the expression "week" has the same meaning as in the said subsection (1).".

(2) The following provisions shall be added after regulation 13 of the principal regulations:—

"Increase of unemployment and sickness benefit for persons over pensionable age

14. Where, by virtue of the provisions of section 25 of the Act (which makes provision as to unemployment and sickness benefit for persons over pensionable age) as amended by subsection (3) of section 2 of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1957, a person who is over pensionable age is entitled to unemployment or sickness benefit in respect of any day for which he would have been entitled to a retirement pension only by virtue of section 24 of the Act (which confers a power, in relation to certain benefits including unemployment and sickness benefit to provide by regulations for entitlement to benefit on a reduced scale in cases where a person would be entitled to the benefit but for the fact that the relevant contribution conditions are not satisfied), the weekly rate of any increase of the said unemployment or sickness benefit under section 22 of the Act (which relates to increase of benefit for children) or under subsection (1) or paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of section 23 of the Act (which relates to increase of benefit for adult dependants) shall be that at which that increase would have been payable if the benefit to be increased had been the retirement pension to which that person would have been so entitled.".

Transitory provisions

5.—(1) For the purposes of the provisions of the regulation which, by regulation 2 of these regulations, is substituted for regulation 4 of the principal regulations, any question as to the day or days on which, in the normal course, a person works, or would work, as an employed person shall be determined as if regulation 5 of the principal regulations had always had effect as set out in the schedule hereto.

(2) The provisions of the regulation which, by paragraph (2) of the last foregoing regulation, is added to the principal regulations shall have effect subject to the proviso to subsection (3) of section 2 of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1957.
