

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO TERTIO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CAP. CXXIV.

An Act to rectify a Miſtake in an Act, made in the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, for raiſing an additional Military Force in Scotland; and for exempting Perſons ſerving therein, either perſonally or by Subſtitute, from being ballotted to ſerve in the Militia of Scotland. [11th Auguſt 1803.]

WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act to enable His Majeſty more effectually to raiſe and aſſemble an additional Military Force in Scotland, for the better Defence and Security of the United Kingdom, and for the more vigorous Proſecution of the War, it is among other Things enacted, that certain Perſons therein mentioned ſhould not be liable to ſerve perſonally or to provide a Subſtitute to ſerve in the Army directed to be raiſed by virtue of the ſaid Act, unleſs by Rotation it ſhould have come to the Turn of any ſuch Perſon to be again ballotted for: And whereas it was alſo intended, that no Perſon who has ſerved perſonally or by Subſtitute in the Militia raiſed by virtue of any Act or Acts relating to the Militia ſhould be liable to ſerve perſonally or provide a Subſtitute to ſerve in the Army directed to be raiſed by virtue of the ſaid recited Act, and that the ſaid recited Words in the ſaid recited Act, videlicet, (unleſs by Rotation it ſhould have come to the Turn of any ſuch Perſon to be again ballotted for), were meant only to apply to ſuch Perſons who have ſo ſerved; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent c. 83.

Persons serving personally or by Substitute in the Militia not liable to serve in the Army raised under the recited Act, unless by Rotation it shall come to their Turn, etc.

sent Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Person who has served personally or by Substitute in the Militia raised by virtue of any Act or Acts relating to the Militia shall be liable to serve personally or to provide a Substitute to serve in the Army directed to be raised by virtue of the said recited Act, unless by Rotation it shall have come to the Turn of any such Person to be again ballotted for; and that the said recited Act and this Act shall be construed in the same Manner as if the Persons hereby exempted had been exempted by the said recited Act, in the Manner in which they are exempted by this Act; and that the Words in the said Act above recited shall be deemed and taken to be applicable only to the Persons hereby exempted.

And Persons serving personally or by Substitute in the said Army shall not be ballotted for the Militia.

II. And whereas it is expedient that Persons serving or who shall have found Substitutes to serve in the Army directed to be raised by virtue of the said recited Act should not be ballotted to serve or to supply any Vacancy in the Militia of Scotland; be it therefore enacted, That no Person enrolled and serving or who shall have found any Substitute to serve in the Army directed to be raised under the said recited Act shall be liable, during the Continuance of the said Act, to be ballotted to serve or to find any Substitute to serve in the Militia of Scotland; any Thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

LONDON: Printed by George Eyre and Andrew Strahan, Printers to the King's most Excellent Majesty. 1803.