GEORGII III. REGIS.

CAP. LXXII.

An Act to continue until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and eleven, certain Acts of the Parliament of Ireland, for the Improvement of the City of Dublin, by making wide and convenient Paſſages through the ſame, and for regulating the Coal Trade thereof, and for other Purpoſes. [3d June 1809.]

WHEREAS an Act was made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Twenty-firſt and Twenty-ſecond Years of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Improvement of the City of Dublin, by making wide and convenient Paſſages through the ſame, and for regulating the Coal Trade thereof; which was to continue in force until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-eight, which ſaid recited Act, by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, was amended and continued until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and ten; and by another Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirtieth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, was further amended: And whereas it is expedient that the ſaid ſeveral recited Acts ſhould be further continued; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid ſeveral recited Acts, and every of them, ſhall be and the ſame are further continued until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and eleven.

Certain Provisions in recited Act respecting the Coal Trade, declared to be in force.

II. And whereas by the said recited Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of His present Majesty's Reign, so much of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing the engrossing and regrating of Coals in this Kingdom, and of every other Act or Acts of Parliament theretofore made in the said Kingdom, was repealed and made null and void as tended in any Degree to prevent any Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, from buying or laying up in One Year more than a certain Quantity of Coals, or to give the Lord Mayor, or any Magistrate, Minister, or Churchwarden, a Power to enter the Cellars, Houses, or Yards of any Person buying Coals and to direct the Coals therein to be sold, or to give the Lord Mayor of the City of Dublin a Power to compel to be brought up to the Quay and sold, any Coals on Board any Ship or Gabbard, which Coals should have been previously sold to any Person resident in the said City of Dublin, or any Person or Persons trading or dealing in Coals, or to limit the Number of Factors, Bursers, or Agents, for buying and selling Coals in the City of Dublin, or to require them or any Person purchasing Coals for Sale, or keeping any Yard therein for selling Coals, to take out any Licence on account of the same, or give Security or take any Oath as a Factor, Burser, or Agent, or to prevent any Person keeping a Gabbard, Lighter, or Boat, for the Purpose of carrying Coals, and it was also by the said recited Act of the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years aforesaid enacted, that every Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, should be at full Liberty to buy and sell Coals, at such Prices and Times, in such Manner and Quantities, and Form, and to such Persons as he, she, or they should choose, any Law to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding: For the obviating of any Doubts as to the Force and Effect of the said recited Provisions, be it declared and enacted, That so much and such Parts of the said recited Act, of the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years aforesaid, as is and are herein before rehearsed and set forth, is and are and is and are hereby declared to be in full Force and Effect, any Thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Act may be altered this Session.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and the said several recited Acts hereby continued, or any of them, may be amended, altered, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.
