CAP. CXXXIII.

An Act for enlarging the Times appointed for the First Meetings of Commissioners and other Persons, for putting in Execution certain Acts of this Session of Parliament. [30th June 1808.]

WHEREAS certain Acts may have been made and passed in this present Session of Parliament, appointing the First Meetings of the Commissioners, Trustees, or other Persons, for putting such Acts in Execution upon certain Days, which have elapsed before or happened upon the respective Days of passing such Acts, and Doubts may arise whether in such Cases the Commissioners, Trustees, or other Persons appointed in and by such Acts, are authorized to meet and carry such Acts into Execution; may it therfore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in case any Act or Acts of Parliament hath or have passed during the present Session of Parliament, and the Commissioners, Trustees, or other Persons for putting such Act or Acts in Execution, shall not have met and holden their First Meetings on the respective Days appointed by such Acts respectively, or shall have met and holden any Meetings without sufficient Authority so to do, it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioners, Trustees, or other Persons, or such Number of them as by such Acts are authorised to meet and to put such Acts in Execution, to meet and proceed in Times appointed for the First Meetings of Commissioners, &c. under Acts passed this Session, extended.

Such Meetings declared valid.

in the Execution of such Acts respectively, on or before the Day Fortnight next after the End of this present Session of Parliament; and all such Meetings so had shall and are hereby declared to be as good, valid, and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the Commissioners, Trustees, or other Persons had met and proceeded to put such Acts in Execution on the Days appointed in and by such respective Acts, or as if they had been authorised by such respective Acts to have holden Meetings on the Days on which any Meetings may have been already holden as aforesaid; and all Acts, Matters, and Things which shall be done by such Commissioners, Trustees, or other Persons in the Execution of such Acts respectively, shall be as valid and effectual in all Respects, and to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if their First Meetings had been held on the Days appointed by such Acts respectively, or as if they had been authorised by such respective Acts, to have holden Meetings on the Days on which any Meetings may have been already holden as aforesaid.
