Supplies not to be applied to any other than the authorized Purposes.

XXV. And it is hereby also enacted, That the said Aids and Supplies, provided as aforesaid, shall not be issued or applied to any Use, Intent, or Purpose, Purpose whatsoever, other than the Uses and Purposes before-mentioned, or for the said Deficiency or other Payments directed to be satisfied thereout by any Act or Acts, or any particular Clause or Clauses for that Purpose contained in any other Act or Acts of this present Session of Parliament, or to the Payment or Compensation heretofore allowed for or in lieu of the Prizage and Butlerage of Wines in Ireland.

Rules to be observed in the Application of the Sum appropriated for Half Pay.

XXVI. And as to the Sum of One hundred eighty-four thousand nine hundred forty-seven Pounds and Seven-pence, by this Act appropriated on account of Half-pay as aforesaid, it is hereby enacted and declared, That the Rules hereinafter prescribed shall be duly observed in the Application of the said Half-pay; (that is to say), that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same who was a Minor and under the Age of Sixteen Years at the Time when the Regiment, Troop, or Company in which he served was reduced; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, except such Persons who did actual Service in some Regiment, Troop, or Company; that no Person having any other Place of Employment, Civil or Military, under His Majesty, shall have or receive any Part of the said Half-pay, except such Officers as have been or shall be appointed to any Military Commission or Employment on the Staff or in the Garrisons, which Officers, with His Majesty's Approbation, to be signified by the Secretary at War to the Paymaster General of the Land Forces, and not otherwise, may and shall receive their Half-pay together with the Pay of their Military Commissions or Employments on the Staff or in the Garrisons as aforesaid, they taking from Time to Time the following Oath instead of the Oath usually taken by Officers, to entitle them to receive Half-pay:

Officers employed on the Staff or in Garrisons may receive their Half Pay, on taking the following Oath.

'I A. B. do swear, That I had not, between the and the any Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under His Majesty, besides my Allowance of Half-pay as a reduced in the late Regiment of save and except my Pay as [here specify the Military Commission or Employment on the Staff or in the Garrisons]:'

And the taking of the said Oath shall, without taking any other Oath, be sufficient to entitle such Officer to receive his Half-pay; that no Chaplain of any Garrison or Regiment, who has any Ecclesiastical Benefice in Great Britain or Ireland, shall have or receive any Part of the said Half-pay; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, who has resigned his Commission, and has had no Commission since; that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any Person by virtue of any Warrant or Appointment, except to such Persons as would have been otherwise entitled to the same as reduced Officers; and that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any of the Officers of the Five Regiments of Foot, lately disbanded in Ireland, except to such as were lately taken off the Establishment of Half-pay in Great Britain.

By 45 G. 3. c. 129, a certain Sum was appropriated to be paid to Reduced Officers, the Overplus of which may be

XXVII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty a certain Sum of Money out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, and for applying certain Monies therein mentioned for the Service of Great Britain, for the Year One thousand eight hundred disposed of as His Majesty shall judge proper;

and five, and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament, the several Supplies which had been granted to His present Majesty, as is therein mentioned, were appropriated to the several Uses and Purposes therein expressed; amongst which any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding One hundred seventy-five thousand six hundred twenty-three Pounds Seven Shillings and Eleven-pence, was appropriated to be paid to the reduced Officers of His Majesty's Land Forces and Marines for the Year One thousand eight hundred and five; subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half-pay, as in and by the aforesaid Act were prescribed in that Behalf: Now it is hereby provided, enacted, and declared, That so much of the said Sum of One hundred seventy-five thousand six hundred twenty-three Pounds Seven Shillings and Eleven-pence, as is or shall be more than sufficient to satisfy the said reduced Officers, according to the Rules prescribed by the said Act to be observed in the Application thereof, or any Part of such Overplus, shall and may be disposed of to such Officers who are maimed, or have lost their Limbs in the late Wars, or such others as, by reason of their long Service or otherwise, His Majesty shall judge to be proper Objects of Charity, or to the Widows or Children of such Officers, according to such Warrant or Warrants under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, as shall be signed in that Behalf; any Thing in this Act or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.
