jeſty, for authorizing His Majeſty to make Regulations reſpecting the Trade and Commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope; and for reviving and making perpetual an Act, made in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, for preventing Offences in obſtructing, deſtroying, or damaging Ships, and in obſtructing Seamen and others from purſuing their lawful Occupations.

[2d April 1801.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Law herein-after mentioned has by Experience been found uſeful and beneficial, and it is expedient that the ſame ſhould be revived and further continued; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That ſo much of an Act made in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for reducing, until the Firſt Day of June One thouſand eight hundred, the Duties upon Spirits diſtilled from Melaſſes or Sugar, or any Mixture therewith; for prohibiting the Diſtillation of Spirits from Wheat or Wheat Flour; and for reducing until the Twentieth Day of September One thouſand eight hundred, and better collecting the Duties payable on the Importation of Starch, as relates to the reducing and better collecting the Duties payable on the Importation of Starch, which was by an Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, revived, amended, and further continued, until the Expiration of Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſhall, from and immediately after the Fifth Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and one, be revived and continued; and the ſame is hereby revived, and ſhall continue in full Force and Effect, from and immediately after the ſaid Fifth Day of March, until the Firſt Day of October One thouſand eight hundred and one.

So much of 39 & 40 Geo. III, Cap. 8, as relates to the reducing the Duties payable on Importation of Starch, ſhall be revived, and further continued till Oct. 1, 1801.

II. And whereas it is expedient that an Act, made in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to enable His Majeſty, by Order in Council, to permit, until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Seſſion of Parliament, ſuch Goods as ſhall be ſpecified in ſuch Order, to be imported into this Kingdom in neutral Ships; which was, by Two Acts of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, and by an Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, further continued until the Expiration of Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſhould be revived, continued, and amended; be it therefore enacted, That, from and immediately after the Fifth Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and one, the ſaid Act ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby revived; and that, from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for His Majeſty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council from Time to Time, when and as often as the ſame ſhall be judged expedient, to permit, until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Seſſion of Parliament, any ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, as ſhall be ſpecified 39 Geo. III, Cap. 112, permitting the Importation of Goods in Neutral Ships, ſhall be revived, and further continued until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Seſſion.

fied in any Order in Council to be imported into any Port of the United Kingdom, in Foreign Ships belonging to the Subjects of any Kingdom or State not now at War with His Majesty, upon Payment either of such Duties as are or shall by Law be payable upon such Articles when imported in any British-built Ship, or of such Duties as are or shall by Law be payable upon such Articles when imported in any Foreign-built Ship, according as it shall, with respect to each Article, be directed and specified in such Order; any Law now in force to the contrary notwithstanding.

37 Geo. III, Cap. 21, respecting the Trade of the Cape of Good Hope, shall be revived, and further continued till Mar. 5, 1804, &c.

III. And whereas the Law herein-after mentioned has by Experience been found useful and beneficial, and it is expedient that the same should be revived and further continued; be it therefore further enacted, That an Act made in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act, authorizing His Majesty for a limited Time, to make Regulations respecting the Trade and Commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope; which was, by Four Acts of the Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth, and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and by an Act of the last Session of Parliament, further continued until the Expiration of Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament, shall, from and immediately after the Fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and one, be revived and continued, and the same is hereby revived, and shall continue in full Force and Effect, from and immediately after the said Fifth Day of March, until the Fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and four, and from thence until the Expiration of Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

33 Geo. III, Cap. 67, for preventing damaging Ships, &c., shall be perpetual.

IV. And whereas the Law herein-after mentioned has by Experience been found useful and beneficial, and it is expedient that the same should be revived and made perpetual; be it therefore further enacted, That an Act, made in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for better preventing Offences in obstructing, destroying, or damaging Ships or other Vessels, and in obstructing Seamen, Keelmen, Casters, and Ship Carpenters, from pursuing their lawful Occupations; which was to continue in force until the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which was, by an Act of the last Session of Parliament, continued until the Expiration of Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament, shall, from and immediately after the Fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and one, be revived, and the same is hereby revived, and shall, from and immediately after the said Fifth Day of March, be made perpetual.
