EDUCATION

Admission of Students to Teacher Training Colleges

REGULATIONS, DATED 20TH AUGUST, 1962, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF EDUCATION UNDER THE EDUCATION ACTS (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1947 TO 1962.

The Ministry of Education (hereinafter referred to as "the Ministry") in pursuance of the powers vested in it by Section 59 of the Education Act (Northern Ireland), 1947(a), and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf, hereby makes the following Regulations:-

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Training Colleges (Admission of Students) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1962.

(2) These Regulations shall have effect from 1st August, 1963.

(3) The Admission of Students to Training Colleges Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1958(b), are hereby revoked with effect from 1st August, 1963.

2. In these Regulations the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them, that is to say:—

"candidate" means an applicant for admission as a student to a course of teacher training in a training college under the provisions of these Regulations;

"Ordinary Entry Candidate" means a candidate who is not less than 18 years of age and is under 21 years of age on 1st October in the year in which admission is sought;

"Special Entry Candidate" means a candidate who is 21 years of age or over on 1st October in the year in which admission is sought;

"training college" means a college for the training of teachers conducted by or on behalf of the Ministry or a voluntary college in receipt of (a) 1947. c. 3.

(b) S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1958, No. 113; S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1961, No. 114.

grants from the Ministry under the Training Colleges (Grant Conditions) Regulations, 1956(a); and "general training college" means a training college providing courses of general training for primary, secondary and special school teachers.

3. The number of Ordinary Entry Candidates and the number of Special Entry Candidates to be admitted each year to each training college shall be determined by the Ministry after consultation with the Principal of the college.

4. A candidate shall be required to satisfy the conditions prescribed in the appropriate Schedule.

5.—(1) A candidate shall make application in such form and, in any year, by such date as the Ministry may determine; and shall pay any fee chargeable and shall furnish the Ministry with all such information as it may require.

(2) A candidate shall furnish the names and addresses of two persons to whom reference may be made by the Ministry as to the suitability of the candidate: in the case of an Ordinary Entry Candidate one of these persons shall be the Principal of the school last attended.

6. A candidate may be required, as a condition of admission to training, to give an undertaking that on completion of the course of training for which he is accepted he will without undue delay seek employment as a teacher in a grant-aided school or institution in Northern Ireland and will serve as a teacher in such a school or institution for a period of at least two years.

7. Each student admitted to a training college shall be required to satisfy the Ministry of his health and physical capacity for teaching.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland this 20th day of August, nineteen hundred and sixty-two, in the presence of

(L.S.) A. C. Williams,
Secretary.

FIRST SCHEDULE

1. To be eligible for admission to a general training college an Ordinary Entry Candidate shall be required:

(a) to hold the Senior Certificate or have obtained such marks as are required for the award of that Certificate;

(b) to have obtained a pass in English language in an examination for the Senior Certificate; and

(c) to satisfy the Ministry of his suitability generally to follow a course of teacher training.

2.—(1) (a) Candidates to whom this Schedule refers shall in each year be placed in order of merit in accordance with the following provisions of this paragraph.

(b) An order of merit shall be determined for each general training college and shall be determined for men and women separately.

(a) S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1956, No. 9.

(2) Each order of merit shall be calculated by the addition, as provided in the following sub-paragraphs, of the marks obtained in six subjects of the Senior Certificate Examination taken in any year or years.

(3) Marks obtained in a subject at advanced level shall be increased by 50 per cent. if the candidate has obtained a pass at advanced level.

(4) Where a candidate has passed in a subject of the examination on more than one occasion (whether the subject has been taken at ordinary level or at advanced level, or at both ordinary and advanced level), the most advantageous mark obtained shall be regarded as the mark appropriate to that subject.

(5) The examination subjects selected shall be English language and the five other subjects which are most advantageous to the candidate: provided that—

(a) not more than three languages other than English may be included;

(b) not more than three mathematical subjects may be included;

(c) where a candidate has obtained marks in the Senior Certificate Examination in any subject which is shown in column A hereunder and has, in addition, obtained marks in the subject shown opposite it in column B, the subject in column A or the corresponding subject in column B, but not both, may be selected:

A	B
Botany (Advanced)	Biology (Ordinary or Advanced)
Zoology (Advanced)	Biology (Ordinary or Advanced)
Geometrical Drawing (Advanced)	Practical Drawing (Ordinary)
Mathematics: Traditional Course (Ordinary)	Mathematics: Alternative Course (Ordinary)

SECOND SCHEDULE

1. To be eligible for admission to training in a general training college a Special Entry Candidate (not being a university graduate eligible for admission under paragraph 2) and any Ordinary Entry Candidate who does not satisfy the provisions of sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph 1 of the First Schedule shall be required:

(a) to show that he has reached a satisfactory standard of education and, in the case of any Ordinary Entry Candidate to whom this Schedule refers, that by reference to the subjects of any course which he has followed and the marks obtained in any examination, he has reached a standard which is regarded by the Ministry as equivalent to that attained by successful candidates under the First Schedule;

(b) to show aptitude for a course provided in the college; and

(c) to satisfy the Ministry of his suitability generally to follow a course of teacher training.

2. To be eligible for admission to a course of training for graduates in a general training college a university graduate shall be required:

(a) to have followed university courses which are acceptable to the Ministry for the purpose of this paragraph; and

(b) to satisfy the Ministry of his suitability generally to follow a course of teacher training.
