C A P. CXIII.

An Act for altering certain Drawbacks and Countervailing Duties on Glaſs, for exempting Iriſh Glaſs Bottles from the Duty impoſed by an Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, and for exempting the Leather and Glaſs of Carriages belonging to certain Perſons imported from Ireland for Private Uſe from Duty. [28th June 1815.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Forty-ninth Year of the Reign 49 G. 3. c. 63.
of His preſent Majeſty King George the Third, among other Things, for repealing the Duties on the Materials uſed in making Spread Window Glaſs and Crown Glaſs, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, a Drawback of One Pound Sixteen Shillings and Nine-pence is allowed for every Hundred Weight of all Window Glaſs, not being Spread Glaſs, whether flaſhed or otherwiſe manufactured, and commonly called or known either by the Name of Crown Glaſs or German Sheet Glaſs, made in Great Britain, and exported to Foreign Parts or to Ireland as Merchandize, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity; and by another Act made in the Fifty-firſt Year of the ſaid 51 G. 3. c. 69.
Reign, among other Things, for repealing the Duty on the Materials uſed in making Flint and Phial Glaſs, and for granting, until the Day therein mentioned, other Duties in lieu thereof, a Drawback of Two Pounds Nine Shillings is allowed for every Hundred Weight of Flint Glaſs or of Phial Glaſs reſpectively made in Great Britain, and for which all the Duties impoſed for and in reſpect thereof ſhall have been paid, and duly exported to Foreign Parts or to Ireland as Merchandize, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity; and by another Act made in the Fifty-ſecond 52 G. 3. c. 77.
Year of the ſaid Reign, among other Things, for granting an additional Drawback on Flint, Phial, and Crown Glaſs, an additional Drawback of

12 Q Sixteen

Sixteen Shillings and Three-pence is allowed for every Hundred Weight of Flint Glaſs and Phial Glaſs reſpectively made in Great Britain, or made in Ireland and imported directly into Great Britain, for which all the Duties impoſed for or in reſpect thereof ſhall have been paid, and duly exported to Foreign Parts as Merchandize, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity; and an additional Drawback of Seven Shillings and Ten-pence Halfpenny is allowed for every Hundred Weight of all Window Glaſs ſo made, paid Duty for, and exported, not being Spread Glaſs, and commonly called or known by the Name of Crown Glaſs or German Sheet Glaſs, and in ſo Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity; and by another Act made in the Year laſt aforeſaid, among other Things, for granting to His Majeſty additional Duties of Exciſe in Great Britain on Glaſs, a Drawback of Three Pounds Five Shillings and Three-pence is allowed for every Hundred Weight of Flint Glaſs and of Phial Glaſs reſpectively made in Great Britain, or made in Ireland and imported from thence into Great Britain, and exported from thence to Foreign Parts, and in the ſame Proportion as to any greater or leſs Quantity; and a Drawback of Two Pounds Four Shillings and Seven-pence Halfpenny is allowed for every Hundred Weight of all Window Glaſs, not being Spread Glaſs, whether flaſhed or otherwiſe manufactured, and commonly called or known by the Name of Crown Glaſs or German Sheet Glaſs, made in Great Britain, or made in Ireland and imported from thence into Great Britain, and exported from thence to Foreign Parts, and in the ſame Proportion as to any greater or leſs Quantity: And whereas it is expedient to repeal the ſaid Drawbacks, and to allow ſuch other Drawbacks as are hereinafter mentioned; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Firſt Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and fifteen, the ſaid ſeveral Drawbacks ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby repealed, ſave and except in all Caſes relating to the allowing or paying any Arrears thereof reſpectively which may at that Time remain unpaid, or to any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, relating thereto reſpectively.

Drawbacks allowed by recited Acts repealed.

The following Drawbacks allowed.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and fifteen, there ſhall, in Conſideration of the Waſte ariſing from the cutting of Tables of Crown Glaſs into Panes, be allowed the following Drawbacks; (that is to ſay), Drawbacks.

For every Hundred Weight of Window Glaſs, not being Spread Glaſs, whether flaſhed or otherwiſe manufactured, and commonly called or known either by the Name of Crown Glaſs or German Sheet Glaſs, made in Great Britain, and for which all the Duties impoſed for or in reſpect thereof ſhall have been paid, and which ſhall be exported in whole Tables, or Half Tables, or Quarter Tables, a Drawback of Three Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Sixpence, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity than a Hundred Weight, or ſuch Whole Tables, or Half Tables, or Quarter Tables, calculating the ſaid Drawback upon the Weight of the Whole Table exported, although the ſame may be cut into Half or Quarter Tables for the Convenience of Exportation:

For every Hundred Weight of Panes of Window Glaſs, not being Spread Glaſs, whether flaſhed or otherwiſe manufactured, and commonly called or known either by the Name of Crown Glaſs or German Sheet Glaſs, made in Great Britain, and for which all the Duties impoſed for and in reſpect thereof ſhall have been paid, and which ſhall be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, other than Ireland, or the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, ſuch Panes being in regular rectangular Figures, not being of leſs Dimenſions than Six Inches in Length by Four Inches in Breadth, nor containing any Part of the Bullion or thick centre Part of the Table from which any ſuch Panes ſhall have been cut, a Drawback of Four Pounds Eighteen Shillings, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity than a Hundred Weight of ſuch Panes:

For every Hundred Weight of Flint Glaſs Wares, Veſſels, or Utenſils, or of Phial Glaſs Wares, Veſſels, or Utenſils, reſpectively, made in Great Britain, and for which all the Duties impoſed for and in reſpect thereof ſhall have been paid, and which ſhall be exported to Ireland, or the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, a Drawback of Four Pounds Eighteen Shillings, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity than a Hundred Weight of ſuch Flint Glaſs or of Phial Glaſs Wares, Veſſels, or Utenſils, and for every Hundred Weight of Flint Glaſs Wares, Veſſels, or Utenſils, or of Phial Glaſs Wares, Veſſels, or Utenſils reſpectively, made in Great Britain, and for which all the Duties impoſed for and in reſpect thereof ſhall have been paid, and which ſhall be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, other than Ireland, or the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, a Drawback of Six Pounds Three Shillings, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity than a Hundred Weight of ſuch Flint Glaſs or of Phial Glaſs Wares, Veſſels, or Utenſils.

Drawbacks to be paid ſubject to the Regulations herein mentioned.

III. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Drawbacks by this Act allowed ſhall be paid and allowed out of the Duties of Exciſe by Law impoſed for or in reſpect of Crown Glaſs, Flint and Phial Glaſs reſpectively, under, ſubject, and according to the Rules, Regulations, Reſtrictions, and Proviſions, contained and provided in and by an Act made in the Twenty-ſixth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, among other Things, for the Amendment of the ſeveral Laws relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to the Exportation of Glaſs on Drawback, ſave and except that in lieu and inſtead of the Oath required by the ſaid Act of the Twenty-ſixth Year aforeſaid to be made by the Exporter, that he believes the Duties upon the Materials to have been fully paid, the Exporter ſhall make Oath that he believes the ſaid Glaſs to be entirely of Britiſh Manufacture, and that the Duties by Law impoſed for or in reſpect of ſuch Flint Glaſs, Phial Glaſs, or Crown Glaſs reſpectively intended to be exported, to have been fully paid (and which ſaid laſt mentioned Oath the proper Surveyor or Superviſor, or Officer of Exciſe, is hereby authorized and empowered to adminiſter), and any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be convicted of wilfully taking a falſe Oath, in any Caſe in which the ſaid laſt-mentioned Oath is required to be taken by virtue of this Act, ſhall be liable to the Pains and Penalties to which Perſons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Certain Countervailing Duties repealed.

IV. And whereas by the ſaid Act made in the Fifty-ſecond Year of the ſaid Reign, among other Things, for granting an additional Drawback on Flint, Phial, and Crown Glaſs, a Countervailing Duty of Seven

Seven Shillings and Ten-pence Halfpenny is impoſed for every Hundred Weight of Window Glaſs (not being Spread Glaſs) whether flaſhed or otherwiſe manufactured, and commonly called or known by the Name of Crown Glaſs or German Sheet Glaſs, made in Ireland, and imported from thence into Great Britain; and by the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act a Countervailing Duty of Sixteen Shillings and Three-pence is alſo impoſed for every Hundred Weight of Flint or Phial Glaſs made in Ireland, and imported from thence into Great Britain: And whereas by the ſaid Act made in the Fifty-ſecond Year of the ſaid Reign, among other Things, for granting to His Majeſty additional Duties of Exciſe in Great Britain on Glaſs, an additional Countervailing Duty of Two Pounds Four Shillings and Seven-pence Halfpenny is impoſed for every Hundred Weight of Window Glaſs, not being Spread Glaſs, whether flaſhed or otherwiſe manufactured, and commonly called or known by the Name of Crown Glaſs or German Sheet Glaſs, made in Ireland and imported from thence into Great Britain; and by the ſaid laſt mentioned Act an additional Countervailing Duty of Three Pounds Five Shillings and Three-pence is alſo impoſed for every Hundred Weight of Flint Glaſs or Phial Glaſs, made in Ireland and imported from thence into Great Britain: And whereas it is expedient to repeal the ſaid Countervailing Duties of Seven Shillings and Ten-pence Halfpenny, and alſo Sixteen Shillings and Three-pence, and alſo Seven Shillings and Ten-pence Half-penny, Part of the ſaid Countervailing Duty of Two Pounds Four Shillings and Seven-pence Halfpenny, and alſo Sixteen Shillings and Three-pence, Part of the ſaid Countervailing Duty of Three Pounds Five Shillings and Three-pence: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and fifteen, the ſaid recited Countervailing Duties, and Parts of Countervailing Duties, ſhall be and the ſame are hereby repealed, ſave and except in all Caſes relating to the recovering or paying any Arrears thereof reſpectively, which may on that Day remain unpaid, or to any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture, Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures relating thereto.

19 G. 2. c. 12. V. And whereas by an Act made in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King George the Second, among other Things, for granting to His Majeſty ſeveral Rates and Duties upon Glaſs, it was enacted, that all and every Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, who ſhould make or cauſe to be made any Glaſs in London, or in any Parts within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, ſhould Monthly and every Month, and all and every Perſon or Perſons who ſhould make or cauſe to be made any Glaſs in any other Part of Great Britain ſhould once in every Six Weeks, make a true Entry in Writing at the next Office of Exciſe for the ſaid Duties, of the true Quantities of the Metals and Materials mixed and uſed in each reſpective Making of Glaſs within ſuch Month or Six Weeks reſpectively, and that the Entries ſhould be made upon Oath by the Makers of ſuch Glaſs, or by their Clerk, Workman, or Servant, employed in making the ſame, according to the beſt of their Knowledge and Belief, unleſs ſuch Maker, Clerk, Workman, or Servant ſhould be a known Quaker, and the ſolemn Affirmation of ſuch Maker, Clerk, Workman, or Servant, to the ſame Effect, in caſe he, ſhe, or they ſhould be a known Quaker, ſhould and might be taken inſtead of ſuch Oath; and the ſaid Entries, Oaths, and Affirmations to verify the ſame, ſhould be made with and adminiſtered by ſuch Perſons reſpectively, as are in that Behalf directed in and by the ſaid Act: And whereas the Duties for or in reſpect of the Materials or Metal, or other Preparations made uſe of in the making of Flint Glaſs, or Enamel, Stained, or Paſte Glaſs, or Phial Glaſs, Spread Window Glaſs commonly called or known by the Name of Broad Glaſs, and Window Glaſs, not being Spread Glaſs, whether flaſhed or otherwiſe manufactured, and commonly called or known either by the Name of Crown Glaſs or German Sheet Glaſs, are by the ſeveral Acts of Parliament in thoſe Caſes reſpectively made and provided, repealed, and other Duties are by the ſeveral Acts of Parliament in that Behalf impoſed on Flint Glaſs, Phial Glaſs, Spread Window Glaſs, commonly called or known by the Name of Broad Glaſs and Window Glaſs, not being Spread Glaſs, whether flaſhed or otherwiſe manufactured, and commonly called or known either by the Name of Crown Glaſs or German Sheet Glaſs, in lieu of the ſaid Duties on the Materials or Metal, or other Preparations made uſe of in the making of the ſaid laſt-mentioned ſeveral Sorts of Glaſs; and by an Act made in the Thirty-fifth Year of His ſaid Majeſty's Reign, the Weight of the common Bottles or other Veſſels or Utenſils made of common Bottle Metal, by Makers delivering ſuch Declaration as is in the ſaid Act in that Behalf mentioned, and making the ſame under the Regulations by the ſaid Act in that Behalf preſcribed, is to be deemed and taken to be the Weight of the Materials, or Metal, or other Preparations from which ſuch Bottles or other Veſſels or Utenſils reſpectively ſhall have been made; and it is therefore expedient, that in lieu of the ſaid recited Oath or Affirmation, ſo far as the ſame reſpectively extend to the Materials above mentioned, ſuch other Oath and Affirmation as herein-after mentioned, ſhould be made; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Firſt Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and fifteen, all and every Perſon or Perſons whatſoever who ſhall make or cauſe to be made in London or in any Parts within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, any Flint Glaſs, or Enamel, Stained, or Paſte Glaſs, or Phial Glaſs, or any ſuch Window Glaſs, or who, under the ſaid Declaration and Regulations in that Behalf preſcribed by the ſaid Act of the Thirty-fifth Year of His ſaid Majeſty's Reign, ſhall in London, or within the ſaid Limits, make or cauſe to be made any common Bottles or other Veſſels or Utenſils of common Bottle Metal, ſhall Monthly and every Month, and all and every Perſon or Perſons who, ſhall make or cauſe to be made any ſuch Glaſs in any other Part of Great Britain ſhall once in every Six Weeks, in lieu and inſtead of the ſaid recited Oath or Affirmation reſpectively, make a true Entry in Writing at the next Office of Exciſe for the ſaid Duties, of the true Weight of all ſuch Flint Glaſs, Enamel, Stained, or Paſte Glaſs or Phial Glaſs, and alſo the Weight of all ſuch Spread Window Glaſs, commonly called or known by the Name of Broad Glaſs, and the Weight of all Window Glaſs not being Spread Glaſs, whether flaſhed or otherwiſe manufactured, and commonly called or known either by the Name of Crown Glaſs or German Sheet Glaſs, and the Weight of all ſuch common Bottles or other Veſſels or Utenſils made of common Bottle Metal reſpectively, made by him, her, or them within ſuch Month or Six Weeks reſpectively, on Pain of forfeiting for every Neglect of Entry the Sum of One hundred Pounds; which Entries ſhall be made upon Oath by the Makers of ſuch Glaſs, or by their Clerk, Workman, or Servant employed in making the ſame according to the beſt of his, her, or their Knowledge and Belief, unleſs ſuch Maker, Clerk, Workman, or Servant be a known Quaker; and the ſolemn Affirmation of ſuch Maker, Clerk, Workman, or Servant, to the the ſame Effect, in caſe he, ſhe, or they be a known Quaker, ſhall and may be taken inſtead of ſuch Oath, and the ſaid Entries, Oaths, and Affirmations Glaſs Makers in London ſhall Monthly, and elſewhere in Great Britain every Six Weeks, make Entry of the Weight of Glaſs on Oath.

Penalty for Neglect 100l.

to verify the ſame, ſhall, for ſuch Entries, Oaths, and Affirmations as ſhall be made within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, be made with and adminiſtered by ſuch Officer or Officers as ſhall be appointed by the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in England, or the major Part of them for the Time being, who ſhall attend at the General Exciſe Office in London for that Purpoſe; and for all ſuch Entries, Oaths and Affirmations, as ſhall be made in all other Parts of Great Britain, with or by the reſpective Collectors or Superviſors of the Diſtrict or Diviſion within which ſuch Glaſs Houſes ſhall be ſituated, without any Fee or Charge whatſoever to be demanded or taken for the ſame.

Perſons taking a falſe Oath liable to the Pains of Perjury.

VI. And be it further enacted, That any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be convicted of wilfully taking a falſe Oath or Affirmation in any caſe in which an Oath or Affirmation is required to be taken by virtue of this Act, ſhall be liable to the Pains and Penalties to which Perſons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

26 G. 3.

VII. And whereas by an Act made in the Twenty-ſixth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty King George the Third, among other Things, for the Amendment of ſeveral Laws relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, it is enacted, that the Exporter of ſuch Glaſs, as in the ſaid Act is in that Behalf mentioned, ſhall, before the ſhipping the ſame, give ſuch Security as in the ſaid Act is in that Behalf directed, that the particular Quantity of Glaſs intended to be exported, and every Part thereof, ſhall be ſhipped and exported, and ſhall not be unſhipped, unloaded or laid on Land, or put on board any other Ship or Veſſel in Great Britain, Shipwreck or other unavoidable Accident excepted: And whereas no Time is by Law limited within which Glaſs entered for Exportation on Drawback ſhall be ſhipped, and it is therefore expedient to make ſuch Proviſion as is herein-after mentioned; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and fifteen, every ſuch Security ſhall be conditioned that the Glaſs, for the ſhipping and Exportation whereof ſuch Security ſhall be given, ſhall be ſhipped within One Month next after the Date of ſuch Security: Provided always nevertheleſs, that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in England and Scotland reſpectively, or any Three or more of them, being ſatisfied that the ſhipping of ſuch Glaſs, within the Time ſpecified in the Condition of any ſuch Security, has been prevented by unavoidable Accident, to grant and give ſuch further Time not exceeding Three Months for the ſhipping thereof: Provided alſo, that no ſuch granting or giving of further Time ſhall extend, or be deemed or conſtrued to extend, to annul, vary, or alter the Condition of any ſuch Security or the legal Interpretation or Effect thereof, but the ſame ſhall remain in full Force and Effect and be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if no Power or Authority had been given to the ſaid Commiſſioners of Exciſe to grant or give ſuch further Time for the ſhipping of any ſuch Glaſs, ſave and except in any Caſe where the Commiſſioners of Exciſe ſhall in their Judgment and Diſcretion forbear to put any ſuch Security in Suit for any Breach of the Condition thereof, any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Security under the recited Act ſhall be conditioned that the Glaſs ſhall be ſhipped within One Month.

Commiſſioners of Exciſe may give further Time not exceeding Three Months.

No Addition to be made to the Glaſs after it is VIII. And be it further enacted, That when and ſo ſoon as any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall have given ſuch Security as aforeſaid, and any Glaſs ſhall have been packed up in the Preſence of the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, as or for the Glass mentioned in such Security, and shall have been secured with such Fastenings, and sealed with such Seal or Mark or Seals or Marks as by Law required, no Person or Persons shall be at Liberty to make any Addition of Glass thereto, for the Purpose of making up any Deficiency which may be discovered in the Quantity or Weight of such Glass below the Quantity specified in any such Security, or for any other Purpose whatsoever. packed up and sealed.

IX. And be it further enacted, That no Drawback shall be allowed for or in respect of any Glass which has been used and commonly called or known by the Name of Old Glass or Second-hand Glass, or for or in respect of any Lumps of Glass, or Cane Glass, or Glass of any Kind, other than Vessels, Utensils, Window Glass, Plate Glass, Lenses, Lamps, or other Articles of Household Furniture; any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding. No Drawback to be allowed for Old Glass, &c.

X. And, for the further Prevention of Frauds in the Exportation of Glass, be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall lay, place, or deposit, or cause to be laid, placed, or deposited any Irish-made Flint, Phial or Crown Glass in any Cask, Box, Chest, or other Package containing British made Flint Glass, Phial Glass, or Crown Glass respectively, packed or packing for Exportation on Drawback, or shall lay, place or deposit, or cause to be laid, placed, or deposited any Flint Glass, Phial Glass, or Crown Glass made before the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twelve, in any Cask, Box, Chest, or other Package containing Flint Glass, Phial Glass, or Crown Glass respectively packed or packing for Exportation, in order to obtain the additional Drawback granted by this Act, the Person or Persons so offending, shall for each and every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and every such Cask, Box, Chest, or other Package, and all the Glass contained therein, shall be forfeited. Penalty on Persons placing Irish-made Flint, Phial, or Crown Glass in any Package containing British Glass for Exportation, 200l.

XI. And whereas by an Act made in the Fifty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, among other Things, for granting an Excise Duty on common Glass Bottles imported, an Inland Duty of Eight Shillings and Two-pence is imposed for every Hundred Weight of common Glass Bottles (the same not being Phials) imported into Great Britain: And whereas it is expedient to exempt from the said Duty, and also from the Rules, Regulations and Provisions by the said Act established or prescribed, all common Glass Bottles, made in Ireland, and imported from thence directly into Great Britain; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, all common Glass Bottles made in Ireland, and imported from thence directly into Great Britain, shall be and the same are hereby exempted from the said Duty, and from the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions by the said Act established or prescribed. 54 G. 3. c. 97. Irish Common Glass Bottles imported to be exempted from the Duty under recited Act.

XII. And whereas by an Act made in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, and other Acts now in force, certain Countervailing Duties are imposed for Leather manufactured and actually made into Goods or Wares in Ireland, and imported from thence 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67.

thence into Great Britain, and on Iriſh Glaſs imported into Great Britain: And whereas it is expedient to exempt from the ſaid Countervailing Duties the Leather actually worked up and employed in the Conſtruction of and compoſing a Part of any Coach, Landau, Chariot, Landaulet, Chaiſe or other Wheel Carriage of and belonging to any Officer of State in Ireland, or any Member of either of the Two Houſes of Parliament, which ſhall be imported into Great Britain from Ireland, for the ſole and entire Uſe of ſuch Officer of State, or Member of either Houſe of Parliament reſpectively, and not as Merchandize or for Sale, and alſo to exempt Iriſh Glaſs actually worked up and employed in the Conſtruction of and compoſing a Part of any ſuch Coach, Landau, Chariot, Landaulet, Chaiſe or other Wheel Carriage; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Firſt Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and fifteen no Countervailing Duty ſhall be paid or payable for or in reſpect of the Leather actually worked up and employed in the Conſtruction of and compoſing a Part of any ſuch Coach, Landau, Chariot, Landaulet, Chaiſe, or other Wheel Carriage as aforeſaid, nor for or in reſpect of the Glaſs actually worked up, and employed in the Conſtruction of and compoſing a Part of any ſuch Coach, Landau, Chariot, Landaulet, Chaiſe, or other Wheel Carriage; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

No Countervailing Duty payable on Leather or Glaſs employed in certain Carriages.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in England and Scotland reſpectively, or any Three or more of them reſpectively, ſhall and they reſpectively are hereby authorized and empowered to cauſe any Sum or Sums of Money which ſhall have been charged as ſuch Duty or Duties for or in reſpect whereof the Duties by this Act repealed, and which ſhall not before the paſſing of this Act have been actually collected, received or paid, to be diſcharged from and out of the Books and other Documents containing any Entry or Entries of or relating to any ſuch Charge or Sum or Sums of Money.

Repealed Duties not collected to be diſcharged out of the Book of Entry.
