ANNO QUADRAGESIMO PRIMO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CAP. LI.

An Act to permit Portugal Wine to be landed and warehouſed without Payment of Duties, under certain Reſtrictions, for a limited Time.

[20th June 1801.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to allow Portugal Wine to be warehouſed for a limited Time, and under certain Regulations, on the Importation thereof; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all ſuch Portugal Wine as ſhall be imported into the United Kingdom, from and after the Fifteenth Day of May One thouſand eight hundred and one, directly from Portugal in Britiſh Ships, or Veſſels belonging to Perſons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majeſty, however the ſame may be navigated, or in Veſſels authorized by any Order of His Majeſty in Council for that Purpoſe, into ſuch Ports in the United Kingdom as are mentioned and enumerated in this Act, may, upon the Entry thereof being firſt duly made with the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe, be landed from on board the Ship or Veſſel in which the ſame ſhall be imported, and depoſited in ſuch Warehouſe or Warehouſes as ſhall from Time to Time be for that Purpoſe provided at the Charge of the reſpective Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors, of ſuch Wine, before the Payment of any Duty, either of Cuſtoms or Exciſe, thereon, thereon, under and subject to the Conditions, Regulations, and Restrictions, in this Act contained.

Portugal Wine imported after May 15, 1801, directly from Portugal in Britiſh Ships, or Veſſels belonging to Perſons of any State in Amity with His Majeſty, or authorized by Order in Council, into Ports enumerated in this Act, may be landed and warehouſed, before Payment of any Duty.

Warehouses shall be approved by the Customs and Excise, and Bonds in Double the Duties given for Payment thereof, before the Wine is removed, and within Two Years after landing.

II. And be it further enacted, That every such Warehouse shall be approved of by the respective Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in England, Scotland, and Ireland, if in London, Leith, or Dublin, and if in any other Port or Place, then by the proper Collector and Comptroller of the Customs, and Collectors and Supervisors of Excise at such Port or Place; and sufficient Bonds or Security, in Double the Value of the Duties of Customs payable on the Importation of such Wine in British-built Ships or Vessels, shall be given to the Collectors of the Customs, and the like Bond or Security, in Double the Value of the Duty of Excise, to the proper Officers of Excise, who shall be appointed or employed to take the same in His Majesty's Name; which Bonds or Securities such Collectors and Officers respectively are hereby empowered and required to take, that all and every the Duties of Customs and Excise respectively, to which such Wine is or may be subject and liable, shall be duly paid before the same shall be taken from or removed out of any such Warehouse, and within Two Years after the Time the same shall be so landed and deposited in any such Warehouse as aforesaid; and in case the same shall not be taken from or removed out of such Warehouse within such Two Years, then that the said Duties shall be duly paid at the End of such Two Years; such Duties to be computed according to the Gauge of such Wine, to be taken at the Time the same shall be so landed and put into such Warehouses as aforesaid.

No Wines to be landed, without Payment of Duty, except at certain Ports, nor any allowed the Benefit of this Act, which shall not arrive before Aug. 18, 1801, unless it be made appear that it was shipt in Portugal before Aug 1, 1801, and it be landed before Nov. 1, 1801, in the Quantities herein mentioned.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Wines shall be landed, without Payment of Duties, or be warehoused under the Authority of this Act, except at One of the under-mentioned Ports, (that is to say), London, Liverpool, Lancaster, Bristol, Hull, Chester, Colchester, Exeter, Plymouth, Southampton, Weymouth, Gloucester, Poole, Portsmouth, Great Yarmouth, Lynn, Dover, Newcastle, Falmouth, Dartmouth, Ipswich, Newhaven, Rochester, Leith, Aberdeen, Greenock, Port Glasgow, Dublin, Drogheda, Dundalk, Newry, Belfast, Galway, Limerick, Londonderry, Cork, Waterford, Sligo, New Ross, Youghall, or Wexford; nor shall any Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any such Wine, which shall not arrive at the Port of Importation in Great Britain or Ireland respectively before the Eighteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and one, be allowed the Benefit of this Act, or be permitted to land and warehouse his or their Wine, before Payment of the Duties, unless the Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors thereof, shall make it appear to the Satisfaction of the respective Commissioners of the Customs in England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively, as the Case may be, that the Wine which shall be entered for or proposed to be warehoused under the Authority of this Act, was actually and bonâ fide shipped in Portugal for Importation into Great Britain or Ireland, on or before the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and one, nor unless such Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors shall actually land and deposit, before the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and one, and in One or more Warehouse or Warehouses approved as aforesaid, either in London, or at One of the before enumerated Ports, the Quantities of Wine herein-after mentioned, that is to say; if in London not less than Two hundred Pipes or reputed Pipes of Portugal Red Wine, or Fifty Pipes or reputed

Pipes

Pipes of Portugal White Wine, if at any One of the other before enumerated Ports, except the Ports of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, not less than One hundred Pipes of Portugal Red Wine, or Twenty-five Pipes or reputed Pipes of Portugal White Wine.

But less than the specified Quantities of Wine may be deposited, provided the whole be deposited within the Time limited for Importation, otherwise it may be sold for Payment of the Duties.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors of any such Wine, to import and deposit in any such Warehouse, any less Quantities than are by this Act specified as the Quantities to be deposited by the same Person, provided that the whole Quantity required by this Act shall be deposited pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, within the Period limited by this Act for the Importation of such Wine: Provided also, That in case the whole Quantity required by this Act shall not be deposited by any such Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, before such Period as aforesaid, then and in such Case the full Duties of Customs and Excise, payable on such Wine, shall be immediately payable and paid; and in case of Non-payment of such respective Duties, the respective Commissioners of Customs and Excise are hereby authorized to sell all such Wine, and apply the Produce of such Sale in like Manner as by this Act directed, with respect to Wine that shall remain in any Warehouse the full Time allowed by this Act; any Thing in this Act or any other Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Vessels arriving with Wine at a Port not herein enumerated, may remove to one, and there land it.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Ship or Vessel has arrived, or shall arrive at any Port in Great Britain or Ireland, not in this Act enumerated, the said Ship or Vessel may lawfully depart from such Port without Molestation or Hindrance, with any Wine on board intended to be warehoused under the Regulations of this Act, and carry the same to any Port or Place mentioned and enumerated in this Act, and there enter, land, and deliver any such Wine, under and subject to the Provisions, Regulations, and Restrictions of this Act.

Before any Cask of Wine is warehoused, the Number and Content shall be cut in the Head.

VI. And be it further enacted, That before any Pipe or Cask of Wine shall be put or deposited in any such Warehouse as aforesaid, the Number and full Content thereof shall, at the Charge of the Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors thereof, be cut in the Head of every such Pipe or Cask, under the Inspection and according to the Direction of the proper Officers of the Customs and Excise respectively.

Act not to alter the Duties of Package, &c.

VII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal, or in anywise alter the Duties of Package, Scavage, Balliage, or Portage, or any other Duties payable to the Mayor, and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or to the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, or to any other City or Town Corporate, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, or to repeal or anywise alter the Prisage of Wines, the Duty called Butlerage, or to any special Privilege or Exemption to which any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, is or are now entitled by Law, but the same shall be continued as heretofore.

Warehouses to be secured under the joint Locks of the Proprietor

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Warehouse shall be secured under the joint Locks of the Proprietor or Occupier thereof, and of the proper Officer of Excise, if in Great Britain, or other proper Officer and the proper Officer, and may be entered into on Notice to the proper Officer, between certain Hours.

Officer, if in Ireland; and that when and ſo often as the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors of any ſuch Wine, ſhall have Occaſion or be deſirous to examine the State of any ſuch Wine, or to rack the ſame, or perform any other lawful Operation thereon, ſuch Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, upon giving Twelve Hours Notice in Writing to the proper Officer of Exciſe, if in Great Britain, or other proper Officer, if in Ireland, ſpecifying the particular Warehouſe, and the Purpoſe for which he deſires to enter the ſame, ſhall be at Liberty, either by himſelf or any known Servants or Agents, to enter into any ſuch Warehouſe, and to examine, or rack or perform any other lawful Operation on ſuch Wine: Provided, That no Perſon whatever ſhall enter or remain in any ſuch Warehouſe, except between the Hours of Eight in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, and except in the Preſence of the proper Officer of Exciſe, if in Great Britain, or other proper Officer, if in Ireland; and ſuch Officer, upon receiving ſuch Notice as aforeſaid, is hereby required to open ſuch Warehouſe, and attend the Examination, racking, or other Operation to be performed upon ſuch Wine accordingly: Provided not more than One Warehouſe belonging to any ſuch Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors, be opened at one and the ſame Time; any Thing herein to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Not more than One Warehouſe belonging to any Proprietor to be opened at the ſame Time.

As ſoon as any ſuch Wine ſhall be drawn off into another Caſk, the Officer ſhall take an Account of the Content, and the Proprietors ſhall cut the Number and Content in the Head.

IX. And be it further enacted, That as ſoon as any Wine ſhall, in any ſuch Warehouſe as aforeſaid, have been racked or drawn off from One Pipe or Caſk into any other Pipe or Caſk, the proper Officer of Exciſe, if in Great Britain, or other proper Officer, if in Ireland, ſhall immediately proceed to gauge, aſcertain, and take Account of the Content of every ſuch Pipe or Caſk, and of the Quantity of Wine contained in the ſame; and the Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors of ſuch Wine, ſhall thereupon cut, or cauſe the Number and Content thereof to be cut, in the Head of every ſuch Pipe or Caſk, under the Inſpection, and according to the Direction of ſuch Officer.

Caſks of Wine may be filled up from any other of the ſame Kind of Wine in Preſence of the proper Officer.

X. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors of any Wine ſo put or depoſited in any ſuch Warehouſe as aforeſaid, at any Time before Payment of Duty for the ſame, to cauſe any Ullage, Pipe, or Caſk of Wine, to be filled up in the Preſence of the proper Officer of Exciſe, if in Great Britain, or other proper Officer, if in Ireland, from any other Pipe or Caſk of the ſame Species of Wine, which ſhall be then remaining in ſuch Warehouſe.

Foreign Brandy for preſerving Wine, may be depoſited in Warehouſes with it, in certain Quantities, if accompanied with a Permit, and of a certain Degree of Strength.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any ſuch Wine ſo warehouſed as aforeſaid, to lodge and depoſit in any ſuch Warehouſe, at any Time or Times, ſuch Quantity of Foreign Brandy as ſhall be deemed neceſſary to preſerve or improve the Wine depoſited therein, not exceeding in the Whole the Proportion of Eight Gallons of ſuch Brandy for each and every Pipe or reputed Pipe of Wine that ſhall be put or depoſited in ſuch Warehouſe: Provided always, That all ſuch Brandy ſhall be accompanied with a regular and authentic Exciſe Permit, and that the ſame ſhall not be of any lower Degree of Strength than that of One to Fifteen over Hydrometer Proof.

XII. And

XII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any ſuch Wine ſo depoſited in any ſuch Warehouſe or Warehouſes as aforeſaid, at any Time during which the ſaid Wine may lawfully remain in any ſuch Warehouſe, without Payment of the Duty thereon, to mix a certain Portion of ſuch Brandy as aforeſaid therewith, not exceeding Eight Gallons of ſuch Brandy to each Pipe or reputed Pipe of ſuch Wine; provided always, that ſuch Mixture be made in the Preſence, and taken Account of by the proper Officer of Exciſe, if in Great Britain, or other proper Officer, if in Ireland.

A certain Portion of ſuch Brandy may be mixed with warehouſed Wine, in Preſence of the Officer.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons whatever, ſhall be permitted to receive, remove, or take out of any ſuch Warehouſe or Warehouſes, except in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, any leſs Quantity than Ten Pipes, or reputed Pipes, of ſuch Wine at any One Time, ſave and except ſuch Quantity as may happen to remain in any ſuch Warehouſe to be laſt delivered; in which Caſe it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon, being legally entitled to the ſame, to receive, remove, or take the ſame from or out of any ſuch Warehouſe, although the Quantity thereof ſhould not, in the Whole, be equal to Ten Pipes, or reputed Pipes.

No warehouſed Wine to be taken out, except in Ireland, in leſs Quantity than Ten Pipes.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Duties for all Wine, warehouſed under the Authority of this Act, ſhall be computed and paid according to the Quantity delivered or taken away from any ſuch Warehouſe, without any Deduction or Abatement for or in reſpect of any Brandy which may or ſhall have been mixed with any ſuch Wine, or for or in reſpect of any Sediment, Lees, Bottoms, or Dregs of Wine or otherwiſe, any Thing in this Act to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding: Provided always, That, out of the Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe for the laſt Quantity of Wine which ſhall remain to be delivered from or out of any ſuch Warehouſe, there ſhall be deducted the Duties on ſo many Gallons of Wine as ſhall be equal to the Quantity of Brandy taken account of by the proper Officer as having been mixed in his Preſence with the whole Quantity of Wine, which, under the Authority and Direction, and according to the Regulations of this Act, ſhall have been put or depoſited in any ſuch Warehouſe, and mixed with ſuch Wine as aforeſaid.

Duties to be paid according to the Quantity taken out of Warehouſe, and out of the Duties on the laſt Quantity, a Deduction ſhall be made equal to the Quantity of Brandy mixed with the Whole.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if, on clearing any ſuch Warehouſe as aforeſaid, it ſhall appear to the Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms and Exciſe reſpectively, from the Returns or Reports of the Officers of Exciſe, that, by unavoidable Leekage and Waſte, and by Sediment, Lees, Bottoms, or Dregs of Wine, for which the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors ſhall refuſe or decline to pay the Duties, there is an actual Deficiency of the Quantity of Wine depoſited in any ſuch Warehouſe, according to the Gauge of the reſpective Officers on the landing and at the Time of depoſiting the Wine in ſuch Warehouſe, adding to ſuch gauged Quantity and including therewith the Quantity of Brandy actually and bonâ fide mixed with ſuch Wine as aforeſaid; that then and in every ſuch Caſe the reſpective Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms and Exciſe ſhall and they are hereby empowered and required to ſet off or allow to the Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors of ſuch Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms and Exciſe may allow the Amount of Duties for the Deficiency, by Waſte and refuſed Dregs, of the Quantity of Wine warehouſed, not exceeding a certain Proportion.

Wine, a Sum equal to the Amount of the Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe reſpectively, for the Deficiency: Provided always, That no Allowance ſhall be made beyond the Deficiency which ſhall have actually and unavoidably happened or occurred through Leekage or Waſte and refuſed Sediment, Lees, Bottoms, or Dregs of Wine; nor ſhall any Allowance be made on account of Leekage, Waſte, or refuſed Sediment, Lees, Bottoms, or Dregs of Wine, beyond or exceeding the Proportion of Five Gallons in every One hundred and forty Gallons of the whole Quantity of Wine, computed upon the Officer's Gauge, that ſhall have been put or depoſited in any ſuch Warehouſe as aforeſaid.

If refuſed Dregs ſhall remain after all Duties are paid, or after Two Years from warehouſing the Wine, they may be deſtroyed.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any refuſed Sediment, Lees, Bottoms, or Dregs of Wine, ſhall remain in any ſuch Warehouſe, after all the Duties chargeable for the Wine ſhall be paid, or after the Expiration of Two Years from the Time ſuch Wine ſhall have been put or depoſited in ſuch Warehouſe, then and in ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, and they are hereby required and directed to cauſe all ſuch Sediment, Lees, Bottoms, or Dregs of Wine to be forthwith thrown away and entirely deſtroyed.

Importers to give a written Entry of certain Particulars to the Collectors of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe, of the Wine for which the Duties are propoſed to be paid, which ſhall be previouſly counterſigned by the Officer attending the Warehouſe; and the Collectors ſhall grant a Warrant for the Quantity for which the Duties ſhall be paid, on Production of which a Permit ſhall be granted.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That when the Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Wine depoſited in any ſuch Warehouſe as aforeſaid, ſhall be deſirous of paying the Duties on ſuch Wine, he or they ſhall give to the Collectors of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe reſpectively, an Entry in Writing, ſpecifying the Number of the Pipes or Caſks, and Number of, and alſo the Quantity of Wine contained in each, for which he or they ſhall intend or propoſe to pay the Duties; and every ſuch Entry, before preſented to the ſaid Collectors reſpectively, ſhall be counterſigned by the proper Officer of Exciſe, if in Great Britain, or other proper Officer if in Ireland, who ſhall be appointed or employed to attend the Warehouſe in which the Wine for which the Duty ſhall be propoſed to be paid, ſhall be put or depoſited, and thereupon the reſpective Collectors aforeſaid ſhall compute and receive the Duties repectively, and ſhall, without Fee or Reward, ſeverally grant and give to the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors of ſuch Wine, a Warrant expreſſing the Numbers of the Pipes or Caſks of Wine, and the Quantity of Wine contained in each, and in the Whole, for which the full Duties ſhall have been paid; and upon the Production of ſuch Warrants, the proper Officer of Exciſe, if in Great Britain, or other proper Officer, if in Ireland, having Charge of the Warehouſe in which the Wine ſpecified in ſuch Warrants ſhall be lodged or depoſited, ſhall ſuffer and allow the ſame to be delivered and taken away, and the proper Officer of Exciſe, if in Great Britain, or other proper Officer, if in Ireland, ſhall alſo give and grant to the Perſon or Perſons entitled to take away and receive ſuch Wine, a regular and authentic Permit for the ſame.

Officers on giving One Hour's Notice may at any Time take an Account of the Wine, &c. in Warehouſe.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe ſhall, at all Times, upon giving one Hour's Notice to the Proprietor or Occupier of any ſuch Warehouſe, be permitted to have free Acceſs and Entry into the ſame, and ſhall alſo be permitted to examine, gauge, and take Account of the Wine, Brandy, or other Articles or Commodities therein.

XIX. And

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatever ſhall wilfully open, break, force, or damage any Lock or Locks, or other Faſtening to or upon any ſuch Warehouſe as aforeſaid, or ſhall clandeſtinely or privately enter or gain Admittance into any ſuch Warehouſe, contrary to the Directions and the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or without Notice to and without the Conſent and Preſence of the proper Officer of Exciſe, if in Great Britain, or other proper Officer, if in Ireland; or if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall privately or fraudulently embezzle, hide, conceal, remove, carry, or convey away any Wine or Brandy put or depoſited in any ſuch Warehouſe, or ſhall carry or convey into or conceal in any ſuch Warehouſe any Water or other Liquor whatſoever, ſuch Brandy as aforeſaid excepted, every Perſon or Perſons ſo offending ſhall, for each and every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Penalty of 200*l.* for opening Locks, clandeſtinely entering Warehouſes, embezzling Wine or Brandy, or concealing any Water, etc.

XX. And be it further enacted, That all Wine, not being actual Sediment, Lees, Bottoms, or Dregs of Wine, which ſhall be remaining in any Warehouſe, after the End and Expiration of Two Years from the Day on which the ſame ſhall have been firſt put and depoſited therein, ſhall, under the Direction of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, be publickly ſold to the beſt Bidder, for and towards defraying the Duties, Coſts, and Charges; and the Proceeds of ſuch Sale ſhall be applied and paid as follows; that is to ſay, out of ſuch Proceeds there ſhall be firſt paid the Coſts and Charges attending the Cuſtody and Sale of the ſaid Wine; ſecondly, out of the ſaid Proceeds ſhall be paid to the reſpective Collectors of Cuſtoms ſo much Money as will be ſufficient to ſatisfy the Cuſtom Duties for and in reſpect of ſuch Wine; and thirdly, out of the ſaid Proceeds ſhall be paid to the reſpective Collectors of Exciſe ſo much Money as will be ſufficient to ſatisfy the Exciſe Duties for and in reſpect of ſuch Wine; and laſtly, the Overplus (if any be) ſhall be paid to the Importer or Importers, or Proprietor or Proprietors of ſuch Wine; but if the Proceeds of the Sale of ſuch Wine ſhall not, in each and every Caſe, be ſufficient to ſatisfy the whole Duties, both of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, and alſo the Coſts and Charges of the Cuſtody and Sale thereof, then and in ſuch Caſe the Amount of ſuch Deficiency ſhall be ſatisfied and paid by the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors of ſuch Wine.

Wine remaining more than Two Years in Warehouſes ſhall be ſold, and the Proceeds applied as herein directed; and if inſufficient to ſatisfy the Duties, etc. the Deficiency ſhall be paid by the Importer or Proprietor of the Wine.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe reſpectively, in England, Scotland, and Ireland reſpectively, to forbear, if they ſhall ſee Cauſe ſo to do, to put in Suit any Bond by this Act directed to be given or entered into, upon ſuch Terms and Conditions as to the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners ſhall ſeem meet.

The Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe may forbear to put Bonds in Suit.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon ſhall counterfeit, forge, or alter, or cauſe to be counterfeited, forged, or altered, any Entry, Warrant, or Permit, in any Caſe in which an Entry, Warrant, or Permit is by this Act required to be uſed, given, or granted, every Perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit Five hundred Pounds.

Penalty of 500*l.* for forging or altering any Entry, Warrant, or Permit.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall reſiſt, oppoſe, moleſt, hinder, or obſtruct any Officer or ficers in the Execution of this Act.

Penalty of 200*l.* for obſtructing Officers

Officers of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, in the due Execution of this Act, every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo offending ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures impoſed by this Act, in relation to the Duties of Exciſe, ſhall be ſued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by ſuch Ways, Means, or Methods as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture may be ſued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland reſpectively; and that One Moiety of every ſuch Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture ſhall be to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them who will inform, diſcover, or ſue for the ſame.
