

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO OCTAVO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act to alter the Allowance for broken Plate Glass, and to exempt Manufacturers of certain Glass Wares from Penalties for not being licensed.

[23d May 1818.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, amongst other Things, to alter the Drawbacks on Plate Glass, and to prevent Frauds therein, it was enacted, that any Maker or Makers of Plate Glass who should break to Pieces in the Manner therein mentioned any Number of such Plates of unground and unpolished Plate Glass as therein mentioned, should thereupon be allowed out of the Duties growing and becoming due and payable from such Maker or Makers respectively for Plate Glass, after the Rate of Four Pounds Eighteen Shillings for every Hundred Weight of such Glass so broken to Pieces: And whereas such Allowance is excessive, and it is expedient to repeal the same and grant a different Rate of Allowance in lieu thereof; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, the Allowance herein-before recited shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that in lieu thereof every such Maker and Makers as aforesaid shall be allowed, for every One hundred Pounds Weight of such Plates of Plate Glass as in the said recited Act are in that behalf mentioned, so broken in Pieces
