

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO NONO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CAP. LXXIX.

An Act to continue, until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty, Two Acts of the Forty-fifth and Fiftieth Years of His present Majesty, allowing the bringing of Coals, Culm, and Cinders to London and Westminster by Inland Navigation. [6th July 1819.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for allowing, under certain Restrictions, until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and six, the bringing a limited Quantity of Coals, Culm, or Cinders to London and Westminster by Inland Navigation: And whereas an Act was passed in the Fiftieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to allow, until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and eleven, the bringing of Coals, Culm, and Cinders to London and Westminster by Inland Navigation: And whereas certain Duties of Customs were made payable by the said recited Acts, in lieu of which other Duties have been imposed and made payable, and certain other Duties of Customs of One Shilling and Three-pence are by the said Acts respectively made payable for every Ton of Coals, Culm, and Cinders brought along the Grand Junction or Paddington Canals, or brought down the River Thames nearer to London than certain Stones or Posts in the said respective Acts severally mentioned, and which said last- 45G.3.c.128. 50G.3.c.110.

last-mentioned Duties are by the said Acts respectively directed to be paid into the Chamber of London, as for and in lieu of the Duty called Orphan's Duty, and all other Rates, Dues, and Duties which are payable to the Corporation of London upon Coals, Culm, or Cinders imported into the Port of London: And whereas both the said recited Acts have been continued by several subsequent Acts and are in force until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and it is expedient that the said Acts should be further continued in Manner herein-after mentioned; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said several Acts, so far as the same respectively relate to the said several and respective Duties of One Shilling and Three-pence for every Ton of Coals, Culm, or Cinders brought to London and Westminster under the Authority of the said recited Acts or either of them respectively, and also so far as the said recited Acts respectively relate to the Rules, Provisions, Conditions, Regulations, and Restrictions under which such Coals, Culm, and Cinders may be brought to London and Westminster by Inland Navigation, and the said Duties, and all the Clauses in the said recited Acts relating to the said Duties respectively, and to the said Rules, Provisions, Conditions, Regulations, and Restrictions, shall be and the same are hereby continued, and shall be in force from the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and nineteen until and upon the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty.

Recited Acts, so far as relate to Duties and Conditions under which Coals are brought by Inland Navigation, continued till Aug. 1. 1820.
