

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CAP. LXIV.

An Act to permit the Removal of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, from the Port in Great Britain where first warehoused, to any other warehousing Port for the Purpose of Exportation.

[9th June 1810.]

WHEREAS it may be expedient to permit the Removal of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize from the Port where first warehoused to any other warehousing Port within Great Britain for the Purpose of Exportation; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Importer, Proprietor, or Consignee of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize which have been or may be lodged or deposited in any Warehouse or Warehouses in the Port of London, under the Regulations of an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in Warehouse without Payment of Duty, or which have been or may be lodged or deposited in any Warehouse or Warehouses at any other Port of Great Britain, under the Regulations of an Act passed in the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to authorize the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to permit certain Articles to be warehoused in different Ports in Great Britain, upon giving Security for the Payment of Duties upon the Articles therein mentioned, or of another Act passed in the Forty-sixth Year of the Goods secured in Warehouse under the Regulations prescribed by 43 G. 3. c. 132.

45 G. 3. c. 87.

and 46G.3.c.137.

Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to extend the Proviſions of an Act made in the Forty-third Year of His preſent Majeſty for permitting certain Articles to be warehouſed in Great Britain to other Articles not therein mentioned, and to alter the Condition of the Bond directed to be given by an Act of the Twenty-fourth Year of His preſent Majeſty by the Maſters and Owners of Veſſels and Boats licenſed by the Lords of the Admiralty, to remove any ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize from any of the ſaid Ports, either by Sea or Inland Navigation to any other Port of Great Britain, where the like Articles are by Law allowed to be ſecured in Warehouſes under the Regulations of the ſaid Acts or either of them, for the Purpoſe of being exported from ſuch Port, ſubject to the Rules, Regulations, and Reſtrictions hereafter mentioned; that is to ſay, before any ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize ſhall be taken from or delivered out of any ſuch Warehouſe or Warehouſes as aforeſaid, the Importer, Proprietor, or Conſignee ſhall and he is hereby required to give at leaſt Twenty-four Hours Notice in Writing to the Warehouſe-keeper or other proper Officer in whoſe Charge ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize may then remain, of his Intention ſo to remove the ſame, ſpecifying in ſuch Notice the particular Goods, Wares, or Merchandize ſo intended to be taken out of ſuch Warehouſe, the Number, Marks, and Deſcriptions of each Package, and the Kind and Species of Goods, Wares, or Merchandize therein contained and in what Ship imported, and by whom entered Inwards, and thereupon the proper Officer ſhall take a true and particular Account thereof by Weight, Gauge, Tale, or otherwiſe, as the Caſe may require, and when by Reaſon of any Effect produced by Weather or from the Length of Time, any ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, or any Part thereof may have been ſo warehouſed, the ſame ſhall be deficient of the actual Weight or Quantity aſcertained and taken Account of at the Time of the Importation thereof, then and in ſuch Caſe the Importer, Proprietor, or Conſignee ſhall, and he is hereby required to pay the proper Officers the full Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe upon ſuch Deficiency, previous to the Removal of ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize from the Warehouſe.

may be removed to another authoriſed Port for the Purpoſes of Exportation.

Conditions.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Contents ſhall be marked on each and every Package intended to be removed, in diſtinct and legible Characters, in all Caſes where the ſame ſhall be practicable, and the Importer, Proprietor, or Conſignee ſhall make a due Entry of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, with the proper Officer of the Cuſtoms and alſo of the Exciſe, in caſe the Articles are ſubject to any Duty of Exciſe, ſpecifying in ſuch Entry the Name of the Ship or Veſſel in which imported and the Maſter thereof, when entered Inwards and by whom, alſo the Number and Marks of the Packages, the Kind or Species of Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, together with the Weight or Quantity contained in each, and to what Port the ſame is intended to be removed for the Purpoſe of being exported, and ſuch Importer, Proprietor, or Conſignee, with one other ſufficient Surety, ſhall alſo enter into Bond to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, in Treble the Value of ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, with Condition that the ſame and every Part thereof ſhall be truly delivered, without Alteration or Diminution, into the Cuſtody and Poſſeſſion of the Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms at the Port of Great Britain, to which the ſame is intended to be conveyed and to be named and expreſſed in ſuch Bond, and to produce a Certificate under the Hands and Seals of ſuch Collector and Comptroller or principal Officers that the Goods have been been ſo delivered into their Cuſtody and Poſſeſſion within Three Months from the Date of ſuch Bond, ſuch Certificate to be produced to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England, in caſe the Goods are removed from the Port of London, and to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in Scotland, if removed from Leith, and to the principal Officers of the Cuſtoms if ſuch Removal takes place from any other Port of Great Britain.

Account of the Packages ſhall be tranſmitted by the Collector and Comptroller of one Port to the Collector and Comptroller of the other, and Bond given for the due Exportation.

III. And be it further enacted, That a particular Account of the Weight, Quantity and Species of the Goods, Wares or Merchandize, with the Marks and Numbers of the Packages ſhall be tranſmitted by the proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms of the Port from which the Removal ſhall take Place to the Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms at the Port to which the Articles are intended to be removed, and upon their Arrival at ſuch Port, due Entry ſhall be made thereof with the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms, ſpecifying the Date of Importation, by whom entered Inwards, and the Port from whence removed, and the Name of the Ship, and to what Port or Place they are intended to be exported, and the Exporter or Exporters ſhall together with the Maſter and other Perſon having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Veſſel in which ſuch Goods, Wares or Merchandize are intended to be exported, and one other ſufficient Surety, to be approved of by the Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms at the Port of Exportation, enter into Bond to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, in Treble the Value of the ſame, for the due Exportation of ſuch Goods, Wares or Merchandize, and for producing a Certificate of the landing thereof at the Port or Place for which entered according to the Directions of the ſaid Act of the Forty-third Year of His preſent Majeſty, provided that if upon the further Examination of the ſaid Goods, Wares and Merchandize, the ſame or any Part thereof ſhall be found to be leſs in Quantity or Weight than when delivered from the Warehouſe at the Port of Importation, the Exporter or Proprietor thereof ſhall immediately pay the full Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe upon the Deficiency previous to the Goods being allowed to be ſhipped for Exportation.

If Goods be not immediately ſhipped for Exportation, they may be warehouſed, and Bond taken that they ſhall either be exported within a limited Time, or the Duty paid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if after the Arrival of ſuch Goods, Wares or Merchandize, at any other warehouſing Port, the Proprietor thereof ſhall not have an Opportunity of ſhipping the ſame for Exportation, it ſhall and may be lawful to lodge and depoſit the Articles in any Warehouſe approved under the Regulations of the ſaid Acts paſſed in the Forty-fifth and Forty-ſixth Years of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, provided an Entry be made for that Purpoſe with the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms, and Bond given to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, by the Proprietor or his Agent, and one ſufficient Surety to be approved of by the Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms in ſuch Port, in Double the Amount of the full Duties due and payable on the Importation of ſuch Goods, Wares and Merchandize, with Condition that the ſame ſhall either be duly exported, or that the full Duties of Cuſtoms due and payable on the Importation thereof ſhall be paid to the proper Officers within ſuch Period of Time as was allowed for that Purpoſe at the Port where the ſame were firſt entered and warehouſed; but if the Proprietor ſhall fail or neglect to make ſuch Entry and give ſuch Security, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England or Scotland reſpectively to cauſe all ſuch Goods, Wares and Merchandize, which ſhall not be ſhipped for Exportation, to be disposed of in the same Manner as Goods, Wares, and Merchandize are directed to be disposed of by the said Act of the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty.

Powers of recited Act 43 G. 3. c. 132. relating to warehousing, &c. extended to this Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, removed from the Port of Importation to any other warehousing Port, are secured in Warehouses under the Authority of this Act, all and every the Provisions, Powers, Authorities, Penalties, Forfeitures, Regulations, Restrictions, Acts, Matters, and Things relating to the landing, warehousing, keeping, inspecting, taking Account of or otherwise securing of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, under the said Act of the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and of the Duties due and payable thereon, shall, in so far as the same are applicable, and except where the same are altered or varied by this Act, be from thenceforth construed to extend to the Goods, Wares, and Merchandize so removed from the original Port of Importation and secured in Warehouses at any other warehousing Port, in like Manner in every Respect and as fully and amply as if the said Provisions, Powers, Authorities, Penalties, Forfeitures, Regulations, Restrictions, Acts, Matters, and Things had been repeated and re-enacted in this Act.
