CAP. XLIV.

An Act to provide for a durable Allowance of Superannuation to the Officers of Exciſe in Scotland, under certain Reſtrictions. [2d June 1810]

WHEREAS an Act was paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament intituled, An Act to provide for a durable Allowance of Superannuation to the Officers of Exciſe under certain Reſtrictions: And whereas the Allowance of Superannuation thereby made, was provided only for the Officers of Exciſe in England; but it is expedient to make a ſimilar Proviſion for an Allowance of Superannuation to the Officers of Exciſe in Scotland: May it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three or more of them for the Time being, by Warrant under their Hands to grant and allow out of the Revenue of Exciſe of Scotland, to any Officer or other Perſon who ſhall have been employed in the ſaid Revenue for and during the Space of Ten Years at the leaſt, and who ſhall by Age or Infirmity have become incapable of properly executing or performing the Duties of his Office, a Penſion, Annuity, or yearly Payment not exceeding Three Fourth Parts of the Average annual Amount of the Salary which ſhall have been received by ſuch Officer or other Perſon during the whole Period of Seven Years preceding the Reſignation of ſuch Officer or other Perſon.

49 G. 3. c. 96.

Treaſury may allow to Officers or other Perſons employed in the Revenue of Exciſe incapable of performing their Duty from Age or Infirmity, Three Fourths of their Salary;

And also to Officers or other Persons so employed, rendered incapable by Accidents.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the Time being, to grant and allow, out of the said Revenue of Excise, to any such Officer or other Person as aforesaid, who, by Accident met with in the Execution of his Duty, shall be rendered totally incapable of performing the same, notwithstanding such Officer or other Person may not have been employed in the Revenue of Excise the full Time before mentioned, a Pension, Annuity, or yearly Payment not exceeding Three Fourth Parts of the annual Amount of the yearly Salary actually received by or payable to such Officer or other Person, at the Time when such Officer or other Person shall have met with the Accident, by which he shall have been so rendered incapable of executing or performing his Duty: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to authorize or empower the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to grant or allow any Pension, Annuity, or yearly Payment out of the Revenue of Excise to any Officer or other Person whatever under the Rank of a Commissioner of Excise, until it shall have been certified to the said Lords Commissioners under the Hands of the Commissioners of Excise or the major Part of them for the Time being, that such Officer or other Person claiming or soliciting any such Pension, Annuity, or yearly Payment as aforesaid, on the Ground of Age or Infirmity, is from Age or Infirmity become incapable of properly executing or performing the Duty of such his Office or Station, and that he has been employed in the Service of the said Revenue at least Ten Years, and what yearly Salary such Officer or other Person shall have received for and during the preceding Seven Years, and that such Officer or other Person had, during his Employment, supported the Character of having faithfully discharged the Duties of his Office or Station, or, in case of Accident as aforesaid, that such Officer or other Person has been by such Accident rendered totally unable to execute or perform the Duty of such his Office or Station; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Conditions on which such Allowances shall be made.
