nor to alter the Provisions of the Acts of Union between Great Britain and Ireland in respect to the Importation or Exportation of Goods.

VI. And whereas it is necessary that other Duties of Customs should be granted to Your Majesty in lieu of the Duties repealed by this Act; we, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, have therefore given and granted to Your Majesty the several Duties of Customs herein-after mentioned, and do humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in lieu and instead of the Subsidies and Duties of Customs hereby made to cease and determine, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in ready Money, (except as herein-after is provided) without any Discount whatever, upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported or brought into Great Britain, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Tables to this Act annexed, marked A. and B., and upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize exported from Great Britain, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Table to this Act annexed marked C., and upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize brought or carried Coastwise from one Port or Place in Great Britain to any other Port or Place within Great Britain, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth

VIII. And whereas by the herein-before recited Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, it was among other Things provided and enacted, that all Duty charged on the Import of Foreign or Colonial Goods into either Country, should on their Export to the other be drawn back, or the Amount, if any were retained, should be placed to the Credit of the Country to which they should be exported, so long as the Expenditure of the United Kingdom should be defrayed by proportional Contributions: And whereas by an Act made in the Fifty-sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to unite and consolidate into One Fund all the Public Revenues of Great Britain and Ireland, and to provide for the Application thereof to the general Service of the United Kingdom, it is enacted, that from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, all Rates, Duties, Taxes, Receipts, Sums of Money and Revenues, of what Nature or Kind soever, which shall or may constitute or form Part of or be directed to be carried to the several Funds called the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, and the Consolidated Fund of Ireland respectively, shall be carried to, and shall be and become, and shall form and constitute One General Fund, to be called the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the said Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, after Payment and Satisfaction of certain Charges in the said last-recited Act mentioned, shall be indiscriminately applied to the Service of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Part thereof, as shall be directed by Parliament: And whereas it is expedient to continue the Payment of Drawbacks on the Export of Foreign and Colonial Goods from Great Britain to Ireland; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, all Duties of Customs and Excise charged and paid on the Importation into Great Britain of any Foreign or Colonial Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall, on the Exportation from Great Britain to Ireland of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, be drawn back, and paid and allowed to the Exporters of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, under and subject to all such
