

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO QUINTO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act to make valid certain Licences granted by virtue of an Order in Council for allowing the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods and Merchandize from and to Spain in Neutral Veſſels; and for indemnifying all Perſons concerned in adviſing ſuch Order, or granting or acting under ſuch Licences. [10th April 1805.]

WHEREAS, before the Commencement of the preſent Hoſtilities with his Catholic Majeſty, it was deemed expedient, by Order in Council, to recommend to His Majeſty to grant Licences under His Sign Manual for permitting the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, from or to Ports and Places in France, Spain, and Holland, in Neutral Ships; which Order and Licences, ſo far as they related to permitting the Importation and Exportation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, from or to Ports or Places in Spain, were not authorized by Law, but were neceſſary, under the Circumſtances that then exiſted: Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That every Importation or Exportation of Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, from or to any Ports or Places

Licences granted in purſuance of an Order in Council allowing the Importation and Exportation of Goods from or to Spain shall be valid.

Places in Spain, made by virtue of any such Order in Council, or of any Licences granted in pursuance thereof, shall be deemed and taken to be good in Law; and all Persons concerned in advising, issuing, or carrying into Execution the same, shall be, and are hereby indemnified accordingly; any Thing in any Act now in force to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.
