ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO NONO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

C A P. CXXV.

An Act to admit certain Goods imported from the East Indies to Entry and Payment of Duty without being warehoused; and to permit the Exportation of certain East India Goods to Guernsey and Jersey, and the Removal of certain East India Goods to Liverpool, Lancaster, Bristol, and Glasgow, for Exportation. [12th July 1819.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to repeal the Duties of Customs payable on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported into Great Britain from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof; and to establish further Regulations for the better Security of the Revenue on Goods so imported; and to alter the Periods of making up and presenting certain Accounts of the said Company to Parliament; to continue in force until the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; it is enacted, that all Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, into any of those Ports in Great Britain (except the Port of London) which shall have been or may be declared fit and proper for the Purpose of such Importations under the

the Rules, Regulations, and Provisions of an Act passed in the Fifty-53G.3.c.155. third Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act for continuing in the East India Company for a further Term the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with certain exclusive Privileges; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; and for regulating the Trade to and from the Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter, either by the said United Company, or by any Person or Persons so trading under the Authority of the said recited Acts, shall be lodged and secured in Warehouses approved by the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively, or any Three or more of them for the Time being, subject to all the Rules, Regulations, Securities, and Provisions directed and required by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign
43G.3.c.132. of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouse without Payment of Duty, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament made for amending or explaining the said Act, in force on or immediately before the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fourteen: And whereas it may be expedient to permit certain Articles to be entered, and the Duty to be paid, and to be landed and delivered, without being warehoused as required by the said recited Act; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That Cotton Wool, Saltpetre, Sugar, and Rice imported from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, into any Port of that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, which either has been or may hereafter be declared and proper for the Deposit and safe Custody of Goods imported under the Regulations of the said Act passed in the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, in the Manner prescribed by the said Act, may be admitted to Entry, and the Duties paid, and landed and delivered, without being warehoused as required by the afore-recited Acts: Provided always, that such Goods shall be liable to all the Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures to which Goods not entitled to be warehoused are subject by any Law now in force.

Cotton Wool, Saltpetre, and Rice imported from the East Indies, may be admitted to Entry, and the Duties paid without being warehoused.

II. And whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of the 39 G.3. c.59. Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for permitting certain East India Goods to be warehoused, and for repealing the Duties now payable thereon, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, no Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of the East Indies, secured in Warehouses under the Regulations of that Act, are allowed to be exported from thence to the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey, and upon the lawful Exportation thereof are required to be shipped directly from such Warehouses: And whereas it is expedient to permit East India Goods, of the Description hereafter mentioned, to be exported to the said Islands of Guernsey and Jersey, and to allow the Removal of the said Goods, and also of certain other East India Goods herein-after mentioned, from the Port of London to the Out-

Out-Ports, for the Convenience of Exportation; be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Proprietor or Proprietors or Exporter or Exporters of any East India White and prohibited Goods, not of a higher Value than One Shilling and Sixpence per Yard, to export such Goods to the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey direct from the Warehouses wherein the same may have been secured on the Importation thereof, any thing in the said recited Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; provided that such Proprietor or Proprietors or Exporter or Exporters shall, before any such Goods are delivered or taken from the Warehouses, make a due Entry thereof with the proper Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs, and shall, together with the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel in which such Goods are intended to be exported, and One other sufficient Surety, to be approved of by the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs at the Port of Exportation, enter into Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Treble the Value thereof, with Condition that the said Goods so intended to be exported shall be landed at the Port or Place for which the same shall have been entered, and that no Part of the same shall be relanded in Great Britain, or landed in the Islands of Alderney, Sark, or Man, or the Island of Faro or Ferro; which Bond shall and may be discharged in the Manner herein-after mentioned, that is to say, upon a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Governor or Lieutenant Governor and of the principal Officer of the Customs of the said Islands respectively, within the Space of Six Months from the Date of the said Bond, testifying that the said Goods and every Part thereof were there landed; or such Bond may also be discharged upon Oath made, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners in England and Scotland respectively, that such Goods were taken by Enemies or perished in the Seas.

White and Prohibited Goods, not of a higher Value than 1*s.* 6*d.* per Yard, may be exported to Guernsey or Jersey.

Entry to be previously made, and Bond entered into for the due Exportation.

III. And be it further enacted, That if the Proprietor or Proprietors or Purchaser or Purchasers of any such White and prohibited Goods, shall be desirous of removing the same from the Warehouses by Land Carriage to the Port of Southampton, for the Purpose of being shipped and exported from that Port to the said Islands of Guernsey or Jersey, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs for the Time being, or any Four or more of them, to grant Permission for the Removal of the said Goods accordingly, under the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Securities, as are now by Law required upon the Removal of certain East India prohibited Goods from one Port of Great Britain to another, to be from thence exported to Africa.

Commissioners of the Customs may permit the Removal of such Goods by Land Carriage to the Port of Southampton;

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Four or more of them, to permit the Removal from the Port of London of any prohibited East India Goods, or any coarse East India Piece Goods not being prohibited, and not of a higher Value than One Shilling and Sixpence per Yard, intended for Exportation to America and its Dependencies, the West Indies or Africa, by Sea, Land Carriage, or Inland Navigation, to the Ports of Liverpool, Lancaster, Bristol, or Glasgow respectively, for and may permit the Removal of certain Goods for Exportation to America, &c. to the Ports of Liverpool, &c.

for the Purpose of being exported from thence; the said Goods, upon such Removals respectively, being subject to the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Securities, as are now by Law required for certain East India prohibited Goods, when removed from one Port of Great Britain to another, to be from thence exported to Africa.
