ANNO QUADRAGESIMO QUINTO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

C A P. XCIX.

An Act for regulating and encouraging the Trade, for the Improvement of the Revenue, and Prevention of Smuggling to and from the Isle of Man.

[10th July 1805.]

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to His 20 G. 3. c. 42. Majesty several additional Duties upon certain Goods imported into the Isle of Man, and for better regulating the Trade and securing the Revenues of the said Island: And whereas a Report was made by certain Commissioners appointed by His Majesty to investigate certain Points relating to the Isle of Man, which Report was, by Command of His Majesty, laid before both Houses of Parliament: And whereas an Act, founded on the said Report, was passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Encouragement of the 38 G. 3. c. 63. Trade and Manufactures of the Isle of Man, for improving the Revenue thereof, and for the more effectual Prevention of Smuggling to and from the said Island; and which Act was to continue in force until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and one, and was, by an Act, passed in the Forty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, amended and further continued until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and two: And whereas the Provisions of the said temporary Acts have fully answered the Purposes thereof, and been found highly beneficial, and have therefore been continued by subsequent Acts until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and five: And whereas the Lords

Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury have, under the Powers veſted in them by the ſaid Acts, allowed the Importation of Spirits in different Proportions than are ſpecified in the ſaid recited Acts, and of greater Quantities of ſome of the other Articles imported into the ſaid Iſland under Licence: And whereas it is expedient that the Regulations of the ſaid Acts ſhould now be made permanent, and the Duties granted by the ſeveral Acts be conſolidated, and that the Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively ſhould be authorized to licenſe the Importation into the ſaid Iſland, of the Quantities of licenſed Articles heretofore imported under the Authority of the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, under the ſaid Acts; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and five, it ſhall be lawful for the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively, or any Four of them, and they are hereby required (if the ſame ſhall be lawfully demanded under the Authority of this Act ſo to do), to grant their Licences, to be in force until the Fifth Day of July ſucceeding the granting of ſuch Licences, for the Importation into the Port of Douglas, in the Iſle of Man, but to no other, in Britiſh built Ships, owned, navigated, and regiſtered according to Law, and not of leſs Burthen than Fifty Tons, of the Quantities of Wine, Brandy, and Geneva, following, from any Port or Place whatever; (that is to ſay), One hundred and ten Tons of Wine, Ten thouſand Gallons of Foreign Brandy, and Ten thouſand Gallons of Foreign Geneva, and no more; and of the Quantities of Rum, Tea, Coffee, and Tobacco following, from England and Scotland reſpectively; (that is to ſay), Forty thouſand Gallons of Rum from England, and Twenty thouſand Gallons of Rum from Scotland, Fifty thouſand Pounds of Bohea Tea, Five thouſand Pounds of Green Tea, and Six thouſand Pounds of Coffee, and Sixty thouſand Pounds of Tobacco from England, and no more, in any One Year, ſuch Tobacco to be exported only from Ports in England where Tobacco is allowed by Law to be imported and warehouſed.

Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms may grant Licences for the Importation into the Port of Douglas of certain Quantities of Wine, Brandy, and Geneva, and from Great Britain certain Quantities of Rum, Tea, Coffee, and Tobacco, in Britiſh-built Veſſels of not leſs than 50 Tons Burthen.

II. And be it further enacted, That on the Importation, under any Licences, of any Wine, Brandy, Geneva, Rum, Tea, Coffee, or Tobacco, into the ſaid Port of Douglas, in the Iſle of Man, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, unto His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, the reſpective Duties following, and no more; (that is to ſay), Duties to be paid on Importation.

For every Tun of French Wine, containing Two hundred and fifty two Gallons, the Sum of Sixteen Pounds:
For every Tun of other Wine, containing Two hundred and Fifty-two Gallons, the Sum of Twelve Pounds:
For every Gallon of Foreign Brandy, the Sum of Three Shillings:
For every Gallon of Foreign Geneva, the Sum of Three Shillings:
For every Pound Weight of Bohea Tea, the Sum of Sixpence:
For every Pound Weight of Green Tea, the Sum of One Shilling:
For every Pound Weight of Coffee, the Sum of Four-pence:
For every Pound Weight of Tobacco, the Sum of Sixpence:

And ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity; any Thing in any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithſtanding.

III. And

Duties to be paid in ready Money, without Discount, and to be collected and recovered as former Duties.

b III. And be it further enacted, That the said Rates and Duties shall be paid in ready Money, without any Discount or Allowance, and shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, and accounted for, under the Authority and Direction, and under the Management and Controul of the Commissioners of Customs in England for the Time being, in like Manner and Form, and by the same Rules, Regulations, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, not hereby altered, and as far as the same are applicable as Duties of Customs in England are raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, and accounted for, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the several Clauses, Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures relating thereto, were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this present Act; and (except the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, levying, recovering, answering, paying, and accounting for the same) the said Rates and Duties shall from Time to Time be brought and paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the publick Revenue; and such Part thereof as shall remain after the necessary Expences attending the Government of the said Isle of Man, and the Administration of Justice there, are from Time to Time defrayed, and the Payment of Bounties or Charges from Time to Time payable thereout, shall go to and make Part of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain.

Receiver General of Customs in the Island shall quarterly draw up an Account of the Produce of Duties of Customs, and transmit Duplicates thereof to the Lords of the Treasury, the Auditor of the Exchequer, and the Duke of Atholl, under Penalty of 100*l*.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Receiver General of the Duties of Customs in the said Island for the Time being, shall as soon after the Expiration of each Quarter of every Year, ending on the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October, respectively in each Year as the same can be done, make out an Account of the gross Produce of the Duties of Customs payable and arising within the said Island in the preceding Quarter, in such Form as shall be directed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, for the Time being, and shall transmit and certify a Duplicate of such Account to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, and another Duplicate so certified to the Auditor for the Time being of the Exchequer, and another thereof to the Most Noble John Duke of Atholl, or to the Person entitled for the Time being to any Annuity out of the Consolidated Fund, to be calculated on any Amount of such Duties under any Act of this Session of Parliament, or to any Person or Persons appointed by him or them, by Writing, under his or their Hand or Hands, to receive the same; and if any such Receiver General shall refuse or neglect to make out such Account, or to transmit such Duplicates as aforesaid, for the Space of One Month after the same can be done, such Receiver General shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and the further Sum of Two hundred Pounds for each and every Month succeeding such first Month, for which he shall omit or neglect to make out such Account, or to send such Duplicate so certified as aforesaid, and to be recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in which no Essoign or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or in any Court in the said Island, and every such Penalty shall go and be applied to the Use of the said John Duke of Atholl, or the Person or Persons for the Time being entitled to such Annuity as aforesaid.

V. And

Receiver General shall enter all Duties of Customs in a Book to be kept for that Purpose.

V. And be it further enacted, That there shall be provided and kept by the Receiver General of the Duties of Customs in the Isle of Man for the Time being, a Book or Books in which the Duties of Customs arising and payable within the Isle of Man, under any Act or Acts in force relating to such Duties, and under this Act, shall be entered separate and under distinct Heads, specifying the respective Amount of the Duties of Customs on the several Articles licensed under this or any former Act, and the Amount of Duties on Goods, Wares, or Merchandize paying Duties, according to the Value thereof, and if any of the said Duties, or any Part or Proportion of any such Duties, shall at any Time hereafter be repealed, altered, or varied, then and in such Case the Average Produce of the Duties, or Proportion of Duties so repealed, altered, or varied, for the Three Years preceding the Fifth Day of January immediately preceding such Repeal, Alteration, or Variation of such Duties as aforesaid, shall be entered distinctly and separately in such Book or Books as aforesaid; and if any new Duties shall be granted in lieu of any Duties so repealed, altered, or varied, then and in such Case the Duties or such a Proportion thereof as shall be equal to any Duties so repealed, or to such Proportions of any such Duties as shall be so altered or varied, shall also be entered distinctly and separately in such Book or Books.

Wine, Brandy, and Geneva, to be imported in Casks of a certain Size.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Wine shall be imported into the Isle of Man in any Cask or Package less than a Hogshead, and no Foreign Brandy or Geneva shall be imported into the Isle of Man (except in Casks, which shall contain One hundred Gallons each at least) on Forfeiture of all such Wine, Brandy, or Geneva, and of the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported, with all her Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture: Provided also, that no Foreign Brandy or Geneva shall be imported into the Isle of Man as aforesaid of a greater or higher Degree of Strength than that of One to Nine over Hydrometer Proof, on Forfeiture of all such Foreign Brandy or Geneva.

No Wine, Brandy, or Geneva to be removed or carried Coastwise, unless in the original Package.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Wine, Foreign Brandy, or Geneva, shall, upon any Pretence whatever, be removed or carried Coastwise in the said Isle of Man, or shall be shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel in order to be so removed or carried Coastwise, unless in the Package in which the same was originally imported into the said Island, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture thereof, together with the Ship or Vessel on board of which the same shall be shipped or laden, and all her Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture: Provided also, that no Wine shall be removed from one Part of the said Island to another, except in the original Cask or Package in which the same shall have been imported into the Island, or in Bottles, on Forfeiture of all such Wine, together with the Horses, Carts, and Carriages, employed in the removing of the same.

For granting Licences for Exportation of Sheep.

VIII. And whereas it is necessary for the Improvement of the said Island, and expedient, to allow a certain Number of live Sheep to be exported from England to the Isle of Man; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England, or any Four of them, to grant their Licences, to remain in force for Three Months from the Date thereof, for the Exportation, in such Proportions as to Numbers as to the said Commissioners shall appear pear to be expedient, from the Ports of Whitehaven, Liverpool, or Briſtol, in Great Britain, into the Port of Douglas or Ramſey in the Iſle of Man, but to no other, any Number of live Sheep not exceeding One hundred in the Whole in any One Year; and ſuch Sheep ſhall and may be exported accordingly under the Rules, Regulations, Securities, Reſtrictions, and Forfeitures, ſo far as the ſame are applicable, as are contained in an Act paſſed in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, among other Things, for preventing the Exportation of live Sheep and Wool, in relation to the Exportation of Wool, to the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, or Sark.

Penalty on Perſons counterfeiting Licences or Documents, 500*l*.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall counterfeit or falſify any Licence or other Document required or directed to be applied for, made, or given under this Act, or ſhall knowingly or wilfully make uſe of any Licence or other Document ſo counterfeited or falſified, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit Five hundred Pounds.

Fees not to be taken.

X. And be it further enacted, That no Fee, Gratuity, or Reward whatever, ſhall be demanded or taken by the Collector and Comptroller of Douglas, or by any other Officer or Perſon in the ſaid Iſland, for or in reſpect of any Applications made in the ſaid Iſland for any Bond Licences, nor on Account of any Return or Certificate of the due Landing of Articles imported by Licence, under the Penalty of Fifty Pounds.

Maſters of Veſſels to deliver Licences for importing Wine, Brandy, or Geneva.

XI. And be it further enacted, That when and ſo often as any Foreign Brandy or Geneva, or Wine, ſhall be imported by Licence into the Iſle of Man in purſuance of this Act, the Maſter or Commander of ſuch Ship or Veſſel in which the ſame ſhall be imported ſhall deliver up to the Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms at the Port of Douglas the Licence or Licences by virtue of which ſuch Foreign Brandy, Geneva, or Wine, ſhall be imported; which Licences, by Indorſement ſigned by the Britiſh Conſul at the Port of Shipping, or, if no Britiſh Conſul, by Two known Britiſh Merchants, ſhall ſpecify the Species and Quantity of Foreign Brandy, Geneva, or Wine, with the Marks, Numbers, and Denominations of the Caſks or Packages containing the ſame ſo ſhipped on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel; and the Maſter or Commander of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall produce to all Commanders of His Majeſty's Cutters or Veſſels, or Officers of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, who ſhall demand the ſame, ſuch Licences ſo indorſed as often as he ſhall be ſo called upon, until ſo delivered up to the Collector and Comptroller of Douglas as aforeſaid, on Forfeiture of all ſuch Foreign Brandy, Geneva, or Wine.

Allowing a Drawback on Hops exported.

Hops to pay a Duty on Importation of 1½*d*. per lb.

XII. And whereas it is expedient to allow a Drawback of the Duty on Britiſh Hops on the Exportation thereof to the Iſle of Man; be it therefore enacted, That on the Exportation of any Britiſh Hops to the Iſle of Man, there ſhall be allowed the Drawback of the whole Duty paid thereon; and that on Hops imported into the ſaid Iſle of Man from Great Britain, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, a Duty of One Penny Farthing per Pound Weight on all Hops ſo imported, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity.

Cotton Yarn of Cloth of Manufacture of the Isle of Man to be imported into Great Britain free.

XIII. And whereas it is expedient that the Provisions of an Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the better securing and further Improvement of the Revenues of Customs, Excise, Inland and Salt Duties, and for encouraging the Linen Manufacture of the Isle of Man, and for allowing the Importation of several Goods the Produce and Manufacture of the said Island, under certain Restrictions and Regulations, should extend to Cotton Yarn and Cotton Cloth, being the Manufacture of the Isle of Man; be it therefore enacted, That any Cotton Yarn or Cotton Cloth, being the Manufacture of the Isle of Man, shall be imported into Great Britain without Payment of any Duty of Customs whatever, subject nevertheless in other Respects to such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as are required by the before-recited Act on the Importation of any Goods of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the said Island.

Cotton Yarn or Cloth not to be imported, except from Great Britain.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Cotton Yarn or Cotton Cloth shall be imported or brought from any Port or Place whatever into the said Isle of Man, except from Great Britain, on Forfeiture thereof.

No Bounty on Silk Manufacture imported.

XV. And be it further enacted, That no Bounty shall be allowed or paid for or upon the Exportation from Great Britain to the Isle of Man, of any Manufacture of Silk whatever.

Drawbacks not to be allowed without Production of Certificate.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That no Drawback or Bounty shall be paid or allowed for or upon any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize whatever, exported from this Kingdom to the Isle of Man, nor any Debenture made out for such Drawback or Bounty, until a Certificate shall be produced under the Hands and Seals of the Officer or Officers appointed or to be appointed to attend the landing or Examination of such Goods at the Port or Place in the said Island where the same shall be landed, and also the Hand and Seal of the Collector or Comptroller of such Port or Place, which Certificate shall specify that such Goods have been duly entered and landed at such Port or Place in the said Island.

Treasury to authorize the Commissioners of the Customs to grant Licences for the Importation of additional Quantities of the Articles allowed to be imported for Consumption in the Island.

XVII. And whereas it may be expedient, under certain special Circumstances, to permit for a limited Time the Importation into the Isle of Man of a larger Quantity of the several Articles allowed to be imported into the said Island by Licence, under the Authority of this Act; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, to issue their Orders to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, to grant their Licence for the Importation into the Isle of Man of such additional Quantity of the several Articles which are allowed to be imported into the said Island by Licence only, as the said Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the Time being, on the Necessity of the Case being proved to their Satisfaction, shall in their Judgements deem fit and reasonable for the Use and Consumption of the Inhabitants of the said Island.

Allowing Applications for Importation of licensed Goods, and

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any of His Majesty's Subjects, at any Time before the Fifth Day of August in this Year, and afterwards in subsequent Years, between the Fifth Day of May and the Fifth Day of July in each Year, both inclusive, to make Application tion in Writing to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port of Douglas, in the ſaid Iſland, for the Importation into the ſaid Iſland of the ſeveral Articles allowed by Law to be imported by virtue of Licence; and every ſuch Application ſhall ſpecify the Date thereof, and the Name, Reſidence, and Occupation of the Perſon applying, and the Deſcription and Quantity of the Articles in reſpect of which ſuch Application is made; and all ſuch Applications, with the Particulars aforeſaid, ſhall, on the Delivery thereof, be entered in a Book to be kept at the Cuſtom Houſe of the Port of Douglas aforeſaid for that Purpoſe, and the Book containing ſuch Entries ſhall be open at ſuch Cuſtom Houſe for publick Inſpection during the Hours of Buſineſs; and on the Fifth Day of Auguſt in this Year, and on the Fifth Day of July in each ſubſequent Year, the ſaid Book ſhall be cloſed, and the Collector and Comptroller ſhall make out, with all convenient Speed, not exceeding Fourteen Days, a true Copy of all ſuch Entries, and certify the ſame to be a true Copy, and ſhall deliver or tranſmit by the earlieſt Conveyance ſuch Copy to the Governor, if then in the ſaid Iſland, or if the Governor ſhall not then be in the Iſland, to the Lieutenant Governor of the ſaid Iſland for the Time being, ſpecifying therein the Applicants reſident and the Applicants not reſident in the ſaid Iſland, and ſuch Governor or Lieutenant Governor ſhall thereupon allot the whole Quantities of each Article in reſpect whereof ſuch Application ſhall be made, in the firſt Place, among the Applicants reſident in the ſaid Iſland, and in caſe the Whole of ſuch Quantities ſhall not have been applied for by Reſidents, then the Reſidue among the non-reſident Applicants, in ſuch Proportions as he ſhall judge moſt fair and equitable, and ſhall cauſe a Report thereon to be drawn up in Writing, and ſign and tranſmit the ſame to the Lord High Treaſurer or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, and ſhall cauſe Duplicates of ſuch Report ſo ſigned to be tranſmitted to the Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms and Exciſe reſpectively; and thereupon it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively, to grant Licences (to continue in force for any Period until the Fifth Day of July next enſuing the granting thereof) for the Importation of the ſeveral Articles and Quantities thereof allowed by Law to be imported into the Iſle of Man, which Licences the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms are hereby authorized and required to grant for ſuch Periods as ſhall be ſpecified or allowed in any ſuch Order, and to divide any Quantity of any Articles in reſpect whereof any Application ſhall have been made into two or more Licences to the ſame Perſon, where Application ſhall be made for that Purpoſe, and the ſame ſhall appear to be expedient; and ſuch Licences ſhall without Delay be tranſmitted to the Collector and Comptroller of Douglas, for the Purpoſe of taking Bond under the Proviſions of this Act previous to the Delivery thereof to the different Applicants; any Act or Acts to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

enabling the Governor to alot the Quantities.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Lord High Treaſurer or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, to allow Prize Spirits and Wine to be imported into the ſaid Iſland from Great Britain, in Whole or in Part, of the Quantities of the ſaid Articles which are allowed to be imported by Licence as aforeſaid; any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Prize Spirits and Wine may be imported into the Iſland.

XX. And

Persons applying for Licences to enter into Bond for the Importation of such Articles.

XX. And be it further enacted, That previous to delivering any Licences to the Persons who have applied for the same, the Collector and Comptroller of Douglas shall take their Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with sufficient Security, for the Importation of such Articles in respect whereof the said Licences are granted, on or before the Fifth Day of July succeeding the Delivery of such Licences, with such Condition for the Forfeiture of any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the whole Amount of the Duties on the Articles specified in the said Licences, as the respective Commissioners of Customs, under any Directions from the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, shall think fit; and on the Refusal or Delay of any such Persons applying for Licences as aforesaid to give Bond as herein directed, the said Collector and Comptroller shall return such Licence to the Commissioners of Customs who transmitted the same; and thereupon the said Collector and Comptroller shall give publick Notice thereof, in order that other Persons may apply for Licences in lieu of any such Licences returned as aforesaid; and Applications may be made, and Licences granted thereon, in like Manner as in this Act directed for the granting of Licences until Bond shall have been given for the Importation of the Whole of the Quantities allowed to be imported under this Act; any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Tonnage Duty repealed.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July, all Duties granted by and now payable under any Act or Acts now in force on the Tonnage of any Ships or Vessels entering inwards or outwards, in any Port of Great Britain or Ireland from or to the Isle of Man, shall wholly cease and determine.

All Regulations in force relating to Import or Export of Goods to extend to this Act.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That on the Exportation of the several Articles in this Act mentioned from Great Britain, and on the Importation of the same respectively into the Isle of Man, pursuant to this Act, all the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force relating to such Goods respectively so imported or exported, and to the Payment, Recovery, and Appropriation of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture relating thereto, shall, and all the Clauses, Provisions, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in any Act or Acts, or Law in force, in relation to the Isle of Man, shall, so far as they are not hereby altered or varied, or in respect of which no other Provisions are made by this Act, be and are hereby declared to be in full Force, and to extend to this Act, and shall be construed therewith, and as Part thereof, so far as the same respectively apply, as fully as if the same were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.
