

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO QUINTO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CAP. LXIX.

An Act for veſting in the Barrack Maſter General for the Time being, Eſtates, held or occupied for the Barrack Service; and authorizing him to ſell the ſame, with the Conſent of the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury. [27th June 1805.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which have at various Times been purchaſed for the Service of the Barrack Department, or which are now held by or veſted in the late Barrack Maſter General, or the preſent Barrack Maſter General, or any other Perſon or Perſons for the Uſe of the ſaid Service; and alſo that all Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which may hereafter be purchaſed for the ſaid Service, ſhould be veſted in the Barrack Maſter General for the Time being, and his Succeſſors in the ſaid Office, in Truſt for His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Service, or for ſuch other Publick Service or Services as His Majeſty may from Time to Time direct: And whereas it may become expedient, from Time to Time, to ſell ſuch of the ſaid Meſſuages, Lands, and Hereditaments now veſted in the Barrack Maſter General, or any other Perſon or Perſons, or which may hereafter be purchaſed for the Service of the ſaid Department, as may not be required for ſuch Service, or for any other Publick Service or Services; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, all and ſingular the Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which have been conveyed to or are now veſted in Lieutenant General Oliver De Lancey late Barrack Maſter General, or Lieutenant General George Hewitt now Barrack Maſter General, or any other Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, for the Service of the Barrack Department, and all Erections and Buildings which now are or which ſhall be hereafter erected and built thereon, together with the Rights, Members, Eaſements, and Appurtenances to the ſame reſpectively belonging, (other than and except ſuch Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, as may be of Copyhold Tenure), and, from and after the Purchaſe and Conveyance, Grant or Demiſe thereof, all other Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter be purchaſed by the Barrack Maſter General for the Time being, for the Service of the Barrack Department, and all Erections and Buildings, which now are or which ſhall be hereafter erected and built thereon, with the Rights, Members, Eaſements, and Appurtenances to the ſame reſpectively belonging, ſhall be and become and remain and continue veſted in the Barrack Maſter General for the Time being, and his Succeſſors in the ſaid Office, according to the Nature and Quality and Eſtate and Intereſt of and in the ſame Hereditaments and Premiſes reſpectively; and that upon the Death, Reſignation, or Removal of the preſent and every future Barrack Maſter General, all ſuch Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments reſpectively (other than and except as aforeſaid) ſhall become veſted in and be held by the ſucceeding Barrack Maſter General, and ſo in perpetual Succeſſion according to the Nature and Quality and Eſtate and Intereſt of and in the ſame reſpectively, in Truſt for His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, for the Service of the Barrack Dapartment, or for ſuch other Publick Service or Services as His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall from Time to Time be pleaſed to direct.

The Meſſuages and Premiſes veſted in the late and preſent Barrack Maſter General, &c. for the Barrack Department, and all other Meſſuages and Premiſes hereafter to be purchaſed for that Department, ſhall be veſted in the Barrack Maſter General for the Time being.

II. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Barrack Maſter General for the Time being, with the Conſent and Approbation of the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three or more of them (ſuch Conſent and Approbation to be certified by One of the Secretaries to the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners, by Writing under his Hand and Seal) to ſell and diſpoſe of any of the Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which ſhall be veſted in the ſaid Barrack Maſter General for the Time being, with their reſpective Appurtenances, either by publick Auction or private Contract, and in due Form of Law to convey, aſſign, and make over the ſame to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be willing to purchaſe the ſame reſpectively.

Barrack Maſter General with Conſent of the Treaſury may ſell ſuch Premiſes.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Monies to ariſe and be produced by the Sale of any of the ſaid Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which ſhall be ſold under the Proviſions of this preſent Act, ſhall be paid by the reſpective Purchaſer or Purchaſers thereof into the Bank of England, and ſhall be there placed to the Account of the Barrack Maſter General for the Time being of His Majeſty's Forces, or to ſuch other
