

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO TERTIO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

Act not to extend to Duties granted by 43 Geo. 3. c. 3. or the Duties upon Malt, Tobacco, and Snuff, continued by 43 Geo. 3. c. 4. except as to the Duties on Tobacco Licences, and on Tobacco of Spain and Portugal:

construed to extend, to repeal or in anywise alter the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, granted by an Act of Parliament made in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing and granting to His Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and three; or the Duties upon Malt, Tobacco, and Snuff, continued by an Act of the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing and granting to His Majesty a Duty on Pensions, Offices, and Personal Estates in England, Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed; and certain Duties on Sugar, Malt, Tobacco, and Snuff, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and three, save and except as to the Duties in the said last recited Act granted on Licences to be taken out by the Manufacturers of and Dealers in Tobacco and Snuff, and also as to the Duties in the said Act granted on Tobacco, of the Growth, Production, and Manufacture of the Plantations or Dominions of Spain and Portugal, delivered for Exportation: Provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal or anywise alter the Countervailing Duties of Excise, upon the Importation of Goods and Commodities from Ireland into Great Britain, granted by an Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Drawbacks payable on Goods exported from Great Britain to Ireland according to the last mentioned Act, save and except the Countervailing Duties and Drawbacks granted by the said last recited Act, for and in respect of Beer, Ale, and Mum, Bricks and Tiles, Cyder and Perry, Hops, Mead or Metheglin, Spirits, Vellum and Parchment, Gilt and Silver Wire, and Gold and Silver Thread, Lace, or Fringe.

Not extend to the Countervailing Duties on Importation from Ireland, &c. except on certain Articles.

From July 5, 1803, the Duties in the annexed Schedules, A. and B. shall be levied, and the Drawbacks in the Schedule C. allowed in lieu of those which are to ceale, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, in lieu and instead of the said Duties of Excise, and other Duties under the Management of the said Commissioners of Excise respectively by this Act repealed, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon the several Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Commodities mentioned and described in the Schedules, marked A. and B. hereunto annexed, and for the Sales by Auction, and for and upon the Licences mentioned in the said Schedule marked A. the several Sums of Money and Duties of Excise as they are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in the said Schedules; and that there shall be made, allowed, and paid for or in respect of Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Commodities, for or in respect of which any Duty of Excise is imposed, to the several Persons entitled to the same, the several Allowances, Bounties, and Drawbacks of Excise, as the same are also respectively inserted, described, and set forth in the Schedule marked C. hereunto annexed; and also all other such special Allowances as are particularly directed to be made by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on and immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, except so far as any such special Allowances may be altered, varied, or repealed by this Act.

Duties to be under the Management

III. And be it further enacted, That such of the Duties of Excise, by this Act imposed, as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in England, for the Time being; and such thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, for the Time being; and that the same shall be accounted for, cleared off, paid, satisfied, and discharged by the Person and Persons liable to the accounting for, clearing off, Payment, Satisfaction, or Discharge thereof, at such Time and Times, and in such Manner as the hereby repealed Duties of Excise and other Duties under the Management of the said Commissioners of Excise respectively chargeable in the like Cases, or upon the like Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Commodities respectively, or upon any Person or Persons for or in respect thereof, were, by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on and immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, to be accounted for, cleared off, paid, satisfied, or discharged.

of the respective Commissioners of Excise, and shall be accounted for as the repealed Duties.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said several Sums of Money respectively inserted, described, and set forth in the said Schedules hereunto annexed, marked A. and B., as the Duties of Excise, and the Allowances, Bounties, and Drawbacks of the Duties of Excise upon the several Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or Commodities inserted in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked C., or mentioned in this Act, shall and may be respectively raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered, adjudged, mitigated, and allowed (except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act), in such and the like Manner, and in or by any or either of the general or special Means, Ways, or Methods, by which the former Duties of Excise, and other Duties under the Management of the said Commissioners of Excise respectively, and the Allowances, Bounties, and Drawbacks of Duties of Excise, and other Duties under the Management of the said Commissioners of Excise respectively, were or might be raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered, adjudged, mitigated, and allowed, and the several Persons, and the Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or Commodities, by this Act respectively made liable to the Payment of, or chargeable with Duties of Excise, or entitled to Allowances, Bounties, or Drawbacks of Duties of Excise, as respectively inserted, described, and set forth in the said Schedules hereunto annexed, marked A., B., and C., shall be, and the same are hereby made subject and liable to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, and Restrictions, to which such Persons, Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or Commodities, were generally or specially subject and liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on and immediately before the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, respecting the Duties of Excise, or other Duties under the Management of the said Commissioners of Excise respectively, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act, or by any other Act or Acts of this Session of Parliament; and all and every Pain, Penalty, Fine, or Forfeiture, of any Nature or Kind whatever, as well Pains of Death as others, for any Offence whatever committed against or in Breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on and immediately before the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, for securing the Revenue of Excise, or other Duties under the Management of the said Commissioners of Excise respectively, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof; and the several Clauses, Powers, and Directions therein contained (unless where expressly altered by this Act), shall, and are Duties and Drawbacks under this Act to be levied, &c. as former Duties, &c. unless hereby altered.

are hereby directed and declared to extend to, and ſhall be reſpectively applied, practiſed, and put in Execution, for and in reſpect of the ſeveral Duties of Exciſe hereby charged and allowed, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, as if all and every the ſaid Acts, Clauſes, Proviſions, Powers, Directions, Fines, Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

Duties to be paid in Proportion to the actual Quantity.

V. And be it further enacted, That in all Caſes where any Duty is impoſed by this Act on any ſpecifick Quantity of Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, the ſame ſhall be underſtood, and deemed and taken to apply, in the ſame Proportion, and after the ſame Rate, to any Quantity greater or leſs than ſuch ſpecifick Quantity.

Duties to be carried to the Conſolidated Fund of Great Britain.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies ariſing by the Duties by this Act impoſed, the neceſſary Charges of raiſing and accounting for the ſame excepted, ſhall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer at Weſtminſter, and ſhall be carried to and make Part of the Conſolidated Fund of Great Britain.

The whole of the Duties, except otherwiſe hereby provided, ſhall be entered in one Account at the Exchequer, and the Treaſury ſhall cauſe diſtinct Accounts of ſuch as were to be kept ſeparate for 10 Years from being granted, to be ſo kept and laid before Parliament.

VII. And whereas, by divers Acts for granting ſeveral of the Duties hereby repealed, it is provided, that, during the Space of Ten Years then next enſuing, there ſhould be provided and kept, in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies ariſing from the ſaid reſpective Duties ſhould, together with ſuch other Duties which were reſpectively granted for the Purpoſe of making a permanent Addition to the publick Revenue, and of defraying any Charge occaſioned by certain Loans made and Stocks created by Authority of Parliament, be entered ſeparate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, upon any Account whatſoever: And whereas it is expedient that the Whole of the Duties by this Act granted (except where ſpecial Proviſion is otherwiſe made by this Act), ſhould be entered in One Account, but that Proviſion ſhould nevertheleſs be hereby made for aſcertaining the Produce of ſuch ſeveral Grants of Duties for the Remainder of ſuch reſpective Periods, be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and three, the Whole of the Duties of Exciſe granted by this Act ſhall be entered together in One Account; and that, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and three, the Lord High Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three or more of them, for the Time being, ſhall, for and during the Remainder of the reſpective Periods of Ten Years, to be computed from the Time of granting ſuch of the ſaid Duties as aforeſaid as were ſo directed to be entered ſeparately as aforeſaid, cauſe ſeparate and diſtinct Accounts of what ſuch Duties would have amounted to, in caſe the ſame had not been and were not reſpectively hereby conſolidated and collected with other Duties of Exciſe, to be made out in ſuch Manner and Form as ſhall appear to the Lord High Treaſurer, or the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, beſt adapted to aſcertain ſuch Amounts reſpectively; which Accounts the ſaid Lord High Treaſurer or Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, are hereby required to cauſe to be laid before Parliament, together with the publick Accounts directed to be laid before Parliament pursuant to the Provisions of an Act, passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for directing certain publick Accounts to be laid annually before Parliament; and for discontinuing certain other Forms of Account now in Use. 42 Geo. 3. c. 70.

VIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to make void, alter, or prejudice, any Disposition, Appropriation, Appointment, Matter, or Thing whatsoever, relative to the regular and usual Payment of any Pension or Annuity charged and made payable to any Person or Persons in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or by virtue of any Grants or Letters Patent, made or granted by any of His Majesty's Royal Predecessors, Kings or Queens of this Realm, but that the same Dispositions, Appropriations, and Appointments, shall continue, be in Force, and take Effect in the Payment of all and every the Annuities and Pensions payable by the Commissioners or Receivers General of the Duties and Revenues of Excise, in the same Manner, and at the same Time and Times, that the said Annuities and Pensions have been usually paid before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three. Act not to affect Pensions payable by the Commissioners, &c. of Excise.

IX. And be it also further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to affect or alter the hereditary Revenue of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Scotland, or other Revenue then granted to His late Majesty King George the Second during his Life, and renewed to His present Majesty during His Life, by an Act made in the First Year of His Majesty's Reign, or in any Manner divert the Payment of the several and respective Annuities, Bounties, and other Charges and Expences which, in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on and immediately before the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, have usually been, or ought to be satisfied and paid by the Commissioners of Excise out of the Monies arisen by the Duties and Revenues of Excise, or Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, but that the same shall and may, and are hereby directed and required, to be satisfied, paid, and discharged out of all or any of the said Monies arisen, or which shall hereafter arise by the said Duties and Revenues, and come into the Hands of the said Commissioners in the same and like Manner, and at the respective Times at which the same have usually been accustomed to be paid and satisfied; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding. Act not to alter the Hereditary Revenue of His Majesty in Scotland, or the Payment of Annuities, &c. out of the Revenues of Excise.

X. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, (amongst other Things), for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties, it was enacted, that, from and after the Demise of His Majesty, (whom God long preserve), the Sum of Seven thousand and two Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Three-pence out of the Monies arising by the new Duties on Licences to retail Wine, reserved by an Act of the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, should be paid and accounted for to the Heirs and Successors of His Majesty, in like Manner as they were before the passing of an Act of the First Year of His Majesty's Reign, The Sum reserved out of the Duties on Licences to retail Wine, by 30 Geo. 2. c. 19. shall be accounted for out of the Duties on such Licences granted by this Act.

intituled, An Act for the Support of His Majesty's Houſehold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain: And whereas the ſaid Duties on Wine Licences have been repealed, and certain Duties of Exciſe granted in lieu thereof, which, by the preſent Act, are alſo repealed; be it further enacted, That the aforeſaid Sum of Seven thouſand and two Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Three-pence ſhall, from and after the Demiſe of His Majeſty, (whom God long preſerve), be ſo reſerved, paid, and accounted for, out of the Duties by this Act granted on Licences to retail Foreign Wine, in like Manner as they are by the ſaid Act required to be reſerved, paid, and accounted for out of the like Duties hereby repealed.

The Amount of what would have been the hereditary Duties of Exciſe, ſhall be computed, ſet apart, and paid out of the Duties by this Act granted, as directed by 27 Geo. 3. c. 2.

XI. And whereas by the aforeſaid Act of the Twenty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, it was directed, that the Commiſſioners of Exciſe ſhould compute the exact Sums to which the Whole of the hereditary Duties of Exciſe, which, by an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His Majeſty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service and Purveyance; and for ſettling a Revenue upon His Majeſty in lieu thereof, and by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts of Parliament, were granted to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors for ever, would amount, if the ſame had not been repealed or altered by another Act of Parliament, made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty, granting a certain Sum out of the Aggregate Fund, in lieu of certain of the ſaid hereditary Duties; and that the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhould tranſmit an Account thereof quarterly, into the Receipt of the Exchequer; and alſo, that the proper Officers of the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer ſhould ſet apart, out of the Duties of Exciſe granted by the before mentioned Act of the Twenty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, at the End of every Quarter after the Demiſe of His preſent Majeſty, ſuch a Sum of Money as it ſhould appear by the ſaid Account the Whole of the ſaid hereditary Duties of Exciſe would have amounted to within ſuch Quarter, to be paid to the Succeſſors of the King's Majeſty for ever: And whereas the Duties granted by the ſaid Act of the Twenty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty are hereby repealed; be it therefore enacted, That the ſaid quarterly Sums ſhall be ſo computed, and ſhall be ſet apart and paid out of the Duties by this Act granted, in like Manner as they are by the ſaid Act directed to be computed and ſet apart out of the Duties of Exciſe hereby repealed.

12 Car. 2 c. 24.

XII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament paſſed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service and Purveyance; and for ſettling a Revenue upon His Majeſty in lieu thereof, it was enacted, that every Six-and-thirty Gallons of Beer ſhould be reckoned, accounted, and returned for a Barrel of Beer, and every Two-and-thirty Gallons of Ale for a Barrel of Ale; and that, in Conſideration of Waſte by Fillings and Leakage, all Common Brewers not ſelling Beer and Ale by Retail, ſhould be allowed Three Barrels upon every Twenty-three Barrels of Beer, and Two Barrels upon every Twenty-two Barrels of Ale out of the ſaid Returns made by the Gagers; and by another Act made in the Firſt Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for an additional Duty of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, it was enacted and declared, that for avoiding Uncertainties and Disputes, every Four-and-thirty Gallons of Beer and Ale brewed or made by the Brewers, Victuallers, or other Persons chargeable with the Duties of Excise other than within the Cities of London and Westminster, and the Weekly Bills of Mortality, should be reckoned and returned for a Barrel of Beer or Ale; and that the Allowances made to the Common Brewers other than within the said Cities and Limits, should be Two Barrels and a Half upon every Twenty-three Barrels: And whereas it is expedient that the Quantities to be returned as and for a Barrel of Beer or Ale brewed or made by the Common Brewer, and the Allowances for Waste, should be in all Places the same; be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, every Thirty-six Gallons of Beer or Ale brewed or made by the Common Brewers in Great Britain, whether within the Weekly Bills of Mortality or without the same, taken according to the Standard of the Ale Quart, Four whereof shall make the Gallon, remaining in the Custody of the Chamberlains of His Majesty's Exchequer, shall be reckoned, accounted, and returned by the Gager or Gagers, or other Officers of Excise, for a Barrel of Beer or Ale; and that the Allowances to be made in Great Britain to the Common Brewers not selling Beer, Ale, or Worts, in any less Quantity than a whole Cask containing Four Gallons and a Half, whether within or without the aforesaid Limits, for Waste by Fillings and Leakage of their Beer or Ale, or otherwise, out of the Returns or Charges made by the Gagers or other Officers, shall be Three Barrels upon every Thirty-six Barrels, both of Strong Beer and of Table Beer and Ale, and after that Rate for any greater or less Quantity; any Thing in the before mentioned Acts, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

From July 5, 1803, 36 Gallons shall be reckoned a Barrel of Beer or Ale, made by Common Brewers in Great Britain, and the Allowance shall be 3 Gallons out of that Quantity for Waste.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Allowance to the Common Brewer of Three Barrels upon every Thirty-six Barrels of Beer and Ale, shall be in full Compensation for all Waste or other Losses or Damages whatsoever.

Such Allowance to be in full for all Losses.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Beer or Ale, brewed by the Common Brewers in Great Britain, shall be sold by such Common Brewers at any other Rate or Quantity for the Barrel than the aforesaid Quantity of Thirty-six Gallons; any Law, Practice, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to alter or vary the Quantity to be returned as and for a Barrel of Beer or Ale brewed or made by any Victualler or Retailer, or by any Person other than the Common Brewer, who doth or shall sell or tap out Beer or Ale publickly or privately, but that the same shall be and remain as was enacted and declared by the aforesaid Act of the First Year of King William and Queen Mary, for an additional Duty of Excise on Beer, Ale, and other Liquors.

No Beer or Ale shall be sold by the Common Brewers at any other than the above Rate, but not to extend to other Brewers.

XV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to make void any Licence or Licences granted under or by virtue of any Law or Laws of Excise in force on Act not to make void Licences granted under any Law of Excise.

on or before the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and three, or to require or compel any Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Licence ſhall have been granted, to renew or take out any freſh Licence until the End and Expiration of the Term for which any ſuch Licence was granted; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Act may be altered or repealed this Seſſion.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That this Act, or any of the Proviſions thereof, may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act to be paſſed in this Seſſion of Parliament.
