C A P. XXXIV.

An Act for allowing the Exportation of British and Irish made Malt from one Part of the United Kingdom to the other. [24th May 1810.]

WHEREAS by the Laws now in force, Malt is prohibited from being imported into Great Britain and Ireland respectively: And whereas it is expedient that a free Intercourse thereof should be permitted between those Parts of the United Kingdom, subject to such Countervailing Duties on the Import thereof respectively, as shall be equal to the internal Duty payable on Malt in the Country into which such Malt shall be imported, and that all Malt imported from Great Britain to Ireland, or from Ireland to Great Britain, should be entitled to Drawbacks respectively, equal in Amount to such Countervailing Duties; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of December One thousand eight hundred and ten, it shall and may be lawful to import directly into Great Britain Malt unground made in Ireland; and also to import directly into Ireland Malt unground made in Great Britain, subject to the Duties and Drawbacks by this Act imposed and allowed, and under, subject, and according to such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions as are provided, settled, or established of and concerning the same by this Act, or as may be provided, settled, or established by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

From Dec. 1, 1810, Malt unground may be imported into Great Britain from Ireland, and imported into Ireland from Great Britain, subject to the following Duties and Drawbacks:

Duties.

II. And be it further enacted, That for all ſuch Malt ſo imported there ſhall be paid the following Countervailing Duties; that is to ſay, for every Buſhel of ſuch Malt made in Ireland, and imported directly from thence into that Part of Great Britain called England, the Sum of Four Shillings and Four-pence; for every Buſhel of ſuch Malt made in Ireland, and imported directly from thence into that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the Sum of Three Shillings and Eight-pence, and Ten-Twentieths of a Farthing; for every Barrel of ſuch Malt made in Great Britain and imported directly from thence into Ireland, the Sum of Ten Shillings Britiſh Currency.

Drawbacks.

III. And be it further enacted, That for all ſuch Malt ſo exported there ſhall be allowed the following Drawbacks; that is to ſay, for every Buſhel of Malt made in that Part of Great Britain called England, for which all the Duties impoſed for or in reſpect thereof ſhall have been fully paid and exported from thence to Ireland unground, the Sum of Four Shillings and Four-pence; for every Buſhel of Malt made from Barley or any other Corn or Grain, except Beer or Big in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for which all the Duties impoſed for or in reſpect thereof ſhall have been fully paid, and exported from thence to Ireland unground, the Sum of Three Shillings and Eight-pence and Ten-twentieths of a Farthing; for every Barrel of Malt made in Ireland, for which all the Duties impoſed for or in reſpect thereof ſhall have been fully paid, and exported from thence to Great Britain unground, the Sum of Ten Shillings Britiſh Currency.

Deſcription of Buſhel to be uſed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That by the Buſhel in this Act mentioned ſo far as relates to the Drawback on the Exportation of Malt from Great Britain, and the Duty on the Importation thereof into Great Britain, is meant and intended a Buſhel, according to the Standard remaining in the Cuſtody of the Chamberlain of His Majeſty's Exchequer in England, commonly called or known by the Name of The Wincheſter Buſhel, and that every round Buſhel with a plain and even Bottom being made Eighteen Inches and a Half Wide throughout, and Eight Inches Deep ſhall be eſteemed for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, a legal Wincheſter Buſhel according to the ſaid Standard; and that by the Buſhel in this Act mentioned, ſo far as relates to the Drawback on the Exportation of Malt from Ireland, and the Duty on the Importation thereof into Ireland is meant and intended the Buſhel known by the Name of The Wincheſter Buſhel, containing Eight Gallons of Two hundred and ſeventy-two Cubical Inches and a Quarter of an Inch each, and that Four ſuch Buſhels ſhall be deemed a Barrel.

Duties and Drawbacks to be under the Commiſſioners of Exciſe.

V. And be it further enacted, That ſuch of the ſaid Duties and Drawbacks as ſhall ariſe in that Part of Great Britain called England, ſhall be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in England for the Time being, and ſuch thereof as ſhall ariſe in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, ſhall be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in Scotland for the Time being, and ſuch thereof as ſhall ariſe in Ireland, ſhall be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms and Port Duties in Ireland for the Time being, and that ſuch Duties and Drawbacks as ſhall ariſe in that Part of Great Britain called Ireland, ſhall be managed, aſcertained, raiſed, levied, collected, anſwered, paid, recovered, and accounted for in Ireland, in ſuch and the like Manner as any Duties or Drawbacks of a like Nature payable in Ireland, and under and ſubject to the ſeveral Powers, Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Reſtrictions, Forfeitures, Fines, Pains, and Penalties now in force, in relation to or made for ſecuring the Revenue of Cuſtoms and Port Duties in Ireland, and all Fines, Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures for any Offence committed againſt or in breach of any Act of Parliament in force at the Time of paſſing this Act, for recovering the ſaid Revenues in Ireland, ſhall be in full force as to the ſaid Duties and Drawbacks, as fully and effectually as if they were made a Part of this Act.

Duties to be carried to the Conſolidated Fund.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies ariſing by the Duties by this Act impoſed, the neceſſary Charges of raiſing and accounting for the ſame excepted, ſhall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer at Weſtminſter and Dublin reſpectively, and ſhall be carried to and made Part of the Conſolidated Fund of Great Britain and Ireland reſpectively.

Commencement of Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall commence and take Effect as to all ſuch Matters and Things therein contained, in reſpect whereof no Special Commencement is hereby directed or provided, from and immediately after the Firſt Day of December One thouſand eight hundred and ten.
