GEORGII III. REGIS.

of Customs and Tonnage granted to His Majesty, during the Continuance of the present War, and until certain Periods after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, and to be so carried to Account in the Exchequer (except as herein-after is provided); and that separate Accounts for Ten Years from the respective Periods at which any of the said Duties were granted, should no longer be kept, but that in lieu thereof, Accounts should be laid before Parliament for such respective Periods as aforesaid, of the Produce of such Duties as far as the same can be ascertained: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, all and singular the Subsidies, Customs, Impositions, or Duties whatever, (respecting the Revenue of Customs) payable to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force, on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, upon the Importation or Exportation respectively, of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, into or from Great Britain, or upon any Goods, Wares or Merchandize being brought or carried coastwise, from one Port or Place in Great Britain to any other Port or Place within the same, (except as in this Act mentioned) or upon any Ship or Vessel according to the Tonnage thereof, entering or clearing Outwards or Inwards at any Port within Great Britain, and the several and respective Drawbacks allowed upon the Exportation of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize from Great Britain; and also all the additional Imposts or Duties charged upon the Product and Amount of the said several Duties of Customs, shall cease and determine, save and except in all Cases relating to the recovering, allowing or paying any Arrears thereof respectively, which may on the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, remain unpaid, or to any Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures relating thereto respectively, which shall have been incurred at any Time before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or anywise alter the Duties of Package, Scavage, Baillage, or Portage, or any other Duties payable to the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or to the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, or to any other City or Town Corporate within Great Britain, or any other Special Privilege or Exemption, to which any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, is or are now entitled by Law, but the same shall be continued as heretofore.

From July 5, 1809, the present Duties of Customs and Drawbacks shall cease.

The Duties of Package, &c. to the City of London, &c. shall be continued.

II. And whereas it is necessary that other Duties of Customs should be granted to Your Majesty in lieu of the Duties repealed by this Act; we Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, have therefore given and granted to Your Majesty the several Duties of Customs herein-after mentioned, and do humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, in lieu and stead of the Subsidies and Duties of Customs hereby made to cease and determine,

From July 5, 1809, the Duties in the annexed Schedule and Tables shall be levied, and the Drawbacks therein inserted, allowed, in lieu there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in ready Money (except as herein-after is provided) without any Discount whatever, upon Goods, Wares, or Merchandize imported and brought into Great Britain from Parts beyond the Seas, and upon Goods, Wares, or Merchandize exported from Great Britain, and upon Goods, Wares, or Merchandize brought or carried Coastwise from One Port or Place in Great Britain to any other Port or Place within the same, and upon Ships or Vessels, according to the Tonnage thereof, entering Outwards or Inwards at any Port within Great Britain, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Schedule and Tables hereunto annexed, marked A. B. C. and D.; and that there shall also be paid or allowed the several Drawbacks of the said Duties of Customs, as the same are also respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the said Schedule and Tables marked A. and B.; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

of those which are then to cease.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Duties granted and imposed by this Act, and made payable according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge, Measure, or Value of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize charged with such Duties, shall be charged and payable upon any greater or less Weight, Number, Quantity, or Value thereof than the Weight, Number, Quantity, or Value particularly inserted, described, and set forth in the Schedule and Tables hereunto annexed marked A. B. and C. in proportion to the actual Weight, Number, Quantity, or Value of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize.

When Duties are payable by Weight, &c. they shall be paid in Proportion to the actual Weight of the Articles, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties of Tonnage hereby imposed on Ships and Vessels entering Outwards or Inwards to or from Foreign Parts, shall be paid to the proper Officer appointed to receive the same on the Entry Outwards, and within Fourteen Days after the Report Inwards, each and every Voyage any such Ship or Vessel shall so enter Outwards or report Inwards at any Port within Great Britain, and that the Tonnage of every such Ship or Vessel, being British-built or British owned, shall be computed and taken according to the Register thereof, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Increase and Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation, and that the Tonnage of every other Ship or Vessel, in case of any Doubt or Dispute relative thereto, shall be ascertained by Admeasurement, in the Mode and Manner prescribed and directed by the said Act.

Tonnage Duties in what Manner to be paid.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Act of Parliament in Force on and immediately before the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, by which any Rules, Regulations, Conditions, or Restrictions were made, established, or directed, for the ascertaining the Value of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, or for the remitting or allowing of any Deduction of any Duties on Account of Damage, or for the better securing the Revenue of Customs, or for the regular Importation into or Exportation from Great Britain, or the bringing or carrying Coastwise, or from Port to Port within Great Britain, or the entering, landing, or shipping Temporary or War Duties to continue till Six Months after the Ratification of a Treaty of Peace.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Duties of Cuſtoms by this Act impoſed on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and on Ships and Veſſels according to the Tonnage thereof, and which are particularly deſcribed and ſet forth in Figures in the Schedule and Tables hereunto annexed, marked A, B, C, and D, under the Title and Deſcription of Temporary or War Duties, ſhall continue in Force during the Continuance of the preſent War, and for Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace.

The Duties on Sugar to continue till March 25, 1810, and to be applied according to 49 G. 3. c. 1.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Duties impoſed by this Act upon the Importation of Sugar, and inſerted, deſcribed, and ſet forth in the Schedule and Tables hereunto annexed, marked A, B, and C, ſhall continue and be in Force until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and ten, and no longer, and ſhall be appropriated, applied, and accounted for, according to the Proviſions of an Act paſſed in the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing to His Majeſty certain Duties on Malt, Sugar, Tobacco, and Snuff, in Great Britain, and on Penſions, Offices, and Perſonal Eſtates in England, for the Service of the Year One thouſand eight hundred and nine, and that a ſeparate Account of ſuch Duties ſhall be kept at the Cuſtom Houſe diſtinct and apart from all other Duties of Cuſtoms, and the ſame ſhall be paid into the Exchequer purſuant to the Proviſions of the ſaid recited Act, as to the Duties by the ſaid Act granted on Sugar.

Suſpending Part of the Duty on Sugar, according to the Average Prices of Brown or Muſcovado Sugar.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever it ſhall appear by Notice in the London Gazette, in Manner directed by an Act paſſed in the Forty-ſixth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty during the preſent War, and for Six Months after the Expiration thereof, by the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, additional Duties on certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, imported into and exported from, or brought or carried Coaſtwiſe within Great Britain, that the Average Price of Brown or Muſcovado Sugar, taken in Manner directed by the ſaid recited Act for Four Months preceding the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of May, and the Fifth Day of September reſpectively in every Year, ſhall be below Forty-nine Shillings the Hundred Weight, then and in ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for the Lord High Treaſurer, or the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three or more of them, for the Time being, and they are hereby authorized to ſuſpend, until a new Average according to the ſaid recited Act ſhall be publiſhed, the Sum of One Shilling in the Hundred Weight, Part of the Temporary or War Duty on Sugar by this Act granted; and if ſuch Average Price ſhall be below Forty-eight Shillings, then Two Shillings of the ſaid Duty; and if ſuch Average Price ſhall be below Forty-ſeven Shillings, then Three Shillings of ſuch Duty; and to continue from Time to Time, if the Case shall so require, according to the Averages published as aforesaid.

Act not to affect the Act of Union between Great Britain and Ireland, in respect to the Importation or Exportation of Goods:

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal or alter any of the Provisions contained in Two Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, the One made in the Parliament of Great Britain in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, and the other made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or any other Act or Acts in Force on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, by which any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, imported from Ireland into Great Britain, or any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, exported from Great Britain to Ireland, are respectively made to remain liable to, or are charged with or exempted from any Duties of Customs, whether countervailing or others, or by which any Drawbacks or Bounties are allowed or given in respect of any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize.

Nor the Duties of Tonnage granted by 39 G. 3. c. 69. (Local.)

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend, or alter, or repeal, or in anywise to affect any of the Duties on Ships or Vessels according to the Tonnage thereof granted and imposed by an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for rendering more commodious and for better regulating the Port of London, or any of the Duties granted and imposed by an Act passed in the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for making further Provision for the more effectual Performance of Quarantine. 45 G. 3. c. 10.

Nor to affect the Duties granted by 48 G. 3. c. 36. 48 G. 3. c. 35. 48 G. 3. c. 37. 48 G. 3. c. 71.

XI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to or in any way to affect, alter, vary, or repeal any of the Duties granted by or any of the Provisions contained in an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty, until the End of the next Session of Parliament, Duties of Customs on the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, therein enumerated, in Furtherance of the Provisions of certain Orders in Council; or in an Act passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for imposing, until the End of the next Session of Parliament, a Duty on Cotton Wool, the Growth of the British Colonies, exported from Great Britain; or the Provisions contained in another Act passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for making valid certain Orders in Council, and Warrants of the Commissioners of the Treasury, for the Entry and Warehousing of certain Goods imported in Neutral Vessels, and for indemnifying all Persons concerned therein; for the remitting of Forfeitures in certain Cases; and for enabling His Majesty to allow, during the Continuance of Hostilities, and until Two Months after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, the Importation of Goods from Countries from which the British Flag is excluded in any Vessels whatever, or in an Act passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to amend so much of Two Acts of this Session of Parliament, for carrying into Execution certain Orders in Council, as relates to the Duties on Goods exported from the Warehouses in which they have been secured on Importation, and on certain Prize Goods imported into Great Britain or Ireland.

Act not to affect the Duty granted by 45 G. 3. c. 10.

XII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to or in any way to affect, alter, vary, or repeal any of the Duties granted by or any of the Proviſions contained in an Act paſſed in the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for making further Proviſion for the effectual Performance of Quarantine.

Fiſh of Britiſh taking and curing may be imported in Britiſh Ships Duty free.

XIII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That Fiſh of every Kind or Sort whatever of Britiſh taking and curing, caught, or taken in any Part of the Ocean by the Crews of any Ships or Veſſels built in Great Britain, Ireland, or the Iſlands of Jerſey, Guernſey, or Man, or in any of the Colonies, Plantations, Iſlands, or Territories which now belong, or at the Time of building ſuch Ships or Veſſels did belong, or which may hereafter belong to or be in the Poſſeſſion of His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, and wholly belonging to and owned by His Majeſty's Subjects, and navigated and regiſtered according to Law, ſhall and may be imported into Great Britain in Ships built, owned, navigated, and regiſtered as aforeſaid, without Payment of any Duty of Cuſtoms whatever; any Thing in this Act or any other Act or Acts to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding: Provided always, that before ſuch Fiſh ſhall be admitted to Entry, the Maſter or other Perſon having the Command of the Ship or Veſſel in which ſuch Fiſh ſhall be imported, ſhall make Oath before the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms, at the Port of Importation (who is hereby authorized and required to adminiſter ſuch Oath) that ſuch Fiſh was actually caught, taken, and cured wholly by His Majeſty's Subjects.

Act not to charge with the Tonnage Duty, Fiſhing Veſſels, or Veſſels in Ballaſt, &c.:

XIV. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend, to charge with the Duty of Tonnage by this Act impoſed, any Ship or Veſſel employed in the Fiſheries on the Coaſt of Great Britain, and not entering outwards for Foreign Parts, or to charge the ſaid Tonnage Duty on any Britiſh built Ship or Veſſel owned by Britiſh Subjects, which is not required to be regiſtered by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force, on or immediately before the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine, or on any Ship or Veſſel whatſoever, which ſhall enter Outwards or Inwards in Ballaſt only: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend, to repeal or diſcontinue any Drawback of the Duties of Cuſtoms on any Sort of Wine intended for the Uſe of Admirals, Captains, and other Commiſſioned Officers ſerving in any of His Majeſty's Ships of War by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force on or immediately before the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine, or to prevent Tobacco for the Uſe and Conſumption of the Crew of any Ship of War in actual Service, being removed for that Purpoſe from the Warehouſe in which it may have been depoſited without Payment of any Duty of Cuſtoms, in Caſes wherein Tobacco might have been ſo removed by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force on or before the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine:

Nor repeal any Drawback allowed to Officers in the Navy on Wine, or to prevent Tobacco for the Uſe of the Crew, being removed from Warehouſes Duty free.

Provided always, that all the Conditions, Regulations, and Reſtrictions contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force immediately before the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine, relating reſpectively to any ſuch Drawbacks of the Duties of Cuſtoms, or to any ſuch Tobacco reſpectively, ſhall be duly obſerved and enforced in Relation thereto.

Act not to compel the Proprietors to pay the Duties upon landing of Goods, in Caſes where ſuch Goods might have been ſecured in Warehouſe before July 5, 1809.

XV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend, to compel the Proprietor or Proprietors of Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, to pay the Duties upon the Importation or Landing thereof, in Caſes in which ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, might on or immediately before the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine, have been at the Requeſt of the Importer or Proprietor thereof, lodged and ſecured in Warehouſes, or in any Places approved of for that Purpoſe, by the Lord High Treaſurer or the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, or by the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England, or any Four or more of them, or the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in Scotland, or any Three or more of them, under the Proviſions of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force, on and immediately before the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine, during the Continuance of any ſuch Act or Acts reſpectively: Provided alſo, that in caſe the Importer or Proprietor of any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize which ſhall have been lodged in Warehouſes or otherwiſe ſecured, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force, on or immediately before the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine, and on which the Duties due on the Importation thereof ſhall not have been paid, ſhall be deſirous of taking any ſuch Goods out of ſuch Warehouſe, or from any Place wherein ſecured, for the Purpoſe of being uſed or conſumed in Great Britain, then and in ſuch Caſe, the Duties impoſed by this Act ſhall be payable thereon, except as herein-after is provided, notwithſtanding ſuch Goods may have been imported into Great Britain, and warehouſed before the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine: Provided alſo, that nothing herein contained, ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to permit any Goods to be delivered from ſuch Warehouſe or Place, for the Purpoſe of being uſed or conſumed in Great Britain, unleſs ſuch Goods could have been lawfully ſo delivered, to be uſed or conſumed before the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine.

Duties to be paid on taking out Goods for Home Conſumption, &c.

43 G. 3. c. 132.

43 G. 3. c. 70.

Duty granted by laſt recited Act not to be

XVI. And whereas by an Act paſſed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain, to be ſecured in Warehouſe without Payment of Duty; certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, which ſhall have been warehouſed or otherwiſe ſecured under the Proviſions of that Act, are made ſubject to the Payment of an additional Duty of Cuſtoms, charged by an Act paſſed in the ſame Year, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty, during the preſent War, and until the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, additional Duties on the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and on the Tonnage of Ships and Veſſels in Great Britain, on being delivered for the Purpoſe of Exportation; it is hereby declared and enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine, the ſaid Duty ſhall not be charged or payable on any ſuch charged on Goods delivered for Exportation.

such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize so delivered for the Purpose of Exportation, notwithstanding such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, may have been imported and warehoused, or otherwise secured as aforesaid, on or before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine.

Goods imported by the East India Company and warehoused under 39 G. 3. c. 59. and Prize Goods warehoused under 43 G. 3. c. 134 fraudulently removed shall be forfeited.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize imported into this Kingdom by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, warehoused or otherwise secured under the Authority of an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for permitting certain Goods imported from the East Indies to be warehoused, and for repealing the Duties now payable thereon, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, or of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize taken and condemned as Prize, and warehoused or otherwise secured under the Authority of an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Relief of the Captors of Prizes with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in Great Britain during Hostilities, shall be embezzled or fraudulently or clandestinely hid or concealed in, or fraudulently or clandestinely removed from or out of any Warehouse or Place wherein the same shall have been so lodged or secured, all such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize so embezzled or fraudulently or clandestinely hid or concealed or removed, together with the Packages containing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or of Excise in Cases where that Revenue is concerned, and the Person or Persons so embezzling, hiding, concealing, or removing the same, or aiding or assisting therein, or to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come, shall be subject and liable to the like Pains and Penalties as if such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize had been fraudulently unshipped or landed without Payment of Duty.

Where the Duty on East India Goods are charged according to their Value, the same shall be ascertained by the gross Price at which the Goods sold.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That where by the Table hereunto annexed, marked (B.), the Duties of Customs hereby imposed upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies are charged not according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge, or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be ascertained by the Gross Price at which such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be sold at the Public Sales of the said Company, and the said Duties shall be paid thereon accordingly as the same are inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the said Table marked (B.).

Goods in the India Company's Warehouses liable to Duty.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Duties by this Act imposed on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, shall be due and payable, and shall be paid on any such Goods as shall after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, be and remain in the Warehouses of the said Company, and which shall not have been sold, notwithstanding such Goods may have been imported into Great Britain before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine.

No Pepper sold at the India Com-

XX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine no Pepper which shall have been or shall be sold at the Sales of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and four, shall be taken out of any Warehouse wherein the same may have been secured for the Purpose of being used or consumed in Great Britain, unless and until the Duties by this Act granted on Pepper imported by the said Company, and so taken out, shall have been first paid to the proper Officer of the Customs; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Company's Sales after June 1, 1804, shall be taken out of Warehouse till Duty be paid.

XXI. And whereas by this Act Duties of Customs are payable on certain Articles according to the true and real Value thereof, to be ascertained by the Gross Price at which such Goods shall have been publickly sold at the Sales of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies: And whereas much Inconvenience and Delay hath arisen in the Payment of the Duties and Delivery of Articles brought from the East Indies, either as Presents or for private Use, particularly Specimens of Natural History, Models, Drawings, and other Articles tending to illustrate or improve the Arts or Sciences, arising from the Necessity of such Articles being exposed to Public Sale by the East India Company, in order to ascertain the Value according to which the Duties payable by Law are to be levied and collected, and such Articles are also thereby frequently exposed to great Injury and Damage: And whereas it is expedient in order to remedy such Inconvenience and Delay, that the Duties of Customs payable on such Goods should be ascertained without the same being in future exposed to Public Sale; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons who shall import, or bring into Great Britain from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charters granted to the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies any of the Articles before-mentioned, or any Articles whatever (not being prohibited to be used or consumed in Great Britain), on which the Duties of Customs are now chargeable according to the Value thereof, either as Presents or for private Use, and not by way of Merchandize, to enter the same with the proper Officers of His Majesty's Customs, such Goods having been first lodged and housed in Warehouses according to Law, and that the Value of such Goods according to which the Duties of Customs are due and payable, shall be ascertained according to the Declaration of the Value thereof, to be made by the Owner or Proprietor, or his known Agent, in the like Manner and Form, and under all the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, and subject and liable to such and the like Forfeitures and Penalties as are prescribed, directed, and imposed, with respect to Goods not imported by the East India Company, and on which the Duties of Customs are payable according to the Value thereof.

The Value of certain Articles to be valued by the Owners for the Purpose of ascertaining the Duty:

XXII. And be it further enacted, That any such Goods on which Duties of Customs have not been paid may be entered, and the Value ascertained according to the Directions of this Act, notwithstanding such Goods may have been imported or brought into Great Britain, on or before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine: Provided always, that no such Goods shall be admitted to Entry under the Authority of this Act, unless Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners

Such Goods may be entered and Value ascertained, although imported before July 5, 1809; Proof to be given that such Goods are for private Use.

Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any Three or more of them, that such Goods are imported or brought into Great Britain for private Use and not by way of Merchandize.

After the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, Silk Handkerchiefs of the Manufacture of Persia, China, or the East Indies, may be sold by the East India Company, and worn in Great Britain, &c.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Termination of the War by the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, it shall and may be lawful for the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, to expose to Sale either for the Purpose of being worn or used in Great Britain, or for Exportation, any Silk Handkerchiefs of the Manufacture of Persia, China, or the East Indies, that shall have been or may thereafter be secured in the Warehouses of the said United Company, subject nevertheless to the Duties by this Act imposed, or which may hereafter be imposed thereon, and all such Silk Handkerchiefs on which such Duties shall have been duly paid, shall and may be worn or used in Great Britain, or sold or exposed to Sale therein, and shall not be subject to Seizure or Forfeiture, nor shall the Person or Persons who shall wear or use the same, or who shall sell or expose to Sale the same, or have the same in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, be liable to any Penalty or Penalties, or Fine or Fines whatever on account thereof, any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Limiting the Quantity of Pieces to be sold.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That for the Space of Three Years from and after the said Ratification, the said United Company shall not, in any One Year, sell or expose to Sale a greater Quantity of such Silk Handkerchiefs than Fifty thousand Pieces, and that such Fifty thousand Pieces shall be of the usual Length, and of the Sorts that shall have been usually exposed to Sale.

Bounty to be allowed on the Exportation of Refined Sugar, produced from Sugar imported by the East India Company.

XXV. And whereas certain Bounties are allowed on the Exportation of Refined Sugar, produced from Raw Sugar imported from the British Plantations in America: And whereas it is expedient that the like Bounties should be allowed on the Exportation of Refined Sugar produced from Sugar imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, there shall be paid and allowed on the Exportation of Refined Sugar produced from Sugar imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, the like Bounty as is now or hereafter may be allowed by Law on the Exportation of the like Sort or Description of Refined Sugar, produced from Raw Sugar imported from the British Plantations in America, subject in every Respect to the Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, now by Law practised and applied with respect to the Bounty allowed on the Exportation of Refined Sugar.

Where Goods on Importation are chargeable according to the Value, it shall be considered the same as at the Port of XXVI. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where by the Schedule and Tables hereunto annexed the Duties of Customs by this Act imposed upon the Importation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize into Great Britain, are charged, not according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge, or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be taken and considered as the same shall be at the Port of Importation, without any Abatement or Deduction whatever, except of so much as the Duties payable able on the Importation thereof by this Act shall amount to, and that such Value shall be ascertained (except as in this Act is provided) by the Declaration of the Importer or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize so imported, or of his known Agent or Factor, in the Manner and Form, and under all the Rules and Regulations, and subject to the Rules and Regulations, and subject to the same Forfeitures and Penalties, as are prescribed, directed, and imposed for ascertaining and collecting Duties to be paid according to the Value thereof, by an Act passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties, together with the other Duties composing the Public Revenue; for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, the Produce or Manufacture of the European Dominions of the French King, into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Monies remaining in the Exchequer for the Payment of Annuities on Lives to the Reduction of the National Debt, and in case such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall not be valued according to the true and real Value thereof, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, then it shall be lawful for the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs to cause the same to be detained, and the said Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall be dealt with, and the proper Officers of the Customs shall proceed in every Respect in the Manner prescribed in such Case by the said recited Act.

Importation, which shall be ascertained according to 27 G. 3. c. 13. and if not truly valued may be detained;

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where, by the Schedule annexed marked A, the Duties of Customs by this Act imposed upon the Exportation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize from Great Britain, and charged, not according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge, or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be taken and considered as the same shall be at the Port of Exportation, without any Deduction or Abatement whatever, except of so much as the Duties of Customs paid or payable thereon at the Time of the Entry of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize shall amount to, and that such Value shall be ascertained (except as in this Act is provided) by the Declaration of the Exporter or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, or of his known Agent or Factor, in the Manner and Form, and under all the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, and subject to the same Forfeitures and Penalties as are prescribed, directed, and imposed for ascertaining and collecting the Duties to be paid according to the Value thereof, by the said recited Act passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and in case any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall not be valued according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, then it shall be lawful for the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs to cause the same to be detained, and the said Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be dealt with, and the proper Officers of the Customs shall proceed in every Respect except as herein-after is provided, in the Manner prescribed in such Case by the said recited Act.

And where, on Exportation according to the Value, it shall be considered the same as at the Port of Exportation, &c.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, subject to Duty on Exportation by this Act, according to the Value thereof, shall on Examination by the proper Officers of the Customs, be found to be under valued, and shall on that Account

In case Goods be undervalued the Exporter to be paid according to the Declaration made on Entry, and the Goods detained.

Account be detained, the Exporter or Proprietor shall in such Case be paid the Value of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, according to the Declaration made on the Entry thereof for Exportation, together with the Amount of the Customs paid thereon, at the Time of the Entry thereof, without any further Allowance whatever; any Thing in the said recited Act passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of His present Majesty, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Where real Value of Goods cannot be ascertained the Exportation may be permitted on the Exporter giving Bond for the Duties;

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if at the Time of making the Entry for the Exportation of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of Great Britain, on which the Duties of Customs by this Act granted, are charged in the Schedule hereunto annexed marked (A.), according to the Value thereof, the Exporter or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, so entered for Exportation, his known Agent or Factor shall not be able to ascertain the true and real Value thereof, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs at the Port of Exportation, to permit such Exporter or Proprietor, Agent or Factor, to ship or export such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, upon making Oath that such real Value cannot be ascertained, and upon Bond being given either by the Exporter or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, or by the known Agent or Factor, of such Exporter or Proprietor, to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with one sufficient Surety in Treble the Amount of the supposed or estimated Duty on the Value of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, conditioned for the Payment of the Duties hereby imposed, within Three Months, and according to the true and real Value thereof, and for producing the Invoice and Bills of Parcels, or such other Documents as shall be required by the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs at the Port of Exportation, in case the Production thereof shall be thought necessary by such Officers of the Customs, for the Purpose of ascertaining the true and real Value of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, so exported as aforesaid.

and it shall be declared in the Entry whether the Exporter shall be the Proprietor or Agent, &c.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That upon the Exportation of all Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, of which the real Value cannot be ascertained, and in Cases where the Duties are allowed to be secured by Bond as aforesaid, the Name of the actual and real Exporter, whether such Exporter shall be the Proprietor or the Agent or Factor of the Proprietor, shall be declared in the Entry, together with the Name of the Agent or Factor making the Entry, and giving such Bond, and the Declaration of the Value of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, according to which the Duties shall be ascertained and paid, and the Bond cancelled, shall in all such Cases be signed by such actual and real Exporter, and not by any Clerk, Agent, or Broker, of such Exporter.

Penalty for making a false Declaration of the Value.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Exporter of any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, entered for Exportation, shall knowingly and fraudulently make any false Declaration of the Value of any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, after the same shall have been allowed to be shipped for Exportation, every such Exporter shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum equal to the true and real Value of all such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize.

XXXII. And

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize upon which Duties of Customs are hereby imposed, shall be detained by any Officer of the Customs on account of the same not being valued according to the true and real Value thereof, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England for the Time being, or any Four or more of them, and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in Scotland for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, upon Proof being made to their Satisfaction that no Fraud was intended, to direct the Goods to be delivered, and the Entry to be amended, upon such Terms and Conditions as under the Circumstances of the Case shall appear to the said Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively to be reasonable, and as they shall think fit to direct: Provided always, that if the Importer, Exporter, or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall accept the Terms or Conditions prescribed by the said Commissioners of the Customs respectively, such Importer, Exporter, or Proprietor shall not have or be entitled to any Recompence or Damage, on account of the Detention of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, or have or maintain any Action whatever for the same, any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Commissioners of the Customs may direct Goods detained to be delivered on Proof that no Fraud was intended.

XXXIII. And whereas an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to enable the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of Great Britain to contract for the Duties of Prisage and Butlerage of Wine: And whereas by virtue of the said Act, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury did, in pursuance of the said recited Act, treat, contract, and agree with the most Noble Augustus Henry Duke of Grafton, in whom the Right of Prisage and Butlerage of all Wines brought into the Ports of London, and certain other Ports in England, was then become vested for the absolute Purchase and Surrender of his Estate, Right, Title, and Interest, in and to the Prisage and Butlerage of Wines, in order that the same should be revested in the Crown: And whereas the said Agreement so entered into was sanctioned and confirmed by an Act passed in the Forty-sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to confirm an Agreement entered into between the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the most Noble Augustus Henry Duke of Grafton, in pursuance of an Act of the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty: And whereas Doubts have arisen as to the Application and Appropriation of the Money arising since the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and six, from the Prisage and Butlerage of Wine entered in the Port of London and the other Ports in England, wherein the Right of Prisage and Butlerage had been purchased as aforesaid, of the most Noble Augustus Henry Duke of Grafton; therefore, in order to obviate those Doubts, be it enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, all Monies whatever that shall have been or may be received after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and six, by any Person whatever, whether employed in the Service of the Customs or otherwise, on account of the Prisage and Butlerage of Wine entered either at the Port of London or any of those Ports in England where the Right of Prisage and Butlerage has been purchased as aforesaid, shall be paid over to the Collector of the Customs in London or at and the Money ariſing from Compoſition for Priſage ſhall be paid in like Manner.

XXXIV. And whereas certain other Monies have ſince the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and ſix, been ſo received by Way of Compoſition for Priſage, and under that Deſcription; be it further enacted, That all Monies ſo received ſhall be paid over to the Collector of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, either in London, or any of thoſe Ports in England where the Right of Priſage and Butlerage has been purchaſed as aforeſaid, and the ſaid Collectors ſhall reſpectively cauſe the ſaid Monies to be appropriated and applied to the Account of Conſolidated Cuſtoms.

No Wine ſhall be admitted to Entry for Priſage, but ſhall be ſubject to the Duties of regular Importation.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine, no Wine of any Sort ſhall be admitted to Entry for Priſage either in the Port of London or either of thoſe Ports in England where the Right of Priſage has been ſo purchaſed as aforeſaid, but that Wine imported into London, or either of the ſaid Ports, ſhall from and after the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine, be ſubject and liable to the Duties of Cuſtoms, and no other, as in Caſes of regular Importation, as the ſame are deſcribed and ſet forth in Figures in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (A).

Butlerage Duty to ceaſe.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine, the Duty called Butlerage, and the Money formerly received by any or either of the Deputies of the ſaid Duke of Grafton, or any other Perſon for him or them under the Denomination of Compoſition, ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer due and payable Blubber and Oil, &c. Regulations to be obſerved on the Importation thereof.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That before any Blubber, Train Oil, or Spermaceti Oil, or Head Matter, or Whale Fins, imported into Great Britain, as being the Produce of Fiſh, or Creatures living in the Sea, taken and caught by the Crew of a Britiſh-built Ship or Veſſel wholly owned by His Majeſty's Subjects, uſually reſiding in Great Britain, Ireland, or the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, egiſtered and navigated according to Law, ſhall be admitted to Entry on Payment of the Duty by this Act impoſed on ſuch Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter, or Whale Fins reſpectively when imported in ſuch Shipping, the Maſter or other Perſon having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Veſſel in or on board of which the ſaid Articles ſhall be imported, ſhall make Oath before the Collector or Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms at the Port in Great Britain into which the ſame ſhall be imported, who is hereby authorized and required to adminiſter the ſame, that the ſame was or were bonâ fide the Produce of Fiſh or Creatures living in the Sea, actually taken and caught by the Crew of any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and the Importer, or Proprietor, or Conſignee of ſuch Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, or Head Matter, or Whale Fins, ſhall alſo make Oath before the Collector or Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms, (who are hereby authorized and required to adminiſter ſuch Oath) at the Time of the Entry, that to the beſt of his or their Knowledge and Belief the Articles ſo imported were bonâ fide the Produce of Fiſh, or Creatures living in the Sea, actually taken and caught by the Crew of a Britiſh-built Ship or Veſſel, wholly owned by His Majeſty's Subjects uſually reſiding in Great Britain, Ireland, or the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, regiſtered and navigated according to Law, on Failure whereof the ſaid Articles ſhall be deemed and taken to be of Foreign Fiſhing, and charged with the Duty impoſed by this Act on ſuch Articles of Foreign Fiſhery.

Blubber and Oil, &c. of the Fiſhery of Newfoundland, on what Condition the ſame ſhall be admitted.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That before any Blubber, Train Oil, or Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter, or Whale-fins, imported into Great Britain as being taken and caught on the Banks and Shores of Newfoundland and Parts adjacent, wholly by His Majeſty's Subjects carrying on ſuch Fiſhery from that Iſland, and reſiding therein, or as being actually taken and caught wholly by His Majeſty's Subjects uſually reſiding in any Britiſh Colony or Plantation in North America, or uſually reſiding in any other Britiſh Colony, Plantation, Territory or Settlement, ſhall be admitted to Entry on Payment of the Duty by this Act impoſed on ſuch Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter, or Whale Fins reſpectively, when imported in a Britiſh-built Ship or Veſſel, regiſtered and navigated according to Law, the Maſter or other Perſon having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Veſſel in which the ſame ſhall be imported, ſhall produce and deliver to the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms of the Port of Importation, a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms of the Port or Place in the Colony, Plantation, Territory, or Settlement where the Articles ſhall have been taken on board; or if no ſuch Officer ſhall be reſiding there, then a Certificate ſhall be produced under the Hand and Seal of the Governor, or in his Abſence under the Hand and Seal of the Deputy Governor, of ſuch Colony, Plantation, Territory, or Settlement, teſtifying that Oath had been made before him (who is hereby authorized and required in ſuch Caſe to adminiſter the ſame, and to grant ſuch Certificate) by the Maſter of the Ship from which the Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fins mentioned in ſuch Certificate, had been landed in ſuch Colony, Plantation, Territory, or Settlement; that the ſame was or were really and bonâ fide the Produce of Fiſh or Creatures living in the Sea, actually caught and taken wholly by His Majeſty's Subjects carrying on ſuch Fiſhery, and uſually reſiding in ſuch Colony, Plantation, Territory, or Settlement; and the Maſter or other Perſon having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Veſſel in which the Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter, or Whale Fins ſhall be ſo imported into Great Britain, ſhall make Oath before ſuch Collector or other Chief Officer at the Port of Importation (who is hereby authorized and required to adminiſter the ſame) that the Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter, or Whale Fins ſo imported are the ſame as mentioned and referred to in the ſaid Certificate, and the Importer or Importers, Conſignee or Conſignees of ſuch Articles reſpectively, ſhall alſo make Oath before the Collector or Comptroller, or other proper Officer of the Cuſtoms (who are hereby authorized and required to adminiſter ſuch Oath) at the Time of the Entry, that to the beſt of his or their Knowledge and Belief the Articles ſo imported were actually caught and taken by Britiſh Subjects

Subjects usually residing in such Colony, Plantation, Territory, or Settlement, as the Case may be, and on Failure of such Certificate being produced, and Proof on Oath as aforesaid being made, the Articles shall be deemed and taken to be of Foreign Fishing, and charged with the Duty by this Act imposed on such Articles of Foreign Fishing.

Foreign Goods which have been exported, and afterwards returned, to be subject to Duty.

XXXIX. And whereas Doubts have arisen whether Foreign Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, which have been regularly imported into Great Britain, and afterwards exported from thence to Parts beyond the Seas, are upon Re-importation subject to the Duties of Customs; be it therefore declared and enacted, That all such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, so returned into Great Britain, shall be subject and liable to all such Duties of Customs as are by this Act granted upon Importation of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize.

That Part of 24 G. 2. c 51 requiring Certificates on the Entry of Pot and Pearl Ashes, repealed.

XL. And whereas by an Act passed in the Twenty-fourth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging the making of Pot Ashes and Pearl Ashes in the British Plantations in America, certain Certificates and Oaths were required to be produced and made on the Entry of any Pot and Pearl Ashes of the Product and Manufacture of any of the British Colonies in America: And whereas the Production of such Certificates, and the requiring such Oaths, are no longer necessary; be it therefore enacted, That the said recited Act shall be, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, repealed.

Raw Linen Yarn may be imported in any Vessel of any Country in Amity, for a limited Time.

XLI. And whereas it is expedient to encourage the Importation of Raw Linen Yarn into Great Britain, be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, and during the Continuance of Hostilities, and until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to import into Great Britain any Sort of Raw Linen Yarn, in any Ship or Vessel belonging to any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, subject to such and the like Duties only as would have been due and payable for such Raw Linen Yarn if the same had been imported in a British-built Ship or Vessel, owned, navigated, and registered according to Law.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That such of the Duties of Customs by this Act imposed as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England for the Time being; and such thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland for the Time being.

Duties and Drawbacks under this Act to be levied, &c. as former Duties, unless hereby altered.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Sums of Money respectively inserted, described, and set forth, in Figures in the said Schedule and Tables hereunto annexed marked A. B. C. and D. as the Duties of Customs, and the Drawbacks of the Duties of Customs upon, for, or in respect of the several Goods, Wares, or Merchandize specified therein, or as the Duties of Customs on Ships or Vessels according to the Tonnage thereof, may and shall respectively be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered, and allowed, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act, in such and the like Manner, and by the same Means, Ways, or Methods, as former Duties of Customs and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs upon Goods, Wares, or Merchandize in general, and also by any such special Means, Ways, or Methods respectively, as former Duties of Customs and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs upon Goods, Wares, or Merchandize of the same Sorts or Kinds, or Duties on Ships or Vessels according to the Tonnage thereof respectively, were or might be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered, and allowed, and the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize whereon Duties of Customs are by this Act charged, and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs allowed as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in the said Schedule and Tables hereunto annexed, marked A. B. C. and D. upon the Importation thereof into, or Exportation thereof from Great Britain, or on any other Account whatever, and all Ships and Vessels whereon any Duties are charged or payable according to the Tonnage thereof, shall be and the same are hereby made subject and liable to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Restrictions, Seizures, and Forfeitures, to which Goods, Wares, or Merchandize in general, and also all and every the special Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Seizures, Sales, and Forfeitures respectively, to which the like Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, or Ships or Vessels whereon any Duties are chargeable or payable according to the Tonnage thereof respectively, were subject and liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force on and immediately before the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, respecting the Revenue of Customs, or such Tonnage Duties as aforesaid, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act, and all Pains, Penalties, Fines, and Forfeitures of whatever Nature or Kind the same may be, as well Pains of Death as others for any Offence whatever committed against or in breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force on and immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, made for securing the Revenue of Customs, or such Tonnage Duties as aforesaid, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the several Clauses, Powers, Provisions, and Declarations contained in any such Act or Acts, shall (unless where expressly altered by this Act), and are hereby directed and declared to extend to, and shall be respectively applied, practised, and put in Execution for and in respect of the several Duties of Customs and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs hereby charged and allowed, in as full and ample Manner to all Intents and Purposes whatever, as if all and every the said Acts, Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Directions, Fines, Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act and made Part thereof.

Commissioners of Customs finally to settle the Accounts of Collectors, &c.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England for the Time being, or any Four or more of them, and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in Scotland for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, finally to settle and close the Accounts of any Collectors or Receivers of any Part of the Revenue of Customs, or other Duties under their Management, notwithstanding any erroneous Application of any Duties of Customs received by them; and the said Commissioners are hereby respectively empowered to correct such Application, in order to prevent the Accounts of any such Collectors or Receivers from being kept open, unsettled, and unliquidated; and all such Corrections shall and are hereby directed to be allowed by the Commissioners for better examining and auditing the Public Accounts of the Kingdom, in the passing the general Account of Customs, Subsidies, or Impositions.

Duties of Customs, though the Amount may have been computed, &c. before July 5, 1809, shall be applied in like Manner as the Duties by this Act granted, except otherwise provided.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That all Monies arising from any Duties of Customs, or any Arrears thereof that shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, or received from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, for or on account of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize whatever, imported or brought into Great Britain, or exported from Great Britain, or brought or carried Coastwise, or from Port to Port within Great Britain, although the Amount of the said Duties may have been computed and ascertained as such Duties have been usually computed and ascertained before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, and although the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, whereon any such Duties of Customs may have been charged, or may be charged, may have been imported or exported, or brought or carried Coastwise, or from Port to Port within Great Britain, before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, and although any Duties of Customs due and payable, or charged or chargeable thereon, may have been secured by Bond or otherwise, on or before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, shall from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, be appropriated and applied in like Manner and to the same Purposes as the Duties of Customs by this Act granted, and herein-after directed to be appropriated and applied, except as is in this Act provided, any Act or Acts of Parliament, Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding; and that all Monies arising by any of the Revenues of Customs hereafter to be paid or allowed, either upon Bond or otherwise, either by way of Drawback, Bounty, Certificate, Premium, or Allowance, or by any other legal Document whatever, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, although the Amount of the same shall have been computed and ascertained in like Manner in which they have heretofore been usually computed and ascertained, or shall have become due before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nine, shall and may be paid or allowed in like Manner by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs out of any Monies in their Hands, arising from the Duties of Customs respectively.

Duties to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising by the Duties of Customs imposed by this Act, described in the Schedule and Tables hereunto annexed, marked A. B. C. and D. under the Head of Permanent Duties (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, and be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, except as by this Act is specially provided, and shall be appropriated in like Manner and to the same Services as the Permanent Duties hereby repealed would have been if this Act had not been paſſed.

Permanent Duties to be kept ſeparate, &c.

XLVII. And whereas by divers Acts for granting ſeveral of the Duties hereby repealed, it is provided, that during the Space of Ten Years then next enſuing, there ſhould be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer, a Book or Books in which all the Monies ariſing from the ſaid reſpective Duties ſhould, together with ſuch other Duties as were reſpectively granted for the Purpoſe of making permanent Additions to the Public Revenue, and of defraying any Charges occaſioned by certain Loans made, and Stocks created by the Authority of Parliament, be entered, ſeparate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, upon any Account whatever: And whereas it is expedient, that the Permanent Duties by this Act granted and deſcribed as Permanent Duties, except where ſpecial Proviſion is otherwiſe made by this Act, ſhould be entered in one Account, but that Proviſion ſhould nevertheleſs be hereby made for aſcertaining the Produce of ſuch ſeveral Grants of Duties for the Remainder of ſuch reſpective Periods; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine, the Duties of Cuſtoms and Tonnage granted by this Act as Permanent Duties, except as by this Act is otherwiſe ſpecially provided, ſhall be entered together in one Account, and that from and after the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine, the Lord High Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three or more of them for the Time being, ſhall, for and during the Remainder of the reſpective Periods of Ten Years to be computed from the Time of granting ſuch of the ſaid Duties as aforeſaid, as were ſo directed to be entered ſeparately as aforeſaid, cauſe ſeparate and diſtinct Accounts of what ſuch Duties would have amounted to, in caſe the ſame had not been and were not reſpectively hereby conſolidated and collected with other Duties of Cuſtoms and Tonnage, to be made out in ſuch Manner and Form as ſhall appear to the Lord High Treaſurer, or the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, beſt adapted to aſcertain ſuch Amounts reſpectively, which Accounts the ſaid Lord High Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners for the Time being, are hereby required to cauſe to be laid before Parliament, together with the Public Accounts directed to be laid before Parliament, purſuant to the Proviſions of the ſaid recited Act paſſed in the Forty-ſecond Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty aforeſaid, intituled, An Act for directing certain Public Accounts to be laid annually before Parliament, and for diſcontinuing certain other Forms of Account now in Uſe. 42 G. 3. c. 70.

105,000l. the eſtimated Increaſe of Duties deemed an Addition made to the Revenue.

XLVIII. And whereas in the Conſolidation of the Duties of Cuſtoms on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, under this Act, ſuch Duties are in various Inſtances increaſed, be it therefore enacted, That of the Monies ariſing or to ariſe out of ſuch Increaſe of the Duties hereby granted, and which Duties are denominated and deſcribed in the Schedule and Tables hereunto annexed, marked A. B. C. and D. under the Title of permanent Duties, the Sum of One hundred and five thouſand Pounds, being the eſtimated Produce of ſuch Increaſe, ſhall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpoſe of defraying the increaſed Charge occaſioned ſioned by any Loan made or to be made by virtue of any Act or Acts paſſed or to be paſſed in this Seſſion of Parliament.

Treaſury to direct an Account of the Hereditary Revenue to be kept.

XLIX. And whereas by the Conſolidation of the different Branches of the Public Revenue, and of the ſeveral Duties payable on the Importation and Exportation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and the Appropriation thereof, as directed by the ſaid recited Act of the Twenty-ſeventh Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign and ſubſequent Acts, the Hereditary and Temporary Revenues of the Crown of Subſidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and of other Duties upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, are not now kept diſtinct and ſeparate at the ſeveral Offices, but have become blended with other Duties of Cuſtoms and Tonnage, both in the Collection and Appropriation thereof: And whereas it is expedient that Proviſion ſhould be made for aſcertaining the annual Amount of what ſuch Hereditary Revenues would have produced in caſe the ſame had not been ſo conſolidated, and that an Account ſhould hereafter be kept of ſuch annual Amount; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the ſaid Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and nine, the Lord High Treaſurer or Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, ſhall cauſe to be prepared and kept, an Account of what ſuch Hereditary Revenue would have amounted to in caſe the ſame had not been and was not hereby conſolidated and collected with other Duties of Cuſtoms and Tonnage in the Collection and Appropriation thereof, in ſuch Manner and Form as ſhall appear to the Lord High Treaſurer, or the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, beſt adapted to aſcertain ſuch Amount, which Account the Lord High Treaſurer or Lords Commiſſioners for the Time being are hereby required to make out, or cauſe to be made out and laid before Parliament, together with the public Accounts directed to be laid before Parliament purſuant to the Proviſions of an Act paſſed in the Forty-ſecond Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for directing certain Publick Accounts to be laid annually before Parliament, and for diſcontinuing certain other Forms of Account now in Uſe.

42 G. 3. c. 70.

Hereditary Revenue in Scotland not to be affected.

L. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to affect or alter the Hereditary Revenue of His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors in Scotland, or other Revenues there granted to His late Majeſty King George the Second during His Life, and reſerved to His preſent Majeſty during His Life by an Act made in the Firſt Year of His Majeſty's Reign; but the ſame and the Civil Eſtabliſhment payable out of the ſame ſhall continue to be paid in like Manner as heretofore; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

LI. And whereas by an Act paſſed in the Forty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for charging the Sum of Twelve Millions, Part of the Loan of Twelve Millions two hundred thouſand Pounds, raiſed for the Service of Great Britain for the Year One thouſand eight hundred and ſeven, upon the Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe granted to His Majeſty during the Continuance of the preſent War, and for certain Periods after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace; and for providing a Sinking Fund for the Redemption of the Stocks or Funds thereby created, in order to defray the Charge of Twelve Millions Part of the Loan for the Service of the then Year, it was directed that the annual Sum of One Million two hundred thouſand Pounds ſhould be during the Continuance of the preſent War, and until Six Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace ſet apart, and appropriated to the Conſolidated Fund out of the Produce of the Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe granted to His Majeſty during the Continuance of the War, and until certain Periods after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace; be it therefore enacted, That the Duties of Cuſtoms deſcribed in the Schedule and Tables hereunto annexed, marked A. B. C. and D. under the Head of "Temporary or War Duties," ſhall be chargeable with the ſame annual Sum of One Million two hundred thouſand Pounds in like Manner, in the ſame Proportion, and for the like Period, and under the ſame Regulations and Proviſions in all Reſpects, as the Duties of Cuſtoms in the ſaid laſt recited Act mentioned, which are hereby repealed, and all the Proviſions contained in the ſaid laſt recited Act with reſpect to the Duties of Cuſtoms hereby repealed ſhall be in force, and applied to the Duties of Cuſtoms deſcribed as laſt aforeſaid, under the Head "Temporary or War Duties."

47 G. 3. c. 55.

Temporary or War Duties chargeable with the Annual Sum of 1,200,000l.

LII. And be it further enacted, That the Monies ariſing by the Duties of Cuſtoms deſcribed in the Schedule and Tables hereunto annexed, marked A. B. C. and D. under the Head of "Temporary or War Duties" (the neceſſary Charges of raiſing and accounting for the ſame excepted) ſhall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer diſtinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenues, and that there ſhall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the ſaid Receipt of the Exchequer, a Book or Books in which all the Monies ariſing from the ſaid reſpective Duties, and paid into the ſaid Receipt as aforeſaid, ſhall be entered ſeparate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, upon any Account whatever, and the ſaid Monies ſo paid into the ſaid Receipt (ſubject to the Appropriation directed by the ſaid laſt recited Act of the Forty-ſeventh Year aforeſaid, with reſpect to the Duties therein mentioned and hereby repealed, as is herein-before mentioned) ſhall, from Time to Time, as the ſame ſhall be paid into the ſaid Receipt, be iſſued and applied to ſuch Services as ſhall then have been voted by the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, for the Service of the Year One thouſand eight hundred and nine, or ſhall be voted for the Service of any ſubſequent Year, and the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, are hereby authorized to iſſue and apply the ſame accordingly.

Temporary or War Duties to be kept ſeparate, and applied in aid of the Services for 1809.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be brought or commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, ſuch Action or Suit ſhall be commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and ſhall be laid in the County or Place where the Cauſe of Complaint did
