[23d June 1808.]

WHEREAS an Act was paſſed in the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for allowing, under certain Reſtrictions, until the Firſt Day of Auguſt One thouſand eight hundred and ſix, the bringing a limited Quantity of Coals, Culm, or Cinders to London and Weſtminſter, by Inland Navigation: And whereas an Act was paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament for continuing the ſaid Act until the Firſt Day of Auguſt One thouſand eight hundred and eight: And whereas it is expedient that the ſaid recited Act ſhould be further continued; May it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act ſhall be and is hereby further continued, until the Firſt Day of Auguſt One thouſand eight hundred and eleven, and no longer.

45 G. 3. c. 128.

Recited Act continued till Auguſt 1, 1811.

No greater Quantity of Coal, &c. than 50,000 Tons shall be brought within One Year, nearer to London than the Post erected at Grove Park.

II. And be it further enacted, That no greater Quantity of Coal, Culm, or Cinders than Fifty thousand Tons in the Whole, shall be brought within One Year, from the First Day of August, by Means of the Grand Junction and Paddington Canals, nearer to London than the Stone or Post erected in pursuance of the said Act, at or near the North-East Point of Grove Park in the County of Hertford.

Duty to be paid on Coals so brought.

III. And be it further enacted, That there shall be raised, levied, and collected, on all Coals, Culm, or Cinders brought along the Grand Junction or Paddington Canals, nearer to London than the said Stone or Post, the several and respective Rates and Duties of Customs following; (that is to say), the Sum of Seven Shillings and Sixpence for and upon each and every Ton of Coals, Culm, or Cinders so brought; and an additional Duty of Twelve Pounds Ten Shillings on every One hundred Pounds of such first Amount of Duty; and also a further additional Duty of Twelve Pounds Ten Shillings on every One hundred Pounds of such first Amount of Duty; and also a further additional Duty of Two Pounds Ten Shillings on such first Amount of Duty as aforesaid; and also a further additional Duty of Eight Pounds Six Shillings and Eight-pence on every One hundred Pounds of such first Amount of Duty as aforesaid, amounting in the Whole to the Sum of Ten Shillings and Two-pence Farthing for and upon every Ton of such Coals, Culm, or Cinders; and there shall be raised, levied, and collected for every Ton of such Coals, Culm, or Cinders, a further Duty of One Shilling and Three-pence; which last mentioned Duty shall, at the End of every Quarter, be paid to any Person or Persons to be appointed by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London to receive the same, or if no such Person shall be appointed, into the Chamber of the City of London, as and for and in lieu of the Duty called Orphans Duty; and all other Rates, Dues, and Duties which are payable to the Corporation of London, upon Coals, Culm, or Cinders imported into the Port of London; and all such several and respective Duties shall be demandable and demanded, and shall be payable and paid to the proper Officer to be appointed by the Commissioners of the Customs in England to receive the same, according to the full Quantity and Weight of Coals; such Quantity and Weight as aforesaid to be ascertained in such Manner as the said Commissioners of Customs shall direct, in case it shall appear necessary to the said Commissioners to direct the ascertaining the same in any other or different Manner than is now used or authorized or required by any Act or Acts in relation to any Coals carried Coastwise or brought into the Port of London.
