ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO QUINTO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CAP. LXXII.

An Act to fix the Election for Glamorganshire at a central Place within the said County.

[7th June 1815.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Elections of Knights to serve in Parliament for the County of Glamorgan should be holden and determined at a convenient and central Place within the said County; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That upon every Election to be made of any Knight to serve in this present or any future Parliament for the County of Glamorgan, the Sheriff of the said County shall hold his County Court for the same Election and every Adjournment thereof at the Town of Bridgend, within the said County, and shall proceed to and determine the said Election at the said Town of Bridgend, and at no other Place.

Bridgend to be the Place of Election.

LONDON: Printed by GEORGE EYRE and ANDREW STRAHAN, Printers to the King's most Excellent Majesty. 1815.