ANNO QUADRAGESIMO QUINTO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CAP. CII.

An Act to revive and continue an Act made in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Pilchard Fishery, by allowing a further Bounty upon Pilchards taken, cured, and exported.

[10th July 1805.]

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Pilchard Fishery, by allowing a further Bounty upon Pilchards taken, cured, and exported, it is (among other Things) enacted, that for every Cask or Vessel of Pilchards containing Fifty Gallons, and so in Proportion for a less Quantity thereof, which should be exported from any Port or Place in Great Britain into Parts beyond the Seas, between the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and ninety-one and the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, upon which the Person or Persons exporting the same should be entitled to the Bounty of Seven Shillings by virtue of or under Two several Acts of the Fifth Year of the Reign of King George the First, and the Third Year of the Reign of King George the Second, therein mentioned, an additional Bounty of One Shilling and Sixpence should be paid and payable to the Person or Persons so entitled to the said Bounty of Seven Shillings, at such Times, in such Manner, by such Person and Persons, and out of such Monies as the said Bounty of Seven Shillings was by the same last-mentioned Acts or either of them directed to be paid; which ſaid Act of the Thirty-firſt Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, and the Bounty thereby granted were, by another Act made in the Thirty-ſeventh Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, continued for the further Term of Seven Years from the ſaid Twenty-fourth Day of June One thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight: And whereas the ſaid Fiſhery is of great Importance to the Nation, by promoting uſeful Induſtry, providing for great Numbers of poor People, and ſerving as a Nurſery for able Seamen; but the ſame cannot be carried on with Succeſs, unleſs the ſaid Act, paſſed in the Thirty-ſeventh Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, is revived, and the ſaid additional Bounty of One Shilling and Sixpence further continued: May it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid recited Act of the Thirty-firſt Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, and the additional Bounty thereby granted, and every Clauſe, Proviſion, Article, Matter, and Thing therein contained, ſhall be and the ſame is and are hereby declared to be revived from and immediately after the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thouſand eight hundred and five, and ſhall continue for and during the further Term of Seven Years from the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thouſand eight hundred and five, and ſhall, during ſuch further Term, be in full Force and be put in Execution as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame, and the ſeveral Clauſes, Proviſions, Articles, Matters, and Things therein contained, were herein repeated and re-enacted.

Recited Act of 31 G. 3. c. 45, revived and continued for Seven Years.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Coſts and Charges incident to and attending the obtaining and paſſing of this Act, ſhall be borne, paid, and defrayed, by the ſeveral Perſons to whom the ſaid additional Bounty of One Shilling and Sixpence ſhall be payable and paid, rateably and in Proportion, according to the Sum or Sums of Money ſo by them reſpectively received, but not exceeding One Shilling and Sixpence on each Caſk or Veſſel of Pilchards containing Fifty Gallons, any Law, Statute, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Expence of paſſing this Act provided for.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Publick Act, and ſhall be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch, by all Judges, Juſtices, and others whomſoever, without being ſpecially pleaded.

Publick Act.
