EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations amend the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Insurable and Excepted Employments) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1948 by including the employment of certain office workers among the insurable employments under the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland) 1966. The regulations apply to persons employed as a clerk, secretary, typist or book-keeper etc. where they are supplied by or through an agent and where the remuneration is paid by or through, or on the basis of accounts submitted by the agent, but they do not apply to work done by such persons in their own homes. The regulations also amend the principal regulations by prescribing the agent as the employer.
