ANNO QUADRAGESIMO NONO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CAP. CVI.

An Act for allowing further Time for taking Goods out of Warehouſe, and paying Duties thereon.

[15th June 1809.]

WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for permiting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be ſecured in Warehouſes without Payment of Duty, the Importers, Proprietors, or Conſignees of Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, which have been lodged in any Warehouſe or Warehouſes, to be provided according to the Directions of that Act or otherwiſe ſecured in the Port of London, are, within Fifteen Calendar Months to be computed from the Day on which the Importers, Proprietors, or Conſignees ſhall have made their Firſt Entry thereof, to clear and take from and out of ſuch Warehouſes or Places reſpectively, either for Exportation or to be conſumed in Great Britain, all ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, and Bond is directed to be given to His Majeſty for paying the Duties upon certain Articles within Twelve Months from the Date of the Firſt Entry thereof: And whereas it may in certain Caſes be expedient to allow further Time for clearing the ſaid Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and for paying the Duties thereon; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, 43G.3.c.132.

assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, to permit and allow any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize enumerated or described in the Tables annexed to the said recited Act, or which may have been or shall be added to such Tables by virtue and in pursuance thereof, to remain warehoused or otherwise secured, without Payment of the Duty of Customs or Excise, for such further Time beyond the said Period of Fifteen Months as the said Lord High Treasurer or the said Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, may in their Judgement think reasonable and proper; and no Bond entered into for the Payment of any such Duties shall be proceeded upon during the extended Period for which any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall or may be so allowed to remain warehoused or otherwise secured under the Authority of this Act.

The Treasury may permit any Goods described in the Tables annexed to the recited Act to remain warehoused without Payment of Duty for such further Time beyond the Period of Fifteen Months as they shall think proper, &c.

II. And whereas the Privileges and Advantages of the said Act of the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty have been extended to the Out Ports in pursuance of an Act of the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled, An Act to authorize the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to permit certain Articles to be warehoused in different Ports in Great Britain, upon giving Security for the Payment of Duties upon the Articles therein mentioned; and of another Act of the Forty-sixth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled, An Act to extend the Provisions of an Act made in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty, for permitting certain Articles to be warehoused in Great Britain, to other Artitles not therein mentioned; and to alter the Condition of the Bond directed to be given by an Act of the Twenty-fourth Year of His present Majesty, by the Masters and Owners of Vessels and Boats licensed by the Lords of the Admiralty; and it is expedient that the Lord High Treasurer or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury should be also empowered to extend the Period for which the Goods may remain bonded and warehoused at such Out Ports; be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer or the said Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, by Warrant as aforesaid, to extend the Period for which any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, are allowed to be bonded and warehoused at any Out Port of Great Britain; and no Duties of Customs or Excise shall be demanded or required, or shall any Bond, given for the Security of such Duties, be enforced or proceeded upon during the extended Period which shall or may be allowed under the Authority of this Act.

45 G. 3. c. 87.

The Treasury may extend the Period for which Goods are allowed to be warehoused at any Out Port.
