sole Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England for the Time being, and be applied in the Manner directed by the said last recited Act of the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and ten, all and singular the Duties payable to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on and immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and ten, upon the Importation of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize into the Isle of Man, shall cease and determine, save and except any such Duties as may, on the said Fifth Day of July remain unpaid, upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize which shall have been imported at any Time before the said Fifth Day of July; and in lieu of the said Duties hereby made to cease and determine, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Sterling Money of Great Britain, upon Goods, Wares, or Merchandize imported and brought into the said Isle of Man, the several Duties of Customs as the same are inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked (A); any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

From July 5, 1810, the Duties payable on Goods imported into the Isle of Man shall cease and in lieu thereof the Duties mentioned in Schedule A. shall be paid.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Duties granted and imposed by this Act, and made payable according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge, Measure, or Value of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize charged with such Duties, shall be charged and payable upon any greater or less Weight, Tale, Gauge, Measure, or Value thereof, than the Weight, Tale, Gauge, Measure, or Value particularly inserted, described, and set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed, according to the Account taken of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, at the Time of the Examination thereof by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs.

The Duties shall be paid in Proportion to any greater or less Weight, &c. than set forth in the Schedule.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Act of Parliament in force on and immediately before the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and ten, by which any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize prohibited to be imported or exported from the said Isle of Man, or by which any Rules, Regulations, Conditions, or Restrictions, were made, established, or directed, for the better securing the Revenue of Customs in the said Isle of Man or Great Britain, or for the regular Importation into the said Isle of Man of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, or the entering or landing thereof, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act, and all Provisions, Clauses, Matters, and Things relating thereto, shall and are hereby declared to be and remain in full Force and Effect, and shall be applied to the Subject of this Act, and for carrying the same into Execution, as fully and effectually as if they had been repeated and re-enacted in this present Act.

Acts in force for establishing Regulations for securing the Revenue, &c. extended to this Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where by the said Schedule hereunto annexed, the Duties of Customs by this Act imposed upon the Importation of Goods, Wares, or Merchandize into the Isle of Man, are charged not according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge, or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be taken and considered as the same shall be at the Port of Importation, without any

How the Value of Goods shall be taken to ascertain the Duties payable.

Abatement or Deduction whatever, except of ſo much as the Duties payable on the Importation thereof by this Act ſhall amount to, and that ſuch Value ſhall be aſcertained by the Declaration of the Importer or Proprietor of ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize ſo imported, or of his known Agent or Factor, in Manner and Form following; videlicet,

Form of Declaration of the Value of Goods.

'I A.B. do hereby declare, That the Goods mentioned in this Entry, and 'contained in the Packages [here ſpecifying the ſeveral Packages, and 'deſcribing the ſeveral Marks and Numbers [as the Caſe may be], and that 'I am the Importer or Proprietor thereof, or, that I am duly authorized 'by him [as the Caſe may be], and I do enter the ſame at the Value 'of

'Collector, Comptroller or other principal Officer.'

Which Declaration ſhall be written on the Warrant of the Entry of ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, and ſhall be ſubſcribed with the Hand of the Importer or Proprietor thereof, or his known Agent or Factor, in the Preſence of Two of the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms at the Port of Importation, of which the Collector ſhall be One, who ſhall certify the ſame under their Hands; and ſuch Declaration, ſo made and ſigned as herein-before directed, ſhall be to all Intents and Purpoſes whatever of the ſame Force and Effect, and the Importer or Proprietor of ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, ſhall be in every reſpect bound by ſuch Declaration, as fully and effectually as if the Value of ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize had been aſcertained by the Oath or Affirmation of ſuch Importer or Proprietor.

Goods may be ſeized, if not truly valued, accounting to the Owner for the Value ſo aſcertained, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That if upon View or Examination of ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize by the proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms, it ſhall appear to him or them that ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize are not valued according to the true Price or Value thereof, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, then it ſhall and may be lawful for the proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms to detain ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, and to cauſe the ſame to be conveyed into His Majeſty's Warehouſe, or otherwiſe properly ſecured at the Port of Importation, and to take ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize for the Uſe and Benefit of the Crown, within Eight Days from the Landing thereof, and the Collector of the Cuſtoms in the Port where ſuch Goods ſhall be detained with the Privity of his Comptroller, is hereby empowered to pay out of any Money in his Hands, ariſing from the Revenue of Cuſtoms to the Importer or Proprietor of ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, the Value thereof ſo aſcertained as aforeſaid, together with an Addition of Ten Pounds per Centum thereon, and alſo the Duties paid on the Importation of ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, but without any further Allowance either on account of Freight, or any other Charge or Expence whatever; which Payment ſhall be made within Fifteen Days after the ſaid Goods, Wares, or Merchandize ſhall have been ſo taken, and ſuch Payment ſo made to the Importer or Proprietor of ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, ſhall be in full Satisfaction for the ſame, to all Intents and Purpoſes as if the ſaid Goods, Wares, or Merchandize had been regularly ſold.

VI. And

After Sale of such Goods, how the Proceeds shall be disposed of.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Collector and Comptroller to cause the said Goods, Wares, or Merchandize to be fairly and publickly sold to the best Advantage, and in case there shall be any Overplus remaining from the Produce of such Sale, after deducting the Value so ascertained as aforesaid, together with the Addition of Ten Pounds per Centum thereon, and of the Duties paid on the Importation, and also the Charges arising from the Warehousing and Sale of such Goods, the Collector and Comptroller shall and may pay one Moiety of the Overplus to the several and respective Officers of the Customs, concerned in the View and Examination of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, as an Encouragement for the faithful Discharge of their Duty, and the other Moiety of such Overplus, together with the Amount of the Value of such Goods so ascertained as aforesaid, with the Addition of Ten Pounds per Centum, and also of the Duties payable on the Importation thereof, shall be remitted to the Receiver General of the Customs in England, to be applied in like Manner as if the same had been received on Account of the Duties of Customs by this Act granted and imposed; but in case it shall so happen that the Produce of such Sale, after deducting the Charges arising from the Warehousing, Securing, or Sale of [illegible] Goods, shall not exceed the Value of such Goods so ascertained as aforesaid, with the Addition of Ten Pounds per Centum thereon, and of the Duties paid on the Importation thereof, that then and in such case the whole Produce of the Sale of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, after deducting the Charge arising from the Warehousing, Securing, and Sale thereof, shall be remitted to the said Receiver General of the Customs in England, to be applied in like Manner as if the same had been received on Account of Duties.

Where no Fraud appears to be intended, the Commissioners may order the Goods to be delivered up and the Entry amended.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, upon which Duties of Customs are hereby imposed, shall be detained by any Officer of the Customs on Account of the same not being valued according to the true and real Value thereof, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs for the Time being, or any Four or more of them, upon Proof being made to their Satisfaction that no Fraud was intended, to direct the Goods to be delivered and the Entry to be amended, upon such Terms and Conditions as under the Circumstances of the Case shall appear to the said Commissioners of the Customs to be reasonable, and as they shall think fit to direct; provided always that if the Importer or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall accept the Terms or Conditions prescribed by the said Commissioners of the Customs respectively, such Importer or Proprietor shall not have or be entitled to any Recompence or Damage on Account of the Detention of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, or have or maintain any Action whatever for the same; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Duties to be paid to the Collector and to be under the Management of the Commissioners of

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Rates and Duties shall be paid in ready Money to the Collector or Collectors of the Customs in the said Isle of Man appointed to receive the same without any Discount or Allowance whatever, and shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, and accounted for under the Authority and Direction, and under the Management and Controul of the said Commissioners of the Customs in England for the Time being, in like Manner and Form, and by the ſame Rules and Regulations, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things not hereby altered, and as far as the ſame are applicable, as the Duties of Cuſtoms in England are raiſed, levied, collected, paid, recovered, and accounted for, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purpoſes as if the ſeveral Clauſes, Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, relating thereto were particularly repeated and again enacted in this preſent Act. the Cuſtoms in England.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all Sums of Money received under the Authority of this Act ſhall be remitted to the Receiver General and Caſhier of the Cuſtoms in England agreeably to ſuch Directions as may from Time to Time be given for that Purpoſe by the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England, to be paid into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer diſtinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and ſuch Part thereof as ſhall remain, after the neceſſary Expences attending the Government of the ſaid Iſle of Man, and the Adminiſtration of Juſtice there, and all other Charges, are from Time to Time defrayed, ſhall go to and make Part of the Conſolidated Fund of Great Britain. Money to be remitted to the Receiver General, and applied to the Conſolidated Fund.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Collector of the Cuſtoms at the Port of Douglas in the ſaid Iſle, for the Time being, ſhall, as ſoon after the Expiration of each Quarter of every Year, ending on the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October reſpectively in each Year, as the ſame can be done, make out an Account of the groſs Produce of the Duties of Cuſtoms payable and ariſing within the ſaid Iſland in the preceding Quarter, in ſuch Form as ſhall be directed by the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three of them, for the Time being, and ſhall tranſmit and certify ſuch Account to the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being; and a Duplicate ſo certified to the Auditor for the Time being of the Exchequer; and another Duplicate to the moſt Noble John Duke of Atholl, or to the Perſon entitled for the Time being to any Annuity out of the Conſolidated Fund, to be calculated on any Amount of ſuch Duties under any Act or Acts now in force, or hereafter to be made, to any Perſon or Perſons appointed by him or them, by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, to receive the ſame; and if any ſuch Collector of the Cuſtoms at the ſaid Port of Douglas ſhall refuſe or neglect to make out ſuch Account, or to tranſmit ſuch Duplicates as aforeſaid, for the Space of One Month after the ſame can be done, ſuch Collector of the Cuſtoms ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and the further Sum of Two hundred Pounds for each and every Month ſucceeding ſuch Firſt Month, for which he ſhall omit or neglect to make out ſuch Account, or to ſend ſuch Duplicates ſo certified as aforeſaid; and to be recovered in any of His Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in which no Eſſoign or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, or in any Court in the ſaid Iſland; and every ſuch Penalty ſhall go and be applied to the Uſe of the ſaid John Duke of Atholl, or the Perſon or Perſons for the Time being entitled to ſuch Annuity as aforeſaid. Collector to make up a Quarterly Account of the Produce of the Duties, and tranſmit the ſame to the Treaſury, as alſo a Duplicate to the Auditor, and another to the Duke of Atholl. Penalty for Neglect.

XI. And be it further enacted, That there ſhall be provided and kept by the ſaid Collector of the Cuſtoms at the ſaid Port of Douglas, for the Time being, a Book or Books in which the Duties of Cuſtoms ariſing and payable within the Iſle of Man under this Act ſhall be entered ſepa- Collector to keep Books, in which the Duties ſhall be entered under diſtinct Heads, &c.

rate and under diſtinct Heads, ſpecifying the reſpective Amount of the Duties of Cuſtoms on the ſeveral Articles imported by Licence of the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively, and the Amount of Duties on Goods, Wares, or Merchandize not imported by Licence; and if any of the ſaid Duties, or any Part or Proportion of any ſuch Duties, ſhall at any Time hereafter be repealed, altered, or varied, then and in ſuch Caſe the average Produce of the Duties, or Proportion of Duties, ſo repealed, altered, or varied, for the Three Years preceding the Fifth Day of January immediately preceding ſuch Repeal, Alteration, or Variation of ſuch Duties as aforeſaid, ſhall be entered diſtinctly and ſeparately in ſuch Book or Books as aforeſaid; and if any new Duties ſhall be granted in lieu of any Duties ſo repealed, altered, or varied, then and in ſuch Caſe the Duties, or ſuch a Proportion thereof as ſhall be equal to any Duties ſo repealed, or to ſuch Proportions of any ſuch Duties as ſhall be ſo altered or varied, ſhall alſo be entered diſtinctly and ſeparately in ſuch Book or Books: Provided, that it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons to import, without Payment of any Cuſtom or other Duty, into the ſaid Iſle of Man, in any Ship or Veſſel from any Port or Place, any Flax, Flax Seed, Raw or Brown Linen Yarn, Wood Aſhes, Weed Aſhes, Fleſh of all Sorts, and any Sort of Corn or Grain, from any Part or Place (except from Great Britain only), and any Quantity of Herrings not exceeding One thouſand Barrels of Herrings annually for the Conſumption of the Iſland, on Failure of the Fiſhery carried on upon the Coaſt thereof; the ſaid Herrings being imported by virtue and in purſuance of Licence granted for that Purpoſe by the Houſe of Keys in the ſaid Iſland.
