

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO SECUNDO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CAP. VI.

An Act to rectify a Miſtake in an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty a certain Sum of Money for the Service of Great Britain, to be raiſed by a Lottery, and to amend ſo much of the ſaid Act as relates to the Commencement of the Drawing of the ſaid Lottery. [11th December 1801.]

WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in the Forty-firſt Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty a certain Sum of Money for the Service of Great Britain, to be raiſed by a Lottery, it is enacted, That Eighteen thouſand one hundred and eighty-nine Tickets in the ſaid Lottery ſhould be and be called fortunate Tickets: And whereas it was intended that Eighteen thouſand one hundred and eighty-five Tickets, and no more, ſhould be and be called fortunate Tickets, for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament

41 Geo. 3. c. 27.

Instead of 18,189, as mentioned by the recited Act, 18,185 only shall be called the fortunate Tickets.

Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Act as directs and requires that Eighteen thousand one hundred and eighty-nine of the Tickets in the said Act described and mentioned, should be and be called the fortunate Tickets, shall be repealed, and that instead and in lieu thereof, Eighteen thousand one hundred and eighty-five Tickets only of the said Tickets, part of the Sixty thousand Tickets in the said recited Act mentioned, shall be and be called the fortunate Tickets, and shall be written upon or expressed as such, and that Forty-one thousand eight hundred and fifteen Tickets, being the Residue of the said Sixty thousand Tickets, shall be and be called blank Tickets; and all and every the Clauses and Provisions, Regulations and Directions of the said recited Act, shall be construed as if Eighteen thousand one hundred and eighty-five Tickets only had been in and by the said Act directed and required to be and be called fortunate Tickets, and Forty-one thousand eight hundred and fifteen Tickets had been thereby directed to be and be called blank Tickets; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

On or before Mar. 1, 1802, (instead of Mar. 3), the Managers shall cause the Boxes with the Tickets to be brought into some convenient Place, and give 14 Days Notice thereof in the London Gazette, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as directs that the Managers and Directors in the said Act mentioned shall cause the several Boxes in the said Act mentioned, with all the Tickets therein, to be brought into some convenient Hall or Place within the City of London, on or before the Third Day of March One thousand eight hundred and two, and that Notice thereof shall be published in the London Gazette Fourteen Days at the least before the said Third Day of March, shall be repealed, and that the said Managers and Directors shall on or before the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and two, in lieu and instead of the said Third Day of March in the said recited Act mentioned, do and perform, and cause to be done and performed, all and every the Acts, Matters, and Things, in and by the said Act required to be done, on or before the said Third Day of March, and shall publish in Manner in the said Act mentioned, such Notice as in the said Act mentioned, Fourteen Days at least before the said First Day of March; and all and every the Clauses, Provisions, Regulations, and Directions of the said recited Act shall be construed as if the said First Day of March had been mentioned in the said Act instead and in lieu of the said Third Day of March; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

LONDON: Printed by GEORGE EYRE and ANDREW STRAHAN, Printers to the King's most Excellent Majesty. 1801.