Rules to be observed in the Application of the Sum appropriated for Half Pay.

scribed shall be duly observed in the Application of the said Half Pay; that is to say, that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same who was a Minor and under the Age of Sixteen Years at the Time when the Regiment, Troop, or Company in which he served was reduced; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, except such Persons who did actual Service in some Regiment, Troop, or Company; that no Person having any other Place or Employment, Civil or Military, under His Majesty, shall have or receive any Part of the said Half Pay, (except such Officers as have been or shall be appointed to any Military Commission or Employment on the Staff, in the Garrisons, or in any of His Majesty's Colonies; which Officers, with His Majesty's Approbation, to be signified by the Secretary at War to the Paymaster General of the Land Forces, and not otherwise, may and shall receive their Half Pay, together with the Pay of their Military Commissions or Employments on the Staff, or in the Garrisons, or in any of His Majesty's Colonies as aforesaid, they taking from Time to Time the following Oath instead of the Oath usually taken by Officers to entitle them to receive Half Pay, and also except all such Officers of the General or Local Militia of the United Kingdom, or of any Part thereof; and all such Persons who have served in any such Militia as are entitled to demand or permitted to receive Half Pay under any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to any such Militia, or Officers or Persons respectively, and Officers in the Militia of any British Colonies or Settlements, and such Officers of Yeomanry and Volunteer Corps as are permitted to receive Half Pay under an Act passed in the Forty-fourth Year of His present Majesty, intituled 44 G. 3. c. 54. An Act to consolidate and amend the Provisions of the several Acts relating to Corps of Yeomanry and Volunteers in Great Britain, and to make further Regulations relating thereto; and also Lieutenants, Ensigns, Surgeons, Serjeants, Corporals, and Privates serving in any Corps of Yeomanry or Volunteers in Great Britain or Ireland, or the British Colonies or Settlements; and any superannuated Adjutants entitled under any Act passed or to be passed to an Allowance of Six Shillings per Day; and any Reduced Adjutants entitled to an Allowance of Three Shillings per Day under any Act for continuing so much of an Act made in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty, as grants certain Allowances to Adjutants and Serjeant-Majors of the Militia of England disembodied under an Act of the same Session of Parliament; and any Adjutants entitled to the like Allowance of Three Shillings per Day upon Reduction under any other Act or Acts; all which several Persons may respectively receive their Half Pay, together with the Pay or Allowance of such their respective Commissions or Situations, they also taking from Time to Time the following Oath instead of the Oath usually taken by Officers to entitle them to receive Half Pay:

Oath to be taken by certain Officers to entitle to Half Pay.

'I A. B. do swear, That I had not between the and the any Place or Employment of Profit, 'Civil or Military, under His Majesty, besides my Allowance of 'Half Pay, save and except my Pay [or, Allowance] as [here specify 'the Military Commission or Employment on the Staff, or in the Garrison, or other Commission, or Situation as aforesaid.]'

And

And the taking the said Oath shall, without taking any other Oath, be sufficient to entitle such Officer to receive his Half Pay, and any Arrears of Half Pay); that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same who has resigned his Commission, and has had no Commission since; that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any Person by virtue of any Warrant or Appointment, except to such Persons as would have been otherwise entitled to the same as Reduced Officers; and that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any of the Officers of the Five Regiments of Foot lately disbanded in Ireland, except to such as were lately taken off the Establishment of Half Pay in Great Britain.

Half Pay allowed to Officers of the Manx Fencibles.

XXV. And whereas the Officers of the Royal Regiment of Manx Fencibles engaged to serve in the said Corps upon a Stipulation contained in the Letter of Service under which they were raised, that they should be allowed to receive any Half Pay to which they might be entitled, notwithstanding their holding Subaltern Commissions in the said Corps, but no Provision has been made by Parliament for Payment of such Half Pay, and it is therefore expedient that Provision should now be made for Payment of the Arrears of Half Pay to such Officers as aforesaid; be it therefore enacted, That Officers who were entitled to Half Pay, and who accepted or held Subaltern Commissions in the Royal Regiment of Manx Fencibles, shall, notwithstanding their having had the Full Pay of such Commissions, be entitled to receive the Arrears of such Half Pay for any Year or Time in which they shall not have been before allowed to receive the same, upon taking an Oath before the Officer usually administering Oaths to Persons for the Purpose of receiving Half Pay, that they had not in any Year or Time for which such Arrear is claimed, any Office or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under His Majesty, besides their Allowance of Half Pay, save and except their Pay as such Subaltern Officers of the Royal Regiment of Manx Fencibles, and the taking the Oath shall, without taking any other Oath, be sufficient to entitle such Officer to receive his Half Pay.

Employment of Profit under His Majesty, and the taking the said Oath shall, without taking any other Oath, be sufficient to entitle such Chaplain to receive his Half Pay.

By 58 G. 3. c. 101. a Sum was appropriated to be paid to Half Pay Officers, the Surplus of which is hereby authorized to be disposed of as His Majesty shall direct.

XXVII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the Fifty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for applying certain Monies therein mentioned for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, the several Supplies which have been granted to His present Majesty as is therein mentioned, were appropriated to the several Uses and Purposes therein expressed; amongst which, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding Six hundred and one thousand seven hundred and thirty Pounds, was appropriated to be paid on account of Half Pay for Great Britain, and the Sum of Fifty thousand one hundred and seventy-three Pounds One Shilling and Sixpence net, was appropriated to be paid on account of Half Pay for Ireland, from the Twenty-fifth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and seventeen to the Twenty-fifth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, both inclusive, being Three hundred and sixty-five Days, subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half-pay, as in and by the aforesaid Act were prescribed in that Behalf; now it is hereby provided, enacted, and declared, That so much of the said Sum of Six hundred and one thousand seven hundred and thirty Pounds, and of Fifty thousand one hundred and seventy-three Pounds One Shilling and Sixpence net, as is or shall be more than sufficient to satisfy the said Reduced Officers according to the Rules prescribed by the said Act to be observed in the Application thereof, or any Part of such Overplus, shall and may be disposed of to such Officers who are maimed or have lost their Limbs in the late War, or such others as by reason of their long Service, or otherwise, His Majesty shall judge to be proper Objects of Charity, or to the Widows or Children of such Officers, according to such Warrant or Warrants under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, as shall be signed in that Behalf; any Thing in this Act or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.
