CAP. LXXVIII.

An Act for transferring the Duty of the Supervisor of the Receiver General's Receipts and Payments to the Comptroller General of the Customs in England. [6th July 1819.]

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of the Office of Receiver General of the Duties of Customs in Great Britain, certain Duties are required to be performed or executed by the Supervisor of the Receiver General's Receipts and Payments, or his Clerk: And whereas it is expedient that those Duties should be performed or executed by the Comptroller General of His Majesty's Customs in England, or his Clerk; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every the Duties required by the said Act to be done, performed, or executed by the Supervisor of the Receiver General's Receipts and Payments, shall be done, performed, and executed by the Comptroller General of His Majesty's Customs, or his Clerk, such Clerk being first duly authorized by him, and for whose Conduct he shall be answerable. 46G.3.c.150.

Comptroller General of the Customs to do the Duty of the Supervisor of the Receiver General's Receipts and Payments.

Not to make any other Alteration.

II. Provided always, That this Act shall not be construed to make any other Alteration in the Regulations of the aforesaid Act, than as herein contained.
