CAP. CXII.

An Act to grant, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, an additional Bounty on the Exportation of certain Silk Manufactures of Great Britain.

[12th July 1819.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Bounty now payable upon the Exportation of certain Silk Manufactures of Great Britain should be increased for a limited Period; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, there shall be paid or allowed to any Person or Persons who, during the Continuance of this Act, shall really and truly export from Great Britain, by way of Merchandize, certain Silk Manufactures of Great Britain hereafter particularly specified, the Bounties, Allowances, or Sums of Money hereafter mentioned, in addition to all other Bounties or Allowances payable by Law in respect thereof; that is to say, For all Ribbons made in Great Britain of Silk only (not being wholly or in part composed of spun Silk) and exported as aforesaid, the Sum of Three Shillings and Four-pence for every Pound Weight Avoirdupois; for all Stuffs made in Great Britain of Silk only (not being either wholly or in part of spun Silk) exported as aforesaid, the Sum of Five Shillings and Four-pence for every Pound Weight Avoirdupois.

Additional Bounty allowed on Exportation of Silk Ribbons 3*s*. 4*d*. per lb.,

and on Stuffs of Silk 5*s*. 4*d*. per lb.

II. And

Bounty subject to the usual Regulations.

II. And be it further enacted, That the additional Allowances or Bounties by this Act granted shall be paid or allowed in the same Manner and subject to the same Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as the Allowances and Bounties granted by Law on the Silk Manufactures of Great Britain are now paid and allowed.

Value of the Goods to be at least Four Times the Amount of the Bounty.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no such additional Bounty shall be allowed or payable, unless the Value of the Goods, on which such additional Bounty shall be claimed, shall be at least Four Times the Amount of such Bounty according to the Value of such Goods at the Port of Exportation.

Continuance of Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be and remain and continue in force until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, and no longer.
