CAP. XLIII.

An Act to authorize the Receipt and Appropriation of certain Sums voluntarily contributed by the Most noble John Jeffreys Marquis Camden, in aid of the Public Service. [21st June 1819.]

WHEREAS the Most noble John Jeffreys Marquis Camden did, on the Eighth of February in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, propose to the then Chancellor of the Exchequer, in the then distressed State of the Country, to pay, in Aid of the Public Revenue for the Exigencies of the State, from the Fifth Day of April then next ensuing, whatever Fees, Perquisites, or Emoluments he might receive in Right of his Patent Office of One of the Four Tellers of His Majesty's Exchequer, beyond the Sum which was enacted to be paid to each of the Four Tellers of the Exchequer by an Act passed in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for establishing certain Regulations in the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, (23 G.3.c.82.) and beyond the Charge of the Establishment of the said Office: And whereas the said Marquis Camden then stated, that it was not his Intention to resume or retain to his own Use, out of the Fees, Perquisites or Emoluments of his said Office, during the Period he might continue to hold the same, any larger or greater Sum than the Amount so specified in the said recited Act: And whereas the Sum of Eight thousand two hundred twenty-five Founds Eleven Shillings, being the Surplus of such Fees, Perquisites and Emoluments over and above such Amount as aforesaid, for the Year ending on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, was paid by the said Marquis Camden in Aid of the Public Service of the said Year, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for continuing to His Majesty certain Duties on Malt, Sugar, Tobacco and Snuff in Great Britain, and on Pensions, Offices, and Personal Estates in England; and for receiving the Contributions of Persons receiving Pensions, and holding Offices, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and seventeen; which Act has since expired: And whereas it is highly expedient that a Memorial should remain, recording the just Sense entertained by Parliament of the Public Spirit and disinterested Conduct of the said Marquis Camden, in making during his Life this large Sacrifice of Private Fortune to the Service and Necessities of his Country; and it is also necessary that Provision should be made for carrying into effect the Intention of the said Marquis Camden; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three or more of them, or for the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being, to give such Directions as may be necessary for carrying into Effect the said Intentions of the said Marquis Camden, and from Time to Time for receiving and giving full and sufficient Discharges for all such Surplus Fees, Perquisites and Emoluments aforesaid, as shall accrue by virtue of the Patent to the said Tellership of Marquis Camden, for the Period which has elapsed since the Expiration of the said Act, of the Fifty-seventh Year of His present Majesty, from Year to Year, during the Time the said Tellership shall continue to be held by him; and further to direct that all and every such Sum so contributed shall from Time to Time be paid into the Office of One of the Four Tellers of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.
