

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO NONO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CAP. LXXIII.

An Act to repeal several Acts, requiring the Masters of Vessels carrying Certificate Goods to Ireland to take Duplicates of the Contents; prohibiting the Importation of certain wrought Goods, and the Exportation of Gunpowder when the Price shall exceed a certain Sum. [6th July 1819.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Ann, intituled An Act for continuing several Impositions, additional Impositions, and Duties upon Goods imported, to raise Money by way of Loan, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ten; and for taking off the Over-sea Duty on Coals exported in British Bottoms; and for better preventing Frauds in Drawbacks upon Certificate Goods; and for ascertaining the Duties of Corans imported in Venetian Ships; and to give further Time to Foreign Merchants for Exportation of certain Foreign Goods imported; and to limit a Time for Prosecutions upon certain Bonds given by Merchants; and for continuing certain Fees of the Officers of the Customs; and to prevent Imbezzlements by such Officers; and for appropriating the Monies granted to Her Majesty; and for replacing Monies paid or to be paid for making good any Deficiencies on the Annuity Acts; and for Encouragement to raise Naval Stores in Her Majesty's Plantations; and to give further Time 8 Ann. c. 13.

for registering Debentures as is therein mentioned; it is enacted, that the Master of every Ship carrying such Certificate Goods to Ireland shall demand and take, from the Collector of every respective Port of Great Britain, a Duplicate of his Content in Writing, certified under the Hand and Seal of the Collector and Comptroller of such Port (which said Duplicate the Collector and Comptroller of each Port in Great Britain are hereby required to deliver to every Master without Fee or Reward), and such Master shall be obliged to deliver such Duplicate to the Officers of the Customs in Ireland on his Arrival, before he be permitted to land such Goods there: And whereas, in all Cases of Exportation of Certificate Goods from one Country to the other, Certificates of the due landing of such Goods in England and Ireland respectively are now required by Law, and the Duplicate Content required by the above-recited Act is become useless, and operates as an Inconvenience to the Trade between England and Ireland, and it is therefore expedient no longer to require such Duplicate Content; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Act as requires the Master of every Ship carrying Certificate Goods to Ireland to demand and take from the Collector of every respective Port in Great Britain a Duplicate of his Content in Writing, certified under the Hand and Seal of the Collector and Comptroller of each Port in Great Britain, to deliver such Duplicate to the Officers of the Customs in Ireland on his Arrival, before he be permitted to land such Goods there, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

So much of recited Act as requires the Master of every Ship carrying Certificate Goods to Ireland to take a Duplicate of his Content from the Collector for Delivery to the Custom House on his Arrival repealed.

II. And whereas it appears no longer necessary or proper to continue the Prohibition on the Importation of certain Articles enumerated in an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, intituled An Act avoiding divers foreign Wares made by Handicraftsmen beyond the Seas (which Act was to continue and endure to the End of the then next Parliament, and by several subsequent Acts was continued, and by an Act passed in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the First, intituled An Act for the further Relief of His Majesty's Army, and the Northern Parts of the Kingdom, was further continued until some other Act of Parliament should be made touching the Continuance or Discontinuance thereof): And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be repealed; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said first-recited Act, and every Thing therein contained, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

5 Eliz. c. 7. Prohibition of certain Foreign Wares.

16 C. 1. c. 4.

5 Eliz. c. 7. repealed.

III. And whereas by an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled A Subsidy, granted to the King, of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable upon Merchandize exported and imported; it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to ship, carry out, and transport, by way of Merchandize, Gunpowder, when the same doth not exceed the Price of Five Pounds per Barrel, paying a certain Rate appointed by the said Act: And whereas it is expedient to allow the shipping, carrying out, and transporting Gunpowder, although the Price may exceed Five Pounds per Barrel; be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as prohibits the shipping, carrying out, and transporting Gunpowder, when the Price of the same doth exceed Five Pounds per Barrel, shall be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, or repeal, or in anywise affect so much of the said recited Act as authorizes His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to the Exportation of Gunpowder.

So much of recited Act as prohibits the shipping of Gunpowder when it exceeds 5*l.* per Barrel, repealed.

Power to prohibit Exportation not affected.
